The Kossuth Dinner.

Thursday last was a great day for the City of N. York. The dinner given by the Corporation to Gov. York. The diffuer given by the Corporation to Gov. Kessuth, took place on Thursday evening at the Irv-ing house, Mayor Kingsland present. Among the in-handred gentlemen being present. Among the in-vited guests were Mr. Francis-Pulzky, and others the distinguished Hungarian exiles accompanyof the distinguistico nungarian exiles accompany-ing Kossonh, Gov. Cleveland of Conn.; Hon. Mr. ing Kossen, Gov. Cleveland of Conn.; Hon. Mr. Rantoul, of Mass.; Hon. Geo. Bancroft, Washington hving, Gen. Avezzana, Geo. Copway, the Indian-chief, m his war dress, Gen. Sandtoid, and Col. Webb of the Conrier and Enquirer. The members of the Corporation were all there, as were the representatives of the Bench, the Bar, the Army and Navy, the Reverend Clergy, Custom House. The hall was appropriately decorated with the banners of Hungary, England, Turkey and the Uni-banners of fungary, rangiand, runkey and the Oni-ted States. Among the ornaments on the table was one representing the flogging of Haynau by Bar-clay and Co's, brewers. After the company had taken their places Gov.

After the company nut taken then, places Gov, Kossuth entered the hall, supported by Mayor Kingsland and Alderman Shaw. He was received with prolonged and hearty applause.

Letters were received from Daniel Webster. Henry Clay, Lewis Cass. James Shields, Wm. H. Seward, Hamilton Fish, Robert C. Winthrop, Gov. Hant, Christopher Morgan, &c The Mayor made a speech, and concluded with the following senti-

Hungary-Betrayed but not sold. Her call for help is but the echo of our appeal against the tread of the oppressor.

When this toast had been drank, Gov. Kossuth rose to reply. The entire company rose with him and greeted him with loud and repeated cheers, to which he bowed repeatedly in acknowledgment. After the applause had subsided and order was restored, he spoke for two hours and a half, in a most eloquent strain, evincing great knowledge of the history and politics of this country, and vindicating his doctrine of non-intervention in a most logical and able manner. It was a wonderful speech; the greatest, we think, he has yet deliver-el, considering the subject and the occasion. A toast complimentary to the Press was responded to by Messrs. Raymond, of the Times and Webb of the Courier and Enquirer. Other gentlemen also made addresses and the company broke up be tween 1 and 2 o'clock, A. M. The orator in his great speech, advocated and presented the three owing propositions, which were unanimously and loudly approved by the meeting -to wit :

"That the people of the United States may be pleased, by all constitutional means, to declare-First that, feeling increased in the maintenance of the laws of nations, acknowledging the sovereign right of every people to dispose of its own domes. tic concerns to be one of these laws, and the interference with this sovereign right to be a violation of these laws of nations, the people of the United States-resolved to respect and to make respected these nublic laws-declare the Russian past inter vention in Hungary to be a violation of these laws which, if reiterated, would be a revolution, and would not be regarded indifferently by the people of the United States-that you, therefore, invite your Government to act accordingly, and so invite Great Botain to unite with the United States in this policy. Second, that the people of the United States is resolved to maintain its right of commercial intercourse with the nations of Europe, whether they be in a state of revolution against their Government of not-and that with the view of approaching scenes of the continent of Europe, the people invites the Government to take appropriate measures for the protection of the trade of the people on the Mediieranean, and third that the people of the United States pronounce its opinion in respect to the question of independence of Hungary, so as I had the bonot to state."

ACQUITTAL OF CASTREN HANWAY The trial of Casiner Hanway for ireason, came to a close on Thursday afternaon. Mr. Coopen made the con-Thursday alternaon... No one having uttered it in sincerity, was ever a mean crying man. The pigmies of the world did not trouble him, although they rose in masses to pull him down. He speaks and the indomitable will prevails. His enemies full before him. He rides forth a conquerer. Would you be great - Would you be distinguished for your scientific of its subject which cannot fail to suit the taste and wishes of purchasers, and meet the wants of the public; and as every body knows that he always sells Goods very cheap, it is not necessary to make any remarks of the subject literary attainments? Look not mournfully at your on that subject of bat with "I Will" breathing from your ips, and unsting from a great fleart you cannot bet prevail. Show us that man who never sose higher than a toad stool, and whose influence died with his breath and we with point you to a gaping, cringing wretch, who trembled at the approach of a spider and faint beneath a thunder cloud. Let the fires of energy play through your veins, rad if your thoughts are directed in right channels, you will yet startle the universe.

KOSSUTH AND SLAVERY .- In the debate in the Senate on Foote's resolution of welcome to Kossult last week, Foote remarked, "He that is with Kos such is for Liberty-he that is against him is for Sla very." Senator Dawson, of Ga., quickly and sig-nificantly replied. "Exactly ?" Does not this response pretty plainly indicate something about one part at least of the opposition to the resolution ?-But after all, it is not strange that men who uphold Slavery at home, should hesita's about welc a "fugitive" from Slavery in Hungary. It weuldn't look "exactly" consistent.

THE LEFT HANDED LADY .- An old lady proverbial for her pride of Christianity, one afternoon dis-covered, while in the midst of her work, the regerend shepherd of the flock of which she was a member, within a few paces of the home, and ma-king strait towards the door. Wishing to be thought well employed, she threw her spinning-wheel aside and seizing her spectacles and bible, though she could not read a word, was engaged so deeply at the time the good man entered as not to observe him until he gently tapped her on the shoulder:-"La! madam, do you read with your bible upside Hunt's Merchant's I down ?" "Oh dear, is it Mr. B ?" said she, " yes Silliman's Journal, I always read so : I'm left handed."

BEGIN RIGHT -Are you stepping on the threshhold of lite? Secure a good moral character --Without virtue you cannot be respected-without integrity you can never rise to distinction and honor. You are poor perhaps. No matter, poverty is oftener a blessing than a curse. Look at the young man who is worth half a million. What is his standing? Of what use is he in the world f

THE GREAT BRITISH QUARTERLIES

Blackwood's Magazine. Important Reduction in the Rates of Postage !--Premiums to New Subscribers !

EONARD SCOTT & CO., No. 54 Gold st., New LYork, continue to publish the following British

Periodicals, viz ! The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative),

The Edinborgh Review, (Whig). The North British Review, (Free Church), The Westminister Review, (Liberal).

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory). Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subects: It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly above all other journals of their class.--Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer, and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first ap; earing in its columns, both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading put shers in this constry, have to be re-printed by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott, & from first cost, being satisfied that his goods are select-Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales. These Reprints have now been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class and from numerous Electics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption. TERMS AND PREMICES.
