1. By the Ularter, risks can be taken only on Dwellings, private Barns, Carriage Houses and Farm Buillings, and the Personal Property therein. Not more than-two-thirds the value of any building to be insured ; personal property therein in sy be insured at its each falue. -, 23. Any applicant may, at his option, pay a definite sum in fuil for his i surance in Rea of giving a pree un in note:

3d. Not more than $2,000 will be taken in one risk.

4th. Any policy holder may at pleasure withdraw from the Company, by paying his share of the losses up to the time of such withdrawal.

Sth. The Charter provides, and the Company will hold Itself responsible, for the correctness of surveys and other official acts of its authorized Agents, done in accordance with its charter and published rulesthus ending all cavil as to the technical correctness of surveys, and the consequent liability of the Company. ning, whether the buildings are burned or otherwise damaged.

7th. Additional stoves may be set up, or moved from one'room to another, without giving notice to the Company ; also, such repairs as do not increase the hazard of the property, shall not atlect the insurance. * 8th. Losses will be settled with promptness and liberatity. If the Company, or some person acting for them, and the insured cannot agree in the adjustment, the matter may be submitted to three judicious disintcrested persons residing in the vicinity of the loss. 9th. Should any more money be collected than suf ficient to keep the Company in a sound and solvent condition, it will be returned to the Policy holders in proportion as each uhall have paid in.

10th. By rejecting wholly every class and kind of hazardous risks, this Company will not be subjected to the great disa-ters and losses that so frequently produce excessive taxation and bunkruptcy among Insurence Companies. The directors, in soliciting patronage, do so in the firm conviction that the plan adopted by them will render the FARMERS' UNION COMPANY perman. ent and safe to its Policy holders, and as cheap as the prompt payment will permit. In arranging their Rates, they have sought to secure sufficient Cash Premiums to meet all losses—laying by the small notes taken, as a Reserve Fund -- which shall render the Company safe againstall contingencies. For a more definite and full view of their plan of operations, they respectfully invite an examination of their Rates,
