At was a very wet day, and at 11 o'clock, A. M., the Rev. John H Rittenhouse, the pastor of the congregation, drove up, got out of his conveyance, fied is horse, raised his umbrella, and as he approached the church, and was within a short distance of the door, was seen to fall. He was immediately taken up by a person present, and carried into the church where Dr's. Hull and Caldwell made efforts to restore him, but he never spoke or moved aller he fell-he was dead ! His remains were soon removed to his date residence, three lourths of a mile from the new church, where his wite and three children, one of them but a few weeks old, had separated with him but a very short time previous. torever-in this life. The congregation, or those present, accompanied the remains to the house, and then returned to the church, when the dedication sermon, prepared by the deceased, was read by the Rev. D. Walter. The deceased was aged about 33 years, had taken a deep interest in the erection of this new house of worship, and as he was jus about to enter it, to aid in the dedication. James Quin, the Murderer of Mahala Wiggins---His Arrest---Now in Jall.

The bloody tragedy for which Quin now lies in jail of this county, occurred in June last on a canal boat at Nanticoke Dam Manala Wiggins, the un-ifortunate viewm of this mitt der, was an abandened (some cause, which will indoobedly be mademan-ilest on the day of trial. Quin split her bead topon with a hand axe, and fled this part of the country, with title or no effort made by any one, to secure him. The Commissioners of this county offered a reward of one hundred dollars for his delivery, to the County Jail, and soon learned, that a man janswering his description had been atrested and confined in the jul of Lancaster County, on charge of this morder. An investigation proved the prisoner not Quin, and some five weeks since a letter was received at the Commissioner's Office' from the Marshall of Toledo City, Ohio, stating that rumor had fixed upon a man then stopping there some arime, and for whom a reward from this County had been offered. The Mar-hall was replied to by an explanatory letter and hand-till, as I nothing more was heard of it until Monday Evening, when the identical James Quin, arrived in this place by the Scienton Mail Stage, in company with G. M. Cobleigh, Deputy Marshall, (1 Foled), and took Mr. Cobleigh. Yesterday morning the pilsoner was visited in his ell by the Commissioners and Clerk, and acknowledged himself the James Quin, 7 when the reward for his apprehension was pro.npt-

TRAGEDY IN N. O -The Second District was yes. ierday the theatre of a terrible bloody tragedy. A thousand vague rumors, romantic stories, and strange conjectures were affoat in regard to the affair, none of which we suppose are entitled to much credit. The following version we received from the Coroner, and we suppose is about the most co . rect; but still there is a mystery connected with the matter which is difficult to solve. A very beautiful lady, an attache of the Oileans Theatre, named School Book, syled " Political Class-Book, of the Mine." Sage-well known to the frequenters of the opera, for several years-who has been residing in house No. 80 Bourbon street, was yes erday shot in ble patient becomes hearty and all the functions and National Air Tight, cilled the E Mil. the head with a pistol and very seriously wounded by a gentlemen named J. head and blew his brains out. Mam. Sage is a married woman, but her husband had been absent for a long time at Cincinnati where he had formerly resided with his wife. He returned day before yes terday, accompanied by Mr. Bedford, the deceased who had been formerly acquainted with Mme Sage in Cincinnati.

cough has entirely subsided, We feel encouraged Mr. Sage conducted Bedford to the house where his wile was staying, and of coutse a mutual re cognition took place, and Bedford was apparently very happy to meet with his old acquaintance.-About noon yesterday, however, Bedford entered the parlor where Madame Sage was seated upon a sofa, and immediately drawing the pistol enac ed the terrible deed. What could possibly have induced him to act in this singular manner, is still a mystery. Though, as we before remarked, there are a thousand conjectures as to the causes. Madame Sage is very severely, but, it is thought not morially wounded. The Coroner held an inquest on the body of Bedlord, and a verdict of suicide was returned. He was a man of very fine personal appearance, and was about forty years of age .---N. O. Delta .
