

a uniject to their invisdiction. To the Indians entelves it was equally essential to be tentoved acontact and pressure of the white race was fatal South and West, and winessed the cordial support othem. They had dwindled under it, degenerau, become depraved, and whole tribes extinct, reduced to a few individuals, wherever they atmpred to remain in the old states, and could look no other fale in the new ones.

"What," exclaimed Mr. Elliott, senator from eoigia, in advocating a system of general remoal, "What has become of the immense hordes of ase people who once occupied the soil of the older west In New England, where numerous and white more so fiercely contended for sumacy with our forefathers, but two thousand five muted of their descendants remain, and they are total removal; but it was a beginning which as spinited and degraded. Of the powerful lengue the Six Nations, so long the scourge and terror New York, only about five shousand souls recase, until the entire system was accomplished.

um. In New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Mary had, the numerous and powerful tribes once seen the, are either extinct, or so reduced as to escape therration in any enumeration of their infiabiums.

Virginia, Mr. Jefferson informs us that there the at the commencement of its colonization. (1607.) in the comparatively small postion of her exent which bes between the seacoast and the pertinent remarks that cannot but be heard by those mountains, and from the Potomac to the most southin waters of James river, upwards of forty tribes may be found/among the mob of dandies and dors ces, a hurband, father, or brother, whore pnavoidd Indiane : now there are but forty-seven individuwin the whole state! In North Carolina none are monted : in South Carolina only four hundred and fily. While in Georgia, where thirty years since there were not less than thirty thousand souls, there now remain some filteen thousand-the one-halt taving disappeared in a single generation. That torm, in fact, the exception, not the rule; we shall many of these people have removed, and others periabel by the sword in the frequent wars which have accured in the progress of our settlement, if with high chin collars and came, averging about seventeen or eighteen years of age, who form a great am free to admit. But where are the hundreds of thousands, with their descendants, who neither removed, par were thus destroyed? Sir, like a promoniory of sand, exposed to the ceaseless encroachrod which Solomon recommended ? Where is the tents of the ocean. they have been gradually wastng wway below the current of the advancing white opulation which set in upon them trem sverf to run the gauntlet of these immature boys. Nor parter: and unless speeduy removed beyond the affuence of this cause, of the many tens of thoutands now within the limits of the southern and altheir mercy as the maiden ; the plain face as sobscalern states, a remnant will not long be found ject to remark as the beautiful one; the poorly dres o point you to the graves of their ancestors, or sed as open to imperimence as the more richly atstate the sad story of their disappearance from tired. One lemate meets a sneer as she passes be-

Mr. lefterson, that statesman in fact as well as in tune, that man of enlarged and comprehensive made to tingle by his loud and insoleat admiranews, whose precognive it was to foresee evils tion. Even where the lady escapes without the will provide against them, had long foreseen the verbal meult, she is stared out of countenance, and has no resource; except to drop her weil; harry on, trils both to the Indians and to the whites, in reand escape into a more respectful atmosphere as uning any part of these tribes within our organiz. al limits; and upon the first acquisition of Louisiafast as possible. -within three mouths after the acquisition-protor, should be soundly abrashed by their parents, ord it for the luture fesidence of all the tribes on beast of the Mississippi, and his plan had been or at least taught, in some other way; how to be ted open in some degree boil by himself and his | have themselves for the future. The other half, slooping corpora in their place and then set down amediate soccessor. But it was reserved for Mr. who are older, ought to receive the alleation of the upon the breech of a guil to meditate further pron Monroe's administration to take up the subject in its police.

commander, with a mock gravity. transactions, who reported the bills and advocated "Then sir. I domand my immediate release.

he treaties which knought this great benefit to the am second in command of the American brig now ready for sea, and no power in England can legally of the members from the free states, without whose detain me " concurrence they could not have been passed-I, "That won't go down, youngster," replied the who wish for harmony and concord among all the aptain with a sneer. "You are a little too young states, and all the sections of this Union, owe it to for such an office. The king needs men and you the cause of truth and justice, and to the cultivation most take your chance with the rest."

of fraternal feelings, to bear this faithful testimony " Do you mean to say that I am to be detailed to the just and liberal conduct of the non-slavehold. an board your ship ?'' 👘 🦉 ing states, in relieving the southern and western " Certainly." "Then, sir," replied Tom, as his eves flashed states from so large an incombrance, and aiding the extension of their settlement and cultivation .-

Standing at Church Doors.

It is a common practice, when a congregation dismissed, to see a line of young gentlemen, ranged along the curbstone, staring inpudently at every female that come out, and often indulging in im-who are the subject of them Very rarely there mass of these imperiment speciators, that would hold up to public reproof. Where are the fathers of those young dandies ?. Where is the wholesome

Only a refined lemale knows how annoving it is do they spare anybody. The matron is just as much eause she does not happen to please the fancy of some young fool, while the cheeks of another are

About half these children, for they, are little, bet ter or sister home.

salice ?

re you will do it at your peril. Already have The recommendation of Mr. Monroe, and the trea rous neople ron np a heavy reckoning, and the day ties of 1825, were the beginning of the system of hall yet come when your king will have to settle it. I am exempt by your own laws, from impresssured the success of the whole plan, and was folment, and you know it. lowed up, as will to seen in the history of each The captain showed in links anger as our hero spoke, but turning to one-of his lieutenants, he said the set of "Mr. Monson, have these men's names ontereil.

and then station them and mess them ;" and without further remark, he walked aft to his cabin. In amoment Tim's mind was made up, and without forther remark or resistance of any kind, he allowed his name to be entered on the purser's books, and his mess to be assigned him, after which a hammock and bridding were served out to possible.

The trigate was well guarded by sentries, there able circumstances has prevented attending church, being two upon the poop, one at each gang way, one and who is waiting to accompany a wife, daughon the forecastle and one on the boweprit, besides Such, ol course, we do not censure. But as those who were stationed "at various posts below; so that no further notice was taken of the new com. scarcely one in ten belonged to the class; as they ers after they had received their bedding, except to speak of those who indulge in this custom, without give the sentinels additional damion with regard to reterence to such. It is the addle-headed lads, watching well that no she left the ship, unless he was passed by the officer of the deck. Tom's hammock was already clawed, and having hung it up he turned into it without undressing The night was warm and solley, and as a means o giving circulation of fresh sir, the gun deck ports were lawered, and from the place in which he awing he could look out open the water as it markied benesch the beams of the bright moon. Tom lay quiet until about midnight, but as yet he could think of no means of escape. Shorily ther that bour hall mused, be beaut the relief ward, called. and in some sen manutes the corporal of the first goard came "down and onfashed the hanmork which bong next to his own, which operation being performed, he proceeding to undress himself, hang, ing his clothes as he did so, upon the eleve of his hammock. The lour hours daty list given the corporal an excellent appetite for sleep, and in five minutes alien he touched his mattress he began to ermial rours. The end antiched cancer i woondda ""Now or naver," thought Tom;" is my chance, and with this files it his mind no childed anich out of his hammock, and proceeded to divest him self of his own, clothes, which as ving accomplished. he very uncoromoniously substituted these aduate his plans.

near the boat, yet none of them did any harm, and | neck-which presented the most extended penin the next moment Tom heard the third cutter called sula of a bone sustanuecle imaginable-was encircled by a gaudy handkerchief, while his totally left away, but he knew the men were all sound asleep in their hammocks, and so he felt secure. to nature has topped off the unique and striking picfure of one of our out west friends-large as lite;

hear me ?"

place and att

"Monnieur ?"

Out, monster."

Mouster no gratoon #25

" I want some Minner, gas-don X"

It was ten minutes before the third cotter cast off. from the ship, and long ere they reached Tom; he and cettainly as natural, After spreading himself in that peculiarly indehad reached the shore and was running at a remarkable speed towards the city where he arrived in endent, national manner, our hoosier friend syes the entire range, which being done, i.e. explodes : safery, and before 2 ,o'clock he was on board his Mustier?"- Nobody responding to the call he own briz The next morning the Sarabaltopped-down with calls again. " Musher ? l'say you und ber, you?? he ebb tide, and as she passed the frigate, Tonst saw the second cutter swinging in her usual place, and as he gazed upon the ploud flag that floated at again. he Englishman's peak, he mattered to biniself "It I live, I'll one day take the pride from these lyrants.<sup>22</sup>

How literally was that saying fulfilled. Tom Macdonough had been Decatur's fovolite milishinman at the siege of "Tripoli," and " wherever Decathr led he dared to follow."

Subsequently to that brilliant chapter in the page of dur history; occurred the event which is emboaied in our sketch, but five years after, on the 11th of September, 1814, Thomas Macdonough met one of England's prood fléets on Lake Champlain. All the first broad side the British Commander fell - ing their pipes, "drinkin' sour wine and playing and at the end of the fight, which lasted two hours him, and he was directed to "turn in" as soon as and twenty minntes, without intermission, Commodore Thomas Macdonough was the conquerer gassoon ! gassoon !

of Champlain. He had gained a proud victory, he policest possible bow, says he ; had indeed humbled the pride of the tyrant, and that day's achievement forms one of the propdest noble and true hear ed man, and a terror, to the enemies of, his country. Peace to his ashes, and everlasting honor to his memory.

A number of years ago, Parson B---- Breached in a town in the interior of this State. A sound the ologian was Parson B-, as a published volume of his Sermons evinces ; but, like many clergymen of the past generation, he was too much given to preaching " doctrinal sermone," to the exclusion of practical?" themes :- at least so thought one of his we know all about the doctrines by this time .-Why do you not preach us a real practical discourse ?

"Oh, very well., If you wish it, I will do no .-Next Sunday I will preach a practical sermon. Sonday morning came, an unusually large audience, attracted by the report of the promised novel. ty, were in attendence. The preliminary services were performed, and the Person appointed his text. After "opening bis subject," be said he should make a practical application to his hearers. He then commenced at the bead sister calling each nber of the congregation by name, and pointed his special faulte. One was a little inclined to out his special laule indolze in creature comforte , another was a terri-

Hoosier rushed out, the las seen of heard of him he was yelling to an Englishman, " Say look a-here, mister where the doce is them bull vards (Boulevards) they talk about f Fir bound to skeer up something to eat."

Two Ways of doing & Thing.

We were passing leisuriy along one of our stract the other evening, watching the sports of a group. of youngsters, when our ears was assailed by the sharp angry tones of a woman :

"Here, you John Smith ! come into the house this moment !? One of the boys turned his head, giving at the same lime a rather unfilial shrug, then resuming his play. " Do you hear what I say, John Smith March We rather think Johnny did " catch it," for we heard allet we had passed, a jark and a slap, as cumpanied by a smothered yell, as the deor was something use, tot in the final of the six easy les-ing over the leaves of his " French to six easy les-sons :" it was a long bunt but he finally finds the We went on our way, doubling whether this course of treatment was exactly the best ander the gircumstances, particularly as the countenance of (garcen !) that's it, them felfers at the table minkthe lad indicated the greatest good nature, As we ware cogitating the matter, we turieu the them dominoes they to mushors, the other chaps corner, and came upon another group of lads in doin thors around, they're u-gaesoons; I suy. front of a house, the door of which that moment opened. A walter comes busiling up to linosier. and with

"Willie," said a mild and pleasant voice. ". Did you call, mother,?" asked one of the boys, coining on to the side walk.

"Yes, my son. It is getting late -- have you not played sufficiently to-day." "I should like to stay out a little longer, if you plense,"

The mother patted the boy on the head, and smi lingly said, " I should not object if if were not pas your bed-time. Have yon forgoiten, Willie the chimed in the boy quickly ...... The mother Lies membge them ..... Good night Tommy - month night Harry?" and taking his matheria hand, he went theerfully into the house of aldemonitor and have This set as again cogitating of Our thought an on the law of kindness and loigs. What would be their effects on the two lade who had been evbients ed to them? Is it not the me statisticy chaling ed to men ? Is it not the inevitable tendines aft

No one will depute this we thinks and groms; or Men are but children of larger growth. ibr shild an with the man, You can last him bets with e genile hand than drive him with the me oridance mbya anger an internet in convict ried a girl from his own krichon, said, " The usion a supplied with a double advantage, as it saves me not only the ement. of a save but the feet on a servening polarising elevelit ats we said on

A word of EinJaes is tofflort spilled in waint This a stall which even when dripped

Don't you on derstand me ! I-say-I-wait dinner." O Dingathan to be the set Oui, monsieur." st Then why in thunder and say ings don's go L'Un dessi à d'are 1 Paloneieur 1210 . 1 100 I say liop around, sht your stumps, lon't xo

Not a word says anybody ; backwoods goes of

" Now that fellow hears me, but gint poin to an swer. I say you musher ! A-a aint you going to

" But hold on," says he, " let me, look? at my book hore, that feller aint a musher, them chaps with white appone on such no. mashers!? they're mmething else, lot me see"- and he teikto- tom-

Ab, here you are wallets, w.a.i-t-o-r wasshon on dersiand me, because if you don't, only eay to dentreund there grinnin' like a cat over a delukit. ife! Consain you, I see you don'ton derstand him at all why don't you up and say a construct an as at all way out 1 and 1 a

" Yes. dinns, -T want good dinna, best dinna you've go .- here I am, the gassoon aterin' me in he oyer, two entifin's world of French in my hing (book,) can't speak a word of the blasted language this feller can't talk Chociaw nor American, prek chance, springrope foesto 's' arragis i a

and the second

"Well, now, what a you soit good, fuss rate a:Monsieur?V I hav what have you got good ?" " Monsieur ?" continues the garcon, in lotal ig orance.

" Oui, monsieute?" H I want som 'en good, too "Oui, mansieur." " Some en good, and pleny of it " in the history of America. Commodore, Thomas Maclonough-the here of Tripoli-the conqueter of Champlain ! He was a

Practical Preaching.