THE CASE OF THE UNITED STATES VS. ROBT. H. Morris, the colored lawyer of Boston, indicted for abelling in the rescue of the fugit ve slave Shadrach, steminated on Wednesday, in the United States, perminated on Wednesday, in the United States District Court, by a sealed verdict of not guilty. When the jury first went out, they stood 11 for acquital to I, and remained so four hours and a half, at the end of which period the outstanding juror gave in. All the jurors were in favor of enfor the law, as constitutional, but they were not satisfied that Morris was in the cab with Shadrach, as testifield by some of the witnesses for the Governent, the testimony of these witnesses being met by the witnesses for the detence, who testified that they saw all the persons who were in the cab, and that Mr. Morris was not one of them.

FATAL AFFRAT .- In Canonsburg, Pa., on Wednesday of last week, a man named Williamson and a student of Jefferson College, had a quarrel, which resulted in the death of the former. Wilson used insulting language to the student, who warned him to desist, but instead of doing so, he commenced beating the student on the head with a club, and threatened to kill him; whereupon the student drew a knife and stabbed Wilson five times in the abdomen, from which he instantly died. The student has e-capeal, but several others have been arrested as accessories. The student was from Emmittsburg, Md.

Tom Hyar Arrested -"Tom Hyre" and "Bill Pool," the well known pugilists have been arrested in New York for a brutal assault on the person of one Charles Owens, the bar keeper at Florences Hotel in Broadway. The cause of the affray was the refusal of the" fancy" to pay for, their drinks.

The Fugitive Slave Law has been decided by Judge Denning, of Illinois, to be unconstitutional.
On that ground he discharged an alleged fugitive slave who was brought before him
