Tax Payers and Settlers.

Do you desire to have a man receive a Judicial po you without performing the labors incident to the office! If so vote for William Elwell, who is enomce gaged in so many of the causes now pending, that we will be obliged to have special courts for maby years. Nor will that necessity cease as long as orginal land titles are tried in the District, for Wm. ELWELL having been generally EMPLOYED BY THE LANDHOLDERS, carnot sit during the ga Ind of their titles. During the time Mr. Williaton has been upon the Bench, more than half the civil beiness has been done by another Judge, holding perial courts, to the great delay of the public business and at a heavy cost to the County. THE MONEY MARKET still continues very strinent in New York; and the banks throughout the tate discount but very little-one teason for which that although too large a proportion of them are s, that authorize the large a proportion of them are more shaving institutions, instead of confining homselves to a legitimate banking business. It is ifficult to see why this stringency should exist at his time—and circumstances suggest the inquiry thether it is not more of a ponic than anything else. he gold coinage of the United States for the twenty months ending Sept. 1, 1851. was $52,711,172, while the exports of American gold coin in the ame period, were but $17,655,150. Within the perified time therefore, the country has gained out forty five million of dollars in American coin is the amount of silver exported which has been placed by gold dollars. The total smount of recepported in the twenty months mentioned 87,368,059. Besides this was exported the er sum of 13,000,000 in foreign gold and silver large portion of which should be offset by the ents by emigrants. But allowing that all the er and all the foreign coin exported should be end from our California income, we find that country has gained at least $25,000,000 in spein less than two years. Notwithstanding these s, however, the money market is tight, and the ers are doing a great business. We have faith believe that the tables will be turned before many erks - Freeman's Journal.
