

MARRIED
On Thursday evening 24 inst., at the residence of Rev. Mr. Esq., by the Rev. S. F. Colt, M. A. Esq. of Leroy, to Miss Ann Hickock of Wy-

DIED
On Thursday the 24th inst., Miss EMERENZA A. Stevens, eldest daughter of Samuel Stevens of Pittsfield, Pa., aged 20 years.

It was with the most profound regret, and heart-rending sorrow that we were summoned to perform the last rites of this departed sufferer. The age, the love and esteem, connected with the innocent and pure of her heart, as well as the unwavering confidence which she held in the hearts of her numerous friends and relatives; all contributed to the general gloom and universal sorrow, upon this melancholy occasion. But a few short months since she was one of our number, joyous and confident, and in the anticipation of lengthened years of success and happiness. Her amiable deportment, her good sense and intelligence, her agreeable manners, her kind and benevolent heart, had secured for her the love, admiration and esteem, of numerous friends and associates.

The deceased was the eldest daughter of three as intelligent and kind hearted children as ever blessed a parental affection. To her as a protector were they wont to go for kindly offices, advice, and correct reproofs. May that mother whose toil was in constant to relieve her sufferer, and whose heart beat in unison with her beloved daughter, be rewarded with a more heart-rending affliction. But the fatal hour has come, the path has been registered, that dearly which awaits all the living soon to be in the same. A flower too fair for earth was sent to its departure to join that celestial choir in heaven. But four short months have passed since she was in the capacity of a student—possessing all a student's ambition, and apparently enjoying good health, being at the time with her friends in Wilkesbarre. With pleasing anticipation did she look forward to the time when she should once more be in the arms of her parents, brother, sister and friends, in cheerful converse under a parents' roof. But alas! that mighty destroyer was destined to blot her fondest hopes and dearest wishes. She was first attacked with a severe cold which settled in the region of the lungs. This with a damp climate to which she was wholly unaccustomed, soon brought her into conflict. With anxious hearts did her kind relatives watch over and render all the assistance within their power. But alas! their untimely efforts, were rendered in vain. She still continued to sink under her complicated difficulties. Whilst attempting to remove her to her home by public conveyance, they were to unfortunate as to be overtaken by a violent storm, which it was impossible to evade. The exposure and excitement undoubtedly added much to her affliction, she survived the peril but a short month. In consequence of a severe attack of the brain for the last seven days, the blessing of reason was not hers, except a very short interval. Staring gradually from day to day her spirit calmly took its departure from the scenes of this earth to dwell with her maker above. She had been a faithful member of the Episcopal Church for the last two years of her life, so was her death calm and meek amidst her afflictions. Then mourners, weave thy chaplet of flowers and strew the beauties of nature about her grave. Console the broken spirit of thy loved one with these tender and futile tributes of regret. But take warning by the bitterness of this terrible affliction over the dead, and henceforth be more faithful and affectionate in the discharge of thy duties to the living.

And can it be that she has passed Away from earth so soon.
A flower too fair for far to last.
Has sped the immortal tomb.
Then unveil thy bosom faithful tomb.
Take this new treasure to thy trust Add these sacred relics to it.
To seek a slumber in the dust.

NEW YORK
ADVERTISEMENT.
W. H. BAIRD, formerly of Bradford Co., Pa., is still engaged with the firm of Van Dusen, and Jagger, who have this day removed to their new and spacious store No. 30 Vesey street, corner of Church, (in the rear of the Astor House) where they are prepared to exhibit a very large and general assortment of Foreign and Domestic DRY GOODS, adapted to the country trade. They will keep a large stock of Merino, Cashmere, and other desirable styles of Prints. Cash as well as fine class credit customers will find it to their interest to call.

They have also a department devoted to the BOOT and SHOE business, and feel confident they can offer better bargains in that line than any exclusive Boot and Shoe house in New York, from the fact that the expense is much less in proportion to the amount of sales. Mr. Baird flatters himself that having the benefit of 15 years experience in the mercantile business in Bradford Co., his knowledge of the style of goods adapted to the Northern Pen-sylvania trade, will make it an object for merchants doing business in that section to give him a call.

Any orders for goods in the above lines will be promptly attended to, and the articles warranted to be of satisfaction.
New York, March 1, 1853.

DISSOLUTION.
The partnership heretofore existing between H.
S. & M. C. MERCUR is this day dissolved. The business will hereafter be conducted by H. S. Mercur. All debts due to the late firm must be paid immediately.
Towanda, Jan. 1, 1853. M. C. MERCUR.

stant attention to business to deserve, as I hope to secure a share of public patronage.

THIS extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and all Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from chronic and acute coughs, it gives the most immediate and perfect relief, and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these WATTS succeed the most marked results. They relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs, which give rise to the complaint.
The medicinal properties are combined in an agreeable form and pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

THE SAFE RETURN
SIR John Franklin, should cause no greater excitement, than the NEW STOCKED CLOTHING STORE,
GEORGE H. BUNTING,
OPPOSITE THE WARD HOUSE.

BUNTING respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, in town and the surrounding country, together with "all the rest of mankind," that he has just received from New York, one of the most complete assortments of Mens and Boys Ready Made Clothing, ever before offered in Towanda, together with Gentlemen's, Cassimere, Vermilion, and Trimmings which will make up in the most approved style, and at the lowest price.

He has also on hand one of the most fashionable stock of Furnishing Goods, such as Woolen Un-derhirts, Overshirts, Drawers, and every article which is necessary for the gentleman's Wardrobe, which will be sold cheaper than any other Clothing Store in Bradford County.

It is confident that from his long experience that he can give general satisfaction. He employs none but the most expert workmen, and feels assured that his work will be in every respect of workmanship or elegance of style, and hopes by strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of that liberal patronage which has been extended to him heretofore.

Returning sincere thanks for past favours he asks the public to give him a call and see for themselves.
The question asked here is, "Can we get the best?" If properly made up, and warranted to fit? Don't mistake the place, on the corner of Main st. and the public square, opposite the Ward House.

"It is evident, this is all a stage,"
And even must dress in this progressive age, Each have their taste of style, of cut and dress—
The question asked here is, "Can we get the best?"
Where can the largest stock of goods be found?
Say where the cheapest and best about?
Where can we at the shortest notice get A coat, a vest, and pantalions that fit?
To answer these, I frankly say that The best place is Bunting's Clothing Hall.
