GEORGE H. BUNTING, OPPOSITE THE WARD HOUSE.

BUNTING respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, in town and the surround ing country, together with " all the rest of mankind," that he has just received from New York, one of the most complete assortments of Mens and Boys Ready Made Clothing, ever before offered in Towarda, together with Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, and Trimings which he will make up in the ist approved style, and at the lowest price. He has also on hand one of the most fashionable stock of Furnishing Goods, such as Woolen Undershirts, Overshirts, Overslits, Drawers, and every article in his line pertaining to Gentlemens' Warthrobe, which will be sold cheaper than any other Clothing Store in Bradford County.

He is confident that from his long experience that he can give general antisfaction. He employs none but the most expert workmen, and feels assured that his work will not suffer by comparison with the best city shops either in elegance of workmanship or el. egance of style; and hopes by strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of that liberal pat ronage which has been extended to him heretofore. Returning sincere thanks for past favors he asks the public to give him a call and see for themselves.

CUITING done as usual and warranted to fit if properly made up. (1)

Don't mistake the place, on the corner of Main st., and the public square, opposite the Ward House. 'Tis even so, this world is " all a stage," And gents must dress in this progressive age, Each have their taste of style, of cut and dress.— The question asked where can we get the best? Where can the largest stock of goods be found Say where the cheapest and best abound? Where can we at the shortest notice get A coat, a vest and pantaloons that fit? To answer these, I frankly say to all The cheapest place is "Bunting's Clothing Towards Dec. 29, 1852.
