INTERESTING TO STEAMBOAT TRAVELERS. The oheepsie Eagle reports att interesting law case as recently been decided in the Cucui and of Oyer and Terminer, in that place:
Agendeman by the name of Whinfield, belong Poughkeepsie, took passage at New York, on gemboat Oregon buying a through sicker for bany, as, owing to the competition, a through as, owing the for a less price than a way when the bout reached Poughkeepsie mield offered his through ticket and attempted ashore; but the officers of the boat foreible al him, and carried him against his will to that time. him and carried him against the own. No of No.
Whinfield brought a suit sgainst the own. No of No.
Wrim Acres officers of the boat for assault and talse immeat; contending that a through ticket ensome in the holder to land wherever he pleased on the The Court sustained this position: ruling, through ticket entitled a passenger to land place where the boat stopped; and that in fact the pass ingers had a right to walk ashore at any ce : that a passenger not paying his passage n demanded, was it ible to be put on shore in ediately; but it the steamboat came to Poughecisie or any other dock, a passenger who had his passage had a right to go ashore without a detention from the owners or employers of the at: and that in fact the owners must collect the e passage money before starting; and if not col red at that time, it was a debt, and to be collectas other debts; and that it was false imprison nent to detain any passenger from landing Under this mling, the jury found a verdict of 150 and costs against the captain, clerk and ticket gent of the Ore on.
