WALL THE ESCAPE

Bally in the Saring old 780, Alexanter M Conel, of Lexington, Ky., went into the woods on foot o hunt deer. . He soon killed a large buck, and ret :ned home tor a horse, in order to bring it in -De ring his absence, a party of five Indians, ou one o't wir skulking expeditions, accidentally stumble ed on the body of the deer, and perceiving that it had recently been killed, they naturally supposed that the number would soon return to secure the fleck. Three of them, therefore, took their station within glose rifle-shot of the d.er, while the other two tollowed the trail of the hunter, and way laid the path by which he was expected to return.

M'Connel thinking not of danger, rode carlesely - slong the part, which the scools were whiching. until he had come within view of the deer, when he was fired on by the whole party, and his horse killed. While laboring to excitate himself from "the dying animal, he was selzed by his enemies. overpowered, and boine off a prisoner His cap tom, however, seemed a meiry, good natured set sel fellows, and permitted him to accompany them "ubound-and what was rather extraordinary, al Joxed him to retain his gun and hunting accoutre--sments. He accompanied them with great apparent officertathess, through the day, and displayed his dexterity by shooting deer for the use of the company, until they began to regard him with great -partiality. Having travelled with them in this man-"der for several days, they at length reached the Fir banks of the Ohio uper.

Heretolors the Indians had faken the precatition "fo bind frim et night, although not very securely ; Life etc bat on that evening, he remonstrated with them on the subject, and complained so strongly of the pain which the cord gave him," that they merely wrap "ped the buffato tug about his waist, and having field it in an easy knot, and then attaching the extremities of the rope to their own bodles, in order to preyout his moving without awakening them, they , yery composedly went to sleep, leaving the prisoner to follow their example or not, as he pleased. "MiCouncil determined to effect his escape that night il possible, as on the following morning they would cross the river, which would render it more difficult. He therefore lay quietly until near midnight, anxiously ruminating on the best means of effecting his object. Accidently casting his eyes in | Fenigreck whe direction of his feet, they fell upon the glittering blade of a knife, which had escaped from its sheath, and was now lying near the leet of one of the Indians.

- To reach it with his hands, without disturbing the two Indians to whom he was fastened was impossible, and it was very hazardous to atempt to draw it op with his feet. This, however, he attempted With much difficulty he grasped the Lavender blade between his toes, and alter repeated and long continnes eilert-, succe-ded at length in bringing opium it within reach of his hands. Their slumters were proverbially light and restless-and if he laded with a single one, he must mevitably be overpowered by the firurs, verbens, heliotrope, sweet brier, geran survivors. The knife was therefore out of the queson. After anxious reflecting for a few minutes

boorit Another Mescue by SCHENCH'S PULMONIC SYRUP. Towas on the verge of the grave, and so far gone that my damity and friends had tost all hopes of my re-covery; and when in this situation, having them re-cued by the use of Schenck's Pulmonic, Syrup, I'dethe unspeakable benefit I have received from the use of his invaluable, medicine, Early last fall, L contracted a violent cold, and in onsequence of which I had chills, alternated with fever. pains in my right breast and shoulder blade, with had cough, and no expectoration. I kept getting worse until I took my bed, and had the altendance of my family physician. Lwas under his care about four che, and at the expiration of that time was reduced so low that demain took, hold of myself and friends, and even my physician aliandomed ine and gave, me op to did with the hasty consumption. Mg, appetite was gotie, my howels very irregular, fever and nightsweats, pain in my breast and shoulder, attended with distressing cough, which was very tight ; my flesh had nearly all gone, and was so weak that I could scarcely raise my head from the pillow, and was truly an object of play to behold. 'My friends had been sent an objection puty to senote "way string and we we set for to see me die, and my sick bed was surrounded by kind and sympathizing neighbors, who had come to witness my departure from this world. "When all mys of hope had fied of my recovery; a neighbor. Mr. David Contral, proposed to ity Schenck's neighbor. Mr. David Contral, proposed to ity Schenck's

Pulmonic Syrup, with a view of loosening my cough and relieving me of the tough phiegm, and as a means of affording temporary relief, mmarking at the time, that I was too far game for the Syrup to be of any permanent benefit." My wife, anxious for the relief permanent beneut. my wile, anxious for the relief of my intense sufferings, procured some of the Pul-monic Syrup. I found it afforded me relief, and continued using it. I could feel its healing influence upon my longs. I continue to improve under its use, and my friends were much gratified to witness my unexpected im-provement; many of my neighbors came to look at me as one raised from the dead.

My cough now became loose, and I felt something break, when I had the pain in my breast, and I dis charged large quantities of yellow matter. I have for ed and raised a spit box full of matter every day, with bard lumps like grains of something. My howels now became regular and natural, and my appetite was so far improved, that I could scarcely refrain from esting too much. My strength improved and L regained my flesh.

I continued to improve in every respect soon after commenced using the Syrup, and the improvement continued until I was restored to my health. I have passed through the inclement weather of the latter part of winter and the spring, and feel as well now a ever I felt in my life, and I am this day a living testinony of the great efficacy of Schenck's Pulmons inhabitants of Tacony, who saw me at different times during my disaase, and nover expected to see me restored. Inlso append the certificate of the brothers Mystic Lodge, No. 270, I. O. of O. F., who kindly vatched over me, and fully believed they would con sign my remains to the tomb; but, thanks to Dr schenek for his invaluable Pulmonic Syrup, my life has been spared, and I am permitted to make the fore going statement for the benefit of suffering mankind I teside at Tacony, and am well known by most o the people there, and will be gratified to have any person call upon me and learn more particulars of the virtues of this medicine. JOHN C. GREEN. virtues of this medicine. June 24th, 1951. The subscribers, members of the Mystie I od re, No. 270, I. O. of O. F. of Holmesburg, Pa. do hereby cerufy that we know John C. Green, (and is a member in good standing in No. 270 I. O. of O. Holmesburg, Philadelphia Co., June 25, 1951. The undersigned, residents of Tacony, eight miles C. Green, and the circumstances attending his case, feel impelled by a deep sense of imperative duty, to make universally known to the public his entire recoverv from the vory last stages of Pulmonary Consumption. So entirely helpless was his condition, having been but a brief period since in that rapidly sinking and emaciate state, as to ut erly preclude, in the opinion of his physicians and friends, who watched by his bedside, all hopes of even a temporary recovery and restoration to his present robust health. Thus the care-ful use of your invaluable. Specific, the Pulmonic Syrup, makes it our belief, under the circumstances of his previous prostrate, not to 'say dying 'condition. on a of the most startling results that the whole ganals of medieal skill or science can produce. It deserves to be im-perishably recorded to your credit, and secure to you. the greatest discoverer of this hitherto remediless disease, a lasting monument and a world-wide reputation in the healing art, that no time may either diminish or destroy. Having witnessed Mr. Green's distressing truggles and sufferings from a continued cough, superadded to the other symptoms consequent upon, or attending to the last stages of a pulmonary discase; and moreover, it being so generally believed by his numerous friends that no human power could relieve, or protract his life, much less restore him back sgain to his former health, we feel it thus our duty to give our ununalified testimony of Mr. Green's perfect recovery by means of the exclusive use of your wonderful Syrup; and we should indeed rejoice if we could be made the humble instruments of relief and core to others who may be Day
