Died,

Russer Fowers, Esq., aged 69 years,

A multitude of interesting associations gather and mourn at the grave of this beloved and respected citizen. The first man, who, with wagon crossed the Towarda steam, who erected the first framed building in the now flourishing shire town of Bradford County. Unblamished in reputation, public and liberal in spirit, prudent, energetic and benevolent. His name is prominent, as his labors were first among those Fathers of Bradford, whom all delight to reverence and honor. The proneer of a numerous family and connection, while with indefatigable industry he was preparing an earthly home, with characterists wisdom he early secured. a building of God eternal in the heavens. Patient in tributation, dilligent in grace, and, for the last seven years of life, in the hands of unusual bodily infirmities, his Master found him watching; and when his hour came he gathered up the loins of a christian faith tried, and precions for its trial, and went his eternal way, triumphant and rejoicing.-He had no enemy, and numerous friends, from hill and valley, far and near, gathered in strength of manhood, and with tottering steps of age, to drop a tear of respected sorrow upon his bier. The spontaneous voice of that multitude pronounced an eulogy at his grave, nobler than the glory of earthly conquerors, "Mark the perfect man and upright, for behold the end of that man is peace."
