Democratic County Convention. . The proceedings of the Convention which met at this place on Tuesday evening last, will be found reported at length in another column. The deliberations of that body were characterized by a good feeling, which he have rarely seen exhibited on previous occasions, and the delegates separated, carrying with them universally, a feeling of satisfaction with the ticket formed, which previous predilections in no way interfered with. The harmony which pervaded their action and the enthusiasm manifested for the election of the successful competitors for nominations is a sure augury of the triumph which we are destined to achieve at the polls. We believe that a campaign has never been entered into under more favorable auspices. No feelings of animosity have been engendered-the gentlemen whose aspirations have not been gratified, as becomes every good Democrat, bow in submis sion to the choice of the majority, and are ready with their friends to render the ticket that support they would have expected had the result in the Convention been more favorable to themselves. every way competent to discharge the duties of the offices for which they have been named, and will receive the cordial approbation of the whole party. port, and a triumphant endorsement at the polls.

Decision of the Supreme Court.

A telegraphic despatch from Pattsburg, dated the 6th inst., states the decision of the Supreme Court on Railroad subscriptions was given that morning, from a full bench. The despatch goes on to say that the Court Room was crowded, in expectation that a decision would be rendered upon the question of the constitutional power of the cities and counties to subscribe in their corporate capacities to the construction of railroads. The case before the court was that of William Sharpless et als, vs. the Mayor, &c, and was argued some time since.

Each Judge read a separate opinion, and certainly five such able opinions have rarely, if ever, procoeded from any legal tribunal. The learned Chief Justice Black occupied about one hour and a quarter in reading his opinion, relusing the injunction, and deciding in favor of the constitutionality of the acts of the Assembly authorising corporate subscriptions. Justice Lewis occupied more than an hour in reading his opinion in the opposite view. Justice Lowrie next followed, with a shorter opinion, coinciding with the views of Judge Lewis Justice has been given. Mr. N. is a young man, of good Woodward next followed, agreeing in substance, with the views of Chief Justice Black. Thus far the four Judges stood equally divided, when Justice Knox, the new Judge, concluded, by reading his opinion, in a brief but lucid manner, and decided the case, by concurring with Judges Black and Wood ward.

This decision, we have every reason to believe removes every obstacle in the way of the immediare commencement of work on the North Pennsylvania Railroad-which we hope soon to see put under contract, for its entire length, from Philadelphia to the State line.

Temperance Convention

In pursuance of a call, published in the Reporter, a Temperance Convention was held at the Court are unknown to us, further than the nomination of ZEBULON FRISBIE, of Orwell, and John V. Daniels, of Burlington, as candidates for Representatives .-We have not been lavored with the proceedings for publication, and consequently are unwilling this week, to make the remarks which naturally sugnest themselves from the strange coincidence of action of the Temperance and Whig Conventions, as we prefer the names and proceedings as authoritively reported.

Accidents in the Mines .- On Thesday afternoon, August 2, a-man named-Thomas Owens, was so injured by the falling of top coal, in the tunnel at the head of plane No 2, at Pittston, that he died in about half an hour atterwards. He was an unmarried than, aged about 35 years, and a Welchman by birthe and the bas of bas of me

OUR CANDIDATES.

Representatives

In accordance with the usages of the Democracy and approval of their legislative career, JOHN PASSMORE and WILLIAM E. BARTON were pumply repaid for our time and trouble. by acclamation re-nominated as candidates for Rep. resentatives. A complement of which they are emegrity during the late session of the Legislature -To speak of them as candidates, is a work of supererogation, as the people have already once expressed their opinion at the ballot box, but their upright. ass and fidelity in representing our interests, be. comes now the only question. As to this we believe liere is but one expression, that of perfect satisfac ion. No members were more fauliful at their posts, more vigalent in attending to the local interests confided to their care, and none more tadical in support of questions of State policy. Their re-election is due for the vindication of democratic mea-uses, as well as for the support of honest and efficient public servants.

Prosecuting Attorney.

The nomination for Prosecuting Attorney, ha been bestowed upon our fellow-townsman, JAMES MACFARLANE, who is already known to the public as an able lawyer, and a correct and industrious business-man. We believe that the duties of the office, which are of great importance to the public, will be promptly and property discharged, under his alministration, and in such a manner as to prevent unnecessary delay and expense on the part of prosecutors and others, and to expedite the proceed ngs in Court. Mr M. possesses a good reputation at the bar, and the confidence and esteem of the community.

Commissioner.

STUART SMILEY, of Franklin, the candidate for County Commissioner was a prominent candidate for the nomination last fall, and the strong claims he has for the support of the party, was acknowledged by the flattering vote he received on Tuesday evening. We take pride in referring to his nomination-a pride which arises from a knowledge of his wo thiness as a man, and his capacity to the office for which he has been named. The office of County County Commissioner is one of no secondary importance. The voters of the County, lave no officer to select, whose competency should be so closely examined. The interests of the taxpayers has become of immense importance, and the business now transacted in the Commissioner's office, of more magnitude and responsibility than most of our people are aware. Mr. SMILEY is enirely qualified to meet every emergency which may arise, while his integrity and sound judgment are conceded. He will prove a worthy co-adjutor with the present efficient and economical Board.

Treasurer.

The nomination for Treasurer, appeals at once to more thoroughly indentified in feeling with the people-the tax-payers-the bone and sinew of the County-than NELSON GILBERT, of South Towanda. Brought up to a life of toil, schooled by stern necessity to habits of economy and frugalityhis sympathies are with those who derive their susenance by the sweat of the brow. County Surveyor.

The nomination for County Surveyor was betowed upon JAMES A PAINE, of Franklin, who has the reputation of being a consistent and taithful Democrat, and admirably qualified to perform the duties of the office for which he has been named. being possessed, by education and experience, of the particular knowledge necessary to give public satisfaction as a Surveyor.

Auditor.

The office of Auditor is one of great importance o the tax-payers of the County. If its duties are performed in a careless manner, many abuses might creep in, where there is an appoal expenditure of so many thousands of dollars. The person selected for Auditor should be possessed of integriy, decision and judgment, and be familiar with the details of our County business. All these necessary qualifications are combined in CULLEN F NICHOLS, of Burlington, to whom the nomination abilities and education, and admirably fitted for the satisfactory discharge of the duty of auditing the accounts of our County.

Another Revolutionary Soldier Gone.

Died in Windham, August 23, Isaac Brownson, Esq., in the 96 h year of his age. The deceased anlisted in the American Army in New Millford, Litchfield Co, Conn, in 1775 He was an Adjutant in the Army-engaged in the battle of Trenton. and served as "Sea Coast Guard" during a considerable portion of the war. Sixty years ago he nettled in Northern Penna., on the Wyatusing creek, and has been identified in the various incidents and perils of its history. In all the civil and social relations of life, he has been an honorable and useful citizen. Thus pass away the veterans of our House, on Monday evening-flast. Its proceedings country's liberties. Let their memories be embalmed in our hearts.

> DEPLORABLE CASUALTY .-- A most melancholy occurrence took place at Monroeton, on Saturday evening last, which has brought the deepest gloom upon the community, and the profoundest regret up. on all the parties concerned. As the matter will be decided upon in a legal manner, we shall content ourselves with a mere mention of the circumstances, which is, that NELSON WARFORD was almost who are endeavoring to stop the agitation of the Hanson. Whig County Convention.

The Convention of our Whig friends assembled in the Court House on Wednesday evening, to go through the form of nominating a County ticket to of this County, and as a mark of their confidence, be beaten at the next election. Somewhat anxious to witness its proceedings, we attended it, and were

The Convention was organized by calling Junson HOLCOMB to the chair, and electing two secretaries. nently deserving, from their fachfulness and in. The list of election districts was then called over, to give delegates an opportunity of presenting their credentials. The maldrity of the towns were apparently of Greeley's opinion that the Whig party was "nowhere," for they had neglected to elect delegates, and after repeated enquiries responses could only be obtained from sometwelve or fitteen lowns. The Convention then proceeded to enlarge its members, by manufacturing delegates for the unrepresented towns, until about half the usual number were obtained

Being now in working order, a motion was made and carried to proceed with the nominations for Representatives, and our neighbor Parsons, of the Argus, Zebulon Friebik, of Orwell, and John A: Copping, of Pike, were trotted out. Upon the first vallet, E. A. Parsons was nominated by an almost unanimous vote, and the Convention proceeded to second vote, which resulted in the nomination of ERULOR PRISER.

The remainder of the business of the Convention vas performed in a very expeditious manner.-There seemed to be no dispute about the candidates who were to be beaten by the Democratic nominees-the only difficulty being to find men who would "stand the fire." One delegate says, "I move you, Mr Chairman, that PRECEPTOR FORBES of Rome, be nominated as the candidate for Tressurer, by acclamation"-carried, nem. con. Another moved that O. H. P. KINNEY, of Sheshequin, be nominated for Prosecuting Attorney; in like manner, against which there was no objection.

The remaining nominations were moved and carried in a similar manner-the nomination of Comnissioner being allotted to D. Kellogg, of Monroe: County Surveyor to Z. F. WALKER, of Athens, and Auditor to Ezra Horcown of LeRoy. At this stage of the proceedings we left, charmed with the harmonious action of our opponents, and the want of strife for office apparent in their ranks.

One matter, however, was a subject of considerale curiosity to us, and for which we in vain asked or information. We observed that several delerates to this Convention of "simon pere" Whigge v. were also delegates to the Temperance Convenon held on Monday evening, and that the most active and busy outsiders now, were those who had controlled that Temperance movement. Perhaps solution may be found in the adoption by the Whig Convention of Zeetlon Frience, the candiate of the Temperance Convention for Representative Any Democrat who honestly and conscientionaly concurred in the Temperance nominations, and could have seen the movements and action of pretended Temperance men in the Whig Convention on Wednesday evening, would be incredulous indeed did he not perceive that an attempt public support. No man in Bradford County, is has been made to deceive the Democratic portion of those concerned in the Temperance movement. for the purpose of securing the election of a Whig

> Most zealous in the Temperance convention, and unanimous as to the expediency of nominating candidates for Representatives, were the very men by whose efforts and votes the Whig whom they N. Maynard, and J. M. Bishop being proposed, four had brought into the field two evenings previous ballots were had with the following result:onvention. The hypocrisy of the movement too apparent to deceive any in elligent man.

Our neighbor of the Argus has had his Card re sponded to, and his wishes gratified. Whether or fortune as well as prosperity-entitle a man to the not he he is particularly pleased with the result, desuccess at the polls. It is none of our business to interfere in the domestic arrangements of our opponents, but the esprit du corps leads us to protest against any of the fraternity being John Rogered in this manner. The tactics which place the most mentorious in nomination, only to fill out the ticket and centres the exertions and expectations of the party upon another, is a poor satisfaction, and poor recompense for years of patient drudgery.

Negro Hunt at Wilkesbarre.

The following account of a recent negro hunt at Wilkes-Barre, we take from the Luzerne Union, of Wednesday, 7th inst.

" On Saturday morning last our town was thrown nto quite an excitement by several deputy United States marshals making their appearance in our nidst for the purpose of capturing an alleged fugiive slave by the name of William Thomas.

"The said Thomas has been a resident of Wilks Barre for the last two years and was formerly emploved at Hillman's Hotel, until within a shorttime then he went to the Phoenix on river street. On the morning of the 3d inst., while engaged in the lining room, he was approached from behind and altogether unaware by four or five persons who attacked him and attempted to put shackles upon his arms. He immediately suspected their purpose, and dashing them from him gave battle, when a desperate fight ensued, the negro being repeatedly enocked to the floor and in turn knocked his assailants down, until at length being freed from them ie fled to the river, followed by the officers. On arriving at the river he plunged in with the intention of swimming to the other side, but found he could not swim, when he returned within a few steps of his pursuers and remained in the water .-While fleeing and, while in the river he was several times fired at by the officers, but one of which, however, took effect, the ball entered the back part of the head, and making a flesh wound. On being | Earth. requested to come out of the water and surrender himself, he declared his determination to drown himself rather than be taken as a slave. The officers then gave up further pursuit, and immediately lett town. A warrant was issued for their apprehension, but before an officer was found to serve it Ley had left.

"Thomas, was taken up and properly cared for by, his friends, and although terribly wounded and bruised, we hear he is doing well and will recover." The gentlemen who engaged in this exciting and rather novel sport, are of the class, we presume. instantly killed by a blow on the neck, from John slavery question, and take this method of accomplishing their object.
