NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS.

JOSEPH KINGSBERY,
 IS now receiving an extensive assortment of GOODS, purchased since the late decline in prices, and which cannot fail to suit the taste and wishes of purchasers, and meet the wants of the public; and as every body knows that he always sells Goods very cheap, it is not necessary to make any remarks on that subject.
BOOKS AND STATIONARY.
 I shall in a few days receive a very large catalogue of New Books and Stationary, and being desirous of disposing of double the usual quantity this season, shall reduce the prices to a very low figure.
SHAWL DEPOT.
 Being agent for the sale of the Bay State Shawls in this Borough, I am enabled to offer them much lower and in larger variety than any other establishment this side of New York. Large supplies of these shawls will be received during the winter.

T. E. GRIDLEY'S BUSINESS CARD REAL ESTATE AGENCY.
 To the Citizens of Bradford Co.
 MR. G. would say to the reading public that now is an age of literature, an age of unprecedented magazine popularity. The basis of every Republic rests upon the great and broad principles of universal intelligence disseminated among the body politic. Trusting to the patronage of an intelligent public, extensive arrangements have been made with the leading American publishing houses, to supply the best products of the press, written by the most eminent writers. Books supplied to order, in large or small quantities. New publications and books on hand as soon as issued. Magazines, &c., paid for by the number, on delivery.
