

FRIEND REPORTER :- I SUPPOSE that you, in old radiord, are buttoning up your over coats, and of warning your noses and fingers at the com- tancifully decorated-one could almost believe that reared their gothic and corrinthian fronts along main purpose, and at his feet a poor "gone coon" hung men, came a blacksmith's shop with a number of derer. Pray for him." But I should occupy too after a few trials, would be able to compose and shrugging your shoulders in the chilling winds of a smith's hard at work. Then a magnificent oriental mach room to tell you half of the interesting inscrip dictate at the same time. To many, thinking with torns that we met with. At all these tombs that the pen in hand, has become so confirmed a habit, that it is difficult to throw the ideas into the orderly mentator on laws, was a printer by trade. King

George III. learned the art, and frequently set type after he ascended the throne of England. We he was a printer. Alexander Campbell the great-let us not be content that-filer alone be held up to the credit of the profession-let us honor ourselves and do all we can to keep up, and elevate still higher, the character of our beautiful art.

handed it to me, said :

"Have you the change, ma'am ?" "I really don't think I have a penny in the house. But I will see." So I went to the closet where I usually kept small change in a tea cop. But not a copper was there When I announced this fact the man looked so unhappy about it, that I called to my hired girl to THE PRINTER -- Many who have acquired great know if she had a couple of pennies. Jemima lame and celebrity in the world, began their career proved to be no better off than myself.

tears and blood and clothed the world in sackcloth -closed his days in lonely banishment; almost exiled from the world, yet where he could some times see his country's banner waving over the deep, but which would not, or could not, bring was a fairy's dwelling. From this temple at in- street there were large censers in which "incense ored, for at present we are reveiling in weather tervals of three or four minutes were discharged was burning, and tall wax candles in rich silver te that of June, and our cloudless and sunny skies rockets to a great height, which fell in showers of candle sticks, burning at the doors. I have been te as lovely as the skies of Italy. Our moon-lit rain bow-colored stars. After that came a wagon something particular in this description, but as it inenings, too, in their deep silvery beamy are "gloshop, with men at work in it, and in the middle of terested so many thousands in this city, I concluded nous," and present many of those hoursafe which, a long company of footmen a monstronsly large that a faint idea of it would please some of the reas Byron sats

But podes, lovers and consumptives are not the uly creatures that rejouce in the warm and pleasinfluence of our Southern clime ; though inan many fine bands of music. banners, transparencies, his pride is welly apt to say, " See all things for with the "funniest" designs that could be thought ruse." There is any quantity of musquitoes as appy as happy can be, it we may judge by their and suging, and they are glenty fat enough toast mg " if roast musquitoes made as fashionaie a dish among the epicures as fried frogs or shall 10np Hone sis down to read or for a social chat s slap, slap, slap, corunnally, unde the bloodansiy creatures are so tenacions that they will keep ucking at the fountain of life till one has, actually mashed them is to attend to one's own business and let the af, the tokens of remembrance. And they not only as of others al me, --especially when assistance is bring these beautful tributes of regret to place upon solucied. The subject is now discussed with the tombs, but they remain themselves all the day, a catmiess and reason which only "by-goiles" puled ag, wors, who would like for make for thera ses, some pultical capital ont of the affair, but to are looked upon by the great body of intelli- unit in its simplicity, for it is natural for the human al cuizeus as entirely in worthy of regard. The heart to wish to be remembered, and the request is that at the departicle of the Steamer Panpe- has often been made by an expiring friend, that the city, who did not heartily sympathies with the grant blossom there. But pride has stepped in, and the case. If all these large healthy fellows who are bans, firmly believing as they then did that the made it more a rivalry for vain show than as an ex- not wanted here, and who can actually find nothing babilants of that island really desired to throw off pression of bereaved affection. I spent the affer- to do, (without they go to nicking up rags through Spanish yoke, and they had actually struck the noon in those populous cities of the dead with a the streets, wand there are enough at that pasiness I blow for themselves.

ery mass bosom, and believing that freedom i lence of their numerous inhabitants they, resemble White they are staying here, lounging about their man's inherent and inalignable right, when he a city as much as possible. The streets are laid boarding-houses, the coffe houses, and such places, ientbers the assistance that our country received out and graveled, and the tombs are built above waiting for a chance to get in a situation where they " persons belonging to other nations in her rev- the ground. Some of them were splendid mathle may receive a high salary and have very little-to onary storagles, would not, under the circum-

wes have felt within bim the warm stirrings of decorsted with all the boanties of architecture and will never be any advantage to them. How much pathy ?- To work on the generosity of the noble | sculpture, -having doors and windows. The finest | better it would be, if, instead of thronging to the benevment hearted by the means of deceil is of these were built along main street that led from city as so many of them do, they would engage in inty one of the basest of crimes; and develop- gate to gate, as is the case in other cities. One, and the uoble defies of agriculture, and make for them proved that such was the case in the Cuban the finest in the whole cometery I remarked partico- solves and those who may be depending open them both with regard to those brave young men lary. The doors were open, and a man sat in the a combinable and independent home. It would be ent and those who contributed their means temple, beside a coffin coverest with a black velvel b tter for the city, the country and themselves. And men who had been sincere and honestpail, which was all thinmed with gold and silver when we think that many of them liave ten the rich ed in the expression of their sympathy, when tringe. The coffin I presume was least. He had and lettile fields of the west, hoping to bener them, and that thre was no revolution on the island, large wax candles burning on a stand, and rich va- selves and make life easier and more pleasant by e Creoles were perfectly commented in their wes of flowers arranged all around. Over the coffin acting in an inder capacity amidst the noise and conducon, and unworthy of being free by were marble images the most beamiful Two Art: dist of a city, ratter than as masters of themselves base conduct towards those who had gone with g is we's folded a jngs, and holding censers in their and independent farmers, there-there is no achigh of rendering them such dangerous assi- hauds, appeared to be watching one at the head and counting for it except, by the old story of man's nate-They immediately withdrew all countenance support from the expedition, and with a noble others bearing the spirit to heaven. It, the center, interve of principle, opposed aff the attempts of and just above the collin, was the figure of the S.-mean "filler's charge". (I don't mean "filler's charge".

form of sentences, onless the act of writing accomi nanies the effect.

as printers. Sir Wm. Blackstone, the learned com-"rooster" which had been manufactured for the ders of the Reportsr. New-Orleans is at present a very busy city. It is thronged with strangers from dangling. There were a great many other things every part of the Union, the western states especialshowing off the engenuity of the "Locos," a great 15 being well represented. To a student of the noble science of "human nature" and physiognomy, a walk down some of our principal streets is a perof in ridicule of Whiggery, -a great many foot and fect treat. The contrasts presented are very strikest theologian that ever lived, is alprinter. Gentlemen of the " Craft," these are gratifying facts; but horse -but I must stop We, Pennsylvanian Deling, and are such as no other city in the Union premocrats here, are very glad that you have done so sents in the same space of time. Here they come gloriousty in electing a Governor and other state -hurrying along-the prim polite, muslached officers. Pennsylvania and California will be apl. Frenchman, as neat as though dust wouldn't stick to remain on very good terms for some time, as the him as it does to other men, and the largevorawny brothers, Bigler, are each appointed at the helm, Kennuckian dressed in his home-spin, and deter-Lust Saturday was " All Saints Day,' a holiday mined to "see things." The dark Spaniard with among the Catholics, and a day observed in no has bearded face and pierenig eye, and the pale other part of the Union as it is in this city. The I Irish emigrant in his patched corduroys, and heavy-The Cubin excitement which range only in this Catholics have four large grave-yards in the city, soled brogans. The thin, leaning consumptive y at my last writing, as to swallow up almost and every year, on this day (Nov. 1) they deck who has come here to die, and the thick hpped ery thing else for the time, has gradually dud the tombs with flowers, both natural and artificial, curly-headed fellow as black as your boot. This is to be glorified. The presence of Christ upon him way. The people of New O. leaus appear to have and with every kind of ornamen', making the last a taint idea of what an observer may see in the sed down in the belief that the best folicy af er | resting place of relatives and triends bloom with course of an hour passing our streets. I had admost left out the spice of this variety, which is the fairfuced-rosy cheeked maiden, fresh and blooming from the hills of New England, and the delicate calling fip recollections that the stir of businesshad and sylph-like brunette, or what the poetical geapilo receive -extrepted beyon a dew small almost driven from the mind, and consoling them nind of this place call " the dark eyed daughters of selves with the sad pleasure of being for a while the summy south." The sattow quatroon, and fullnear the "loved and tos." This costom is bean- blowned Durah.

There are a great number of young men here a present who are looking for situations. They have come apparently with the idea that every-body in-With the gall ant Cot. Cristenden and his band on one most dear should come to his grave, and renews New-Orleans get right, but in all probability they and, there were very few men of either party m ing the remembrance of broken ties, strew the fra- will find out by personal experience that it is not friend, amidst a vast throng of other visitors, and already) were out in Bradford county where there nd they have been very much blamed for this, we found it a place of great interest. They may as work to do, they might clear off the woodfands think's mogfolly. Who with the true love of well be called "cities" too, for except in the si- and make it all a perfect garden in a low years .temples between fifteen and thirty feet high, and do, they are acquiring habits which to say the least meamer with me. He had never been to Work before, and he was asking questions of everybody on board the boat!" However, if he was green as gram' he was picking up a good deal of information which will doubtless stund him in good stead here, after. One of his comparrisons struck me as deridedly original. "Up to Nonhamton,' said he, H ook breakfast and they taxed mo tow shilling "I was a poory good price but I 'gin it to 'em.

-where he will want it-where he can use ito Harlord I took breakfast ag in, next morning. ind when I asked 'em How much I they looked at me und said, " Half a doftar P (1 looked en back poory sharp-but I paid it : and arter Lil paid it I sot down and ciphered ap-inside how much it would cost a fellow to board at that rate; and 1 tell you what, T pooty soon found cout that for the end of a month it would make a fellow's pocketbook lookings if an elephant had stomped onto it P " -- [Knickerböcker.

DRESS -- Never laugh at those who do not dress as you do. They may know a great dest more They may be the independent chizens, whose more could stave with his best shor brush. al weight enhance the esteenf of our country, and fend most to perpetuate our free Institutions. This should be thought of when an over-dressed squiff is the best medicine in the world . Low spicits take parading the street. 65 When should musician be punished as sonnterfeiter? When he produces false notes.

"What's to be done ?" said I looking at my traveller, who sat balancing himself on the legs of his chair, and looking as solemn as the grave.

"I'm shure I don't know," was his replaced Perscarcely need mention Franklin, for it is well aps you can borrow from a neighbor known to all who are tamiliay with his name, that "From a neighbor! There's none within a mile; and I certainly shall not go that far to borow two pence."

I began to teel annoved.

"Well, ma'am," he looked serions and speke Semie (il want my change What's to be doue! A happy thought flashed through my mind, and answered with as grave a face as possible

"I dont see what you'll do unless you eat out the THE CHRISTIAN .- The real Christan is the only change " undent man. He has taid up in store for the win-

"Estout the change !" he exclaimed, taken at ler of the grave. He looked through all the fature first a little by surprise. and provides for it all. He seed the evils that are

"It's the best that can be done" said I, already before him, and from all of them h des himself in reginning to enjoy the scene. Christ. He is prepared to die, to be judged, and Involuntarily my guest taid his hands upon his omach, straightened himself up. and and seemed at the judgment," and the Spirit of Christ is sanctibe testing his capacity for holding an ounce more fying him for glory. He may have no treasure on of tood. earth; and no matter's he has or not, he is offer

"I donb believe I can swallow another mouthpareing rapidly over it; and likhe had, he could not ol," he femarked while his eyes, ranged over the take it with hims-but in heaven, his goal, his able home, he has a treasure. It is where he is to be "It's your only chance, sir." I was already alf smothered with suppressed laughter; but I This is the prudent man. Mark hum. Imitate him. cept my gravjty.

The man sighed, hesitated, surveyed the table 17" should like you to have seen," said ind at length drew up with an air of desperate friend to us the other day," a specimen of a green resolution. Another slice of cold meat was trans-Yankee who came down the Sound in a H unford ferred to his place, another piece of my homemade bread overlaid with a thick stratuct of fresh butter, and another pint tumbler filed with mitk Then began the work of appropriating these oor fellow ! He made but slow progress; and was compelled in the end, though evidently with great reluctance, to abandon the field with his two cents worth of provender bin half consurred. While striving to induce his reluctant stomach to receive another mouthful of bread and meat, his eves Twas enough, any way. Well, when I come down canght sight, in a looking-glass, of the laughtersuffused face of "my Jemima" when starting up. with an air of insulted dignity, he left the table and house, multering, in a low long, something about Gaking advantage of strangers."-Arthur's Gozdie.

> BT A YOUNG GESTLEMAN who had just married latte undersized beauty, eavy she would have been taller, but she is made of such preciums mnterials, that Nature could not afford it. How full of spigarshie honey moon makes-one, Mon4 h? A year from now he'll be swearing about the house, because his fool of a wile has been cleaning the > for same complaints a little good luck is their fise not so other from a bursting hearts as the gulan-try! from a collisped pocket-book ." We once knew a wages a shilling a day.

him aid.

Thus those four men, who, from the peculiar situation of their nortraits, seemed to stand as representatives of all those whom the world calls "great,"-those four who made the earth tremble to its centre-severally died-one by intoxication. the second by suicide, the third by assasination, and the last in lonely exile.

How vain is the greatest of this world I How rearms is the gift of genuins, if it be abused ! Who, that is now living, would not rather die the death of the humble, righteous man, that of Alexander. or Hannibal, or Cresar, or Napoleon I

A SECRET .- "How do you do, Mrs. Tom ! have yoù heard the story about Mr. Fundy ? "Why no; really, blrs. Gad, what is it I do al F

" Oh, I promised not to tell for all the wold, No. I must never tell on't as long as I live, jost as tipe as the world."

" What is it-come tell." "No Fil never open my mouth about it-never.

Hope to die this minute."

"Well, if you believe me, Mrs. Fundy told me yesterday, that her sister's hosband was told by a person, that Mrs. Trouble's eldest daughter told Nicholas that her grandmother heard by a letter she got from her third sister's husband's oldest brother's daughter, that it was reported by the captain of a clam boat just arrived from the Ferre Islands, that the mermaids about that section woro shark ekin bustles and stuffed with pickled cels,"

WATS AND MEANS .---- Two Irishmen who were traveling together got ont of money, and being in ant of a drink of whiskey, devised the following says and means : Patrick, catching a frog out of a brook, went forward and the first tavein he came to, asked the landlord what creating that was. " It is a frog." replied the Laudlord. " No sir," said Pat, " if is a mouse,"

" It is a foor," rejoined the landlord. " It is a mouse," said Pat, " and I will leave it to the first traveler that comes along, for a pint of whiskey ?? " Agreed." said the land ord, Marphy soon arrived and to him the appeal was made -After much examination and deliberation, it was decided to be a mouse, and the landlord in spite of the evidence of his senses no dthe dett.

To be free flom desire, is money; to be free from the rage of continually baying something new is a certain revenue : to be content with what we possess, constitutes the greatest and most certain of riches.

Those persons who are always cheerful and good unnored are very useful in the would ; they maintim peace and happiness, and spread a thaukint temper amongst all who live around them.

Dip yor-aver enjoy the exquisite blies of couring? If you did not, you had better get ali-man to be saved from suicide by just taising his C.T. Why are authors who near about physiognoiny like soldiers? Because they waterabe t pine.