CALIFORNIA AFFAIRS-The news from California shows that the laws are again supreme in San Fran cisco, and the fearful assumption of authority by the Vigilance Committee is no longer recognized, The Committee now assist the anthorities in arrest-the vignative now assist the autocontent of the committee now assist the autocontent of the committee now assist the autocontent of the committee of the court of the content of the committee of the court of the content of the conte against him; and when brought up for trial he pleaded "not guilty," and asked for two days to prepare for trial, stating that he had no counsel. The Court provided him one, and when the day of trial came on he withdrew his plea of, " not guilty," and pleaded "guilty." Arrenture, another of the gang rought on and implicated by Stuart's confession was also arrested by the committee, and by them delivered over to the courts. T. Belcher Kay, who was also implicated, has been forced to leave, and so has Mrs. Hogan and others, whose names are enspicuous in the confession of Stuart. In Capt. S.S. Gallagher's case who was tried for the murder of Lewis Pollock, the jury disagreed. He has been remanded for trial. Judge Barton, of Philadelphia, defended the prisoner, and his speech is described as a most powerful defence; the court-room crowded to its utmost capacity, almost every distinguished person in town was present.

Business in California appears to be still depres ical severance of the lower and upper portion of the State, which is boldly advocated in the Southern papers

DEATH OF DUDLEY LEAVITT .- The New Hampshire Statesman announces the sudden death of Dudley Leavitt, of Meroduh, N. H. No man was better known, by his works, in New Hampshire, than Leavill, having been an almanac-maker, and exception of a few years, he has continued to prepare and publish one regularly every year, down to the present year, for 1852. He was, also, a school teacher of considerable repute, and carried on a small farm, which he owned, on the shores of breaktast, on Tuesday morning, 16th instant.

FATAL RAILBOAD ACCIDENT .--- CLEVELAND, Sep. 22.—This morning, a terrible accident occurred on the Cleveland and Columbus Railroad, "near this city: There were two locomotives attached to a heavy freight train upon the road, when the boiler of one of the locomotives exploded, and a large por-tion of the boiler being thrown upon the top of the other locomotive, instantly killed the engineer, named S. Rooth. The other engineer was injured fatally. Both firemen were seriously scalded. The locomotive was completely destroyed, and the rails be-ing torn up considerably the passenger train was delayed five hours.

BESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN CINCINNATI.-CINCINNATI, Sept. 22 - Yesterday noon, a fire broke out in Coddington's extensive chair factory, in Vine street, was totally destroyed, together with thirteen adjoin ing buildings, mostly second class dwellings, be-sides which seven other buildings were considerably injured. Mr. Coddington's loss is $65,000 on which there is an insurance of $15,000 The total loss is estimated at $100,000, on which there is only $25,000, insurance.

CT A son of Isaac Nichols, in the town of Nichols, aged 12 years, fell from a tree into which he had clambered after a squirrel, his head coming in contact with a sharp stone which cut a hole into his skull, out of which a portion of the brain escaped. The injury was supposed to be fatal; but surviving unexpectedly to all, until the 8th, (the day following the accident,) Dr. F. Nye, of this village was sent for, who dressed the wound, administering some gentle palliatives; and, to the surprise of all, the boy is recovering.—Ourego Gaz.
