FIII. for nast favors, announ I friends and the public in general, that he still do Cubebs keeps on hand a good assortment of READY MADE CLOTHING, which he will sell cheap for Cash. He believes that a 'Nimble sixpence is worth more than a slow shilling.' He also has commenced manufacturing Clothing—selecting the cloths him-self in the city, a d employs none but the best of workmen in making them up. He would assure his customers that his Clothing is manufactured under his own eye, and in his own shop, and not let out by the job to unexperienced or incompetent work men. Thus, persons wishing a suit or any portion thereof, can order the same with a perfect certainty of getting a good fit.

He has also on hand a general assortment of gentlemen's Shirts and Collars, which he will sell cheap for cash.

Custom work promptly done as usual. He invites his friends to call on him at his new quarters, over J. Kingsbery's store, and immediately opposite U. Mercur's Law Office, before buying elsewhere. Now if you are wanting, you surely can find, Coats, Pants and Vests just made to your mind, So nice and so snug they'd suit to a T., So perfectly fine, there's no room for a flea.

If your linen wants changing, and sometimes it will, You'llfind shirts and collars for a very small bill; Come then one and all, who are out clothes hunting, And you can be fitted by Gronen H. Bunrine! No B. He is sole Agent for ELIAS HOWE'S Jr.

Patent Sewing Machine. for the counties of Bradford and Susquehanna. Any person wishing to purchase the right for using the above Machine in said counties, can be accommo dated by calling of him, where they can see it operate. It is well demonstrated that this machine is the best patent now in use. Its validity has been established by trial at law in Boston, in July, 1852. This trial resulted in fully confirming and establishing the claims of Howe's Original Patent to the exclusive right and use of all needle and shuttle Machines, or their equivalents, and the stitch and seam formed thereby: G.
