RALAPAT NOT FALLEN!

New York March 28, 1854. The sleamer from Liverpool March 11, sher t long voyage of 17 days, arrived at this port at 8 o'clock this morning.

The statement of the fall of Kalafat published in an Extra of the London Morning Herald, and which out correspondent sent us with a war ing that it was most probably untrue, turns out to have been a most unfounded and borefaced falsehood. Great blame is thrown on the conductors of the Morning Herald for having given currency, at so important a juncture, to a statement that cannot but have had its origin in wilful and malignant lie, and which seems to have originated with the Herald itself. A notice was speedify posted on the Paris Bourse stating the utter falsity of the Herald's report but the tumor had already done much evil.

Some excitement has been occasioned in commercial circles by a notification made by the Earl of Clarendon to British merchants in Riga, informing them (under date of Feb. 16) that in the event of war, all Russian produce will be liable to capture and confi-cation, even if it be the bona fide property of British subjects domiciled in Russia, and even if shipped in neutral vessels.

The messenger conveying the summons of France and England to the Czar, requiring him to withdraw his troops from Turkey within a specified period, left Vienna on Tuesday, 7th, for St. Petersburg. Neither the Austrian nor the Prussian Government has joined the Western Powers in this act. Austria is still exclusively in ent on securing the tranquility of the Sclaves on both sides of the Danube. This is the leading idea of an official document published at Vienna on Tuesday, 7th, in which the demands made by France and England on Russia are characterized, are thoroughly just, and in accordance with the interests of Europe. It is then added that to the last-(that is, to the present date.) -Austria has done her duty to Europe, and now the sole daty of her Government isto main tain the interests of the Empire.

At the commencement of the week it was stated that the Czar had sent what purported to be proposals of peace to Vienna; the reception of which at first gave rise to hopes of an accommodation. The London Doily News on whose authority the statement rests, says that when the proposals came to be examined, it was found that they contained all the inadmissible demands of previous Russian projects. The representatives of France, England, Austria and Prussia, have decided that the new project does not come up to the requisitions of the last protocol to which they had set their names and that it cannot, therefore, be entertained.

The news is allogether unchanged from our previous advices. The Turks were still in great force in Kalafat, and the Russians in some strength around. A body of Russians was renorted to be marching towards the River Schyl, where they have atready a pontoon corps.

Austria consular letters from Tabreez, of dae beginning of January, make no mention either of the fall of Khiva, or of the alliance between Russia Cuba, Khiva, and Bokhara. If the above paragraph be correct, the reason is obvious.

THE NEW HAVEN Rior -Somewhat of a serious affair occurred here last night, (March 17) between some students of Yaleand the friedmen of the town The lishmen, from some unknown cause, have always exhibited ill will lowards the students, and have attacked them whenever they have had an opportunity. Last night (Friday) about twenty of the students of Yale were returning peaceably from a place of amusement and were near the College grounds, were attacked by about one hundred Irish men, with brickbats, stones, and other missiles; several were immediately felled to the ground. Here a regular battle ensued, and was carried on for some time, in which several students and others were seriously unated. One Irishman by the name of Patrick O'Neil, was killed, being stabbed near the heart by some su dent unknown. A stranger boarding at the New Haven Hotel, hearing the noise, started out to see what was the matter, and while looking on, a pistot ball grazed his sleeve. The students secreted in the College. The assailants then left. It was supposed that there would be no Jurther trouble. About ne o'clock at night, they received word that a large body of Irishmen were advancing with cannot By this time all the students were aroused. They immediately closed the windows, and barricaded the doors with planks. In a short time, about five hundred persons advanced with two cannons, loaded with grape shot. They threatened to fire on the College, if the student by whose hands O'Neil received his deathblow was not forthcoming. This threat they were prevented from executing by the arrival of the police, who spiked the cannons. There is no doubt if they had been permitted to execute their purpose, serious results would have ensued, as a large portion of the students were arm-ed with pistols. There was great commotion in the ed with pistols streats all night; the bells were all ringing, and entainly the most exciting time in the streets of New Haven for some time. It is not known by whom O'Neil was killed; it is not probable it will be. Wheever it was he cannot be blamed, as it was done only in sell detence. CAPTURE OF KALAFAT .- The most awakening inelligence by the Pacific, is in the shape of a rumor, to the effect that the Russians had attacked Kalafat lemolished the fortifications, and massacred the inhabitants without mercy The following account, from the London Times of Kalafat is enteresting: This place, of which so much has been said lately, is a town of 2000 houses. It is surrounded with walls, has a quarantine, a town hall, a custom-house, three churches, and a cavalry barracks. It is the chief place of a sub-administrator's district. The redoubts raised by the Turks are of great entent and very strong. They are partially raised on two high hills on the plain of Kalafat, about a mile distant from each other, and have a numerous artiflery All the neighboring country is commanded by these hills in such a way that no approach to the Danube can be made. In 1828 there hills were occupied and fortified by the Russians. Between Widdin and Kalalat the Daunbe is little less than a mile wide, and the course of it is very rapid. The Is land in which the Torks are torrified is situated near the left bank; it is partly covered with wood and is defended by strong entrenchments in earth bearing large artiflery. Above Wicklin the Turks have constructed a new citadel, according to all the

HEAVY SWINDLING OPERATION .- One of the nost expert cases of swindling ever coming to our mowledge, occurred in the city of Albany on Saturday evening. The circumstances are as follows:
Two genteel looking men went into the jewelry store of Messrs. Williams & Co., on State street and after looking at some valuable watches, diamond rings, bracelets, &c., told one of the proprie-tors that if ey purposed making presents of two of the watches and a diamond ring to some ladies visiting at Governor Seymour's, and asked him if he would not send some one with them up there, ar d take the watenes and ring along. This was readily assented to, and the son of one of the proprietor

This he did, and on returning the men had left. None knew eia, although she remained neutral, was fortifying them at Mr. Pruyn's and the waiter says they left a note for Mr. P as soon as they found he was not at home.-N Y. Tribune

> SERIOUS AFFRAY-TWO INSHMEN SHOT -An affray, which may yet prove fatal in its consequences, occurred on the opposite side of the river rom this place, on Saturday afternoon last, between some ratimen, who in stress of wind and weather had put up at the tavern of Billy Morrie, and a parcel of drunken frishmen, who had not quite recovered from the celebration of St. Patrick's day, on Friday. The Irishmen being largely in the majority, drove the raftmen from their beds on Friday night to seek lodging on this side of the river, and took an early opportunity to renew the fracas on Saturday when the ratimen returned. They succeeded in cornering a young man from Bald Eagle, Clinton county, named David W Council, whom they beset with a club and other hostife apparatus Finding his life in danger, he drew his revolver and shot one of his assailants in the shoulder, and one through the hand, the ball glancing and also slightly injuring his head. After this dasperate re sistance, he was allowed to escape without moles tation. On a statement of the the aggravated cir comstances of the case, by Council and his party. before Justice Calvert, they were allowed to depai with their raits we hout the institution of any lega proceeding against them We learn that the Irish man who was shot in the shoulder is in a danger ous condition.-Lycoming Gazette.

LONDON DOCK BRANDY .- A New York correspondent of the Mobile Tribune tells the following story: A friend of mine was offered a share the other day in the profits of a brilliant speculation. Being so absurd as to have a troublesome tenant of his breast, called conscience, he declined the enterprise, thereby losing a handsome per cent. It was in this wise: My friend is largely in an exporting business A gentleman informed him that he would like to ship on shares. "What do they contain?" "Brandy." "What's the object of the shipment?" Well, you see it's brandy I have manufactured and which cost fifty cen's per gallon, We ship it to London, have it entered at the docks get the brand, have it shipped, and sell it with the brand, on it for $8 per gallon. Won't that pay?"

THE LAW MUSKETS -A Washington correspond ent of the Herald learns that George Sanders, late Consel in Lundon has effected the sale of 200,000 of the famous United States muskets connected with the operations of George Law. The sale was made to certain revolutionary capitalists in London, in prepartion for the explosion of Democracy on the Continent as soon as France and England shall have been actively engaged with Russia. Over one million of dollars have been paid for them, and George Sanders' commission will be $100,000, and George Laws roofits probably $500,000.

The Easton Argus says: Esquire Buck held a Coroner's Inquest on Thursday last, on the body of an unknown man, whose corpse was found floating in the Delaware near the Collector's office. The body had evidently been in the water same. time and bore marks of violence. It is said that five or six holes were cut on his head, and that he had been otherwise bruised. We learn by a letter from the village of New Market, a village on the Delaware river, near the Monroe County line, that three men attacked a man about three or four weeks ago, in that neighborhood and beat him cruelly, and that the man has not been seen since .and bob-tail coats have received the appelation of It is suspected that they killed him and threw his body into the river.

Mr. Cutting, it will remembered, last week made a speech in favor of discussing the Nebraska bill in Committee of the Whole, declaring himself strongly in favor of it, but desirous of amending it, in some particulars. Mr. Breckinridge took occasion to denounce Mr. Cutting's course in terms of great severity, representing him as dealing very treacherously towards the bill, and stabbing it to death Fry, Goodwin, Haldeman, B. D. Hamlin, Hiester, under pretences of friendship. Mr. Cutting, on Monday, made a reply to these charges, in which he resented them with a good deal of warmth, being frequently interrupted by Mr. Breckenridge, who kept his temper tolerally well, until Mr. Cutting alleged that he had " skulked" behind the Senste bill, in order to escape the responsibility of the course he had taken. This was too much for Mr. Breckenridge's equanimity, and after earnestly, but successfully, appealing to Mr. Cutting to "withdraw" his remarks, he pronounced them " false," which of course created a "sensation," prompted Mr. Cutting to say that he should reply elsewhere, and created a very general expectation of a duel.

Washington was thrown into great excitement Wednesday morning last, by a report that a duel had been fought between Messre. Cutting and Breckenridge. The excitement was much increased by all sorts of exaggerated romors, the most as shot in the neck. From the most reliable sources we gather information, indicating that a meeting took place early Wednesday morning, at Bladensnied, but an intimate triend of Breckenridge emphatically denies that he (Mr. B.) was wounded, or that any damage was done to either party. All articles of our product at rates that will greatly incircumstances corroborate the rumor that fighting has taken place. Mr. Cutting left the city Tues day afternoon in the 35 o'clock train, and Mr. Breckenridge followed in the 5 o'clock train. This came, and which was standing at the door, and drove up to the J. V. L. Pruyn's residence instead of place near Bladensburg, at which place Cutting Gov. Seymour's:

The two men got out, rung the left the train, but Breckenridge being in the Explanding the efforts which the Executive has made to left the train, but Breckenridge being in the Explanding the place of the Union do not warmly applied the efforts which the Executive has made to left the train, but Breckenridge being in the Explanding the place Cutting blized to return, which he did in time meeting at the place designated. The affair has been so delicately arranged that othing can be known beyond the personal friends of the parties; but there can be no doubt that neither are hurt, and that the difficulty will be ammicably arranged. The challenge was written by Cutting on Monday, a short time after the adjournment of the House, and made known to Breckenridge about 11 o'clock at night. Tuesday the friends of the parties were busy in making arrangements for the meeting of Wednesday; but the public were under the impression that efforts were making to settle the matter, and no apprehensions were left that an encounter would take place so soon.

The Marshal of the District and attorney General are on the alert, and the parties wilt be prevented from meeting again, even it their friends fail to satisfactorily arrange the matter.

DEATH OF MAJOR HOBBIE.-Major Hobbie, Assistant Postmaster-General, died in Washington, on Thursday morning, March 23. Major Hobbie, after serving as member of Congress, became connected with the Post office Department under Jackson's administration. His highly responsible position in the department was kept till after administration of Taylor, when he resigned. Upon his recent visit to having been busy, night and day, clearing away ship Company, in order to regulate and improve our postal system in that quarter, he contracted a dividuals, who did not count the consequences ere a disorder by which his constitution appears to have they kindled the destructive element. been fatally shattered.

The Martha Washington case seems likely o end in Arkansas as it did in Ohio. The prelimnary hearing before the Court at Galena have resulted in the prisoners being remanded for trial;but the Judge, in the course of his decision, incidentally remarked that, in the main trial, it would have to be proved by the prosecution that the parties charged was actually, and not by implication, within the jurisdiction of the courts of Phillips coun ty, Arkansas, at the time the alleged crime was committed. This will cause the release of all the arrested except Cummings and Holland, who were on board the boat at the time of her burning. THE PROHIBITORY LAW .- The bill for the suppression of Intemperance has finally passed both Houses of the Legislature of New-York, to take elfect on the first day of December next. It is thought by some that the Governor will veto it.

OF FERR, of the Lancaster Independent Whig, still insists that the Whig party is disbanded and bankrupt, and that Judge Pollock should decline the nomination for Governor, and some other good man, Judge Wilmor, for instance, should be taken up and run as an independent candidate.

THE MOUNTIANS STILL ON FIRE.—The fire which has been raging in the Blue Mountains, in Pennsylvanis, is still spreading, and has extended along the base, on either side of the Susquehanna river. The Harrisburg Herald says :

> BREADSTUFFS ON LAKE MICHIGAN -A letter in the is about 254,000 bushels, 20,000 barrels of flours and adds :

"There are now upon the lake shore, all told about 800,000 bushels of wheat in store and about 80,000 barrels of flour. The high prices paid the past winter for wheat have brought nearly or quite all out of the producer's hands. Very little more will come out before next harvest, so that, reducing the wheat to flour, Lake Michigan will have about 250,000 barrels of flour, or calling it wheat, about 1,200,000 bushels of wheat to ship before nex harvest, or say 1st of September."

It is also stated that six or seven millions of bushels of corn will probably be shipped from Chicago this year, if present prices continue. There are also over 300 000 bushels of oats in store there and about 600,000 bushels on the lake coast. In the excess of corn.

SINGULAR CUSTOM.—Since the announcement of the death of the Emperor of Japan, it is suggested that the American Squadron there, is in an awk ward fix. A law of that empire commands that no official intercourse shall be held with any foreign country, for the space of two years after the death of an Emperor. No foreign ambassador is allowed a reception within that time.

A Mother's Revence.- A serious affair occur ed at New Orleans on the 15th inst. A daughter of a woman named Bridget Murphy having been seduced, the mother purchased a knife, and compelled the daughter to accompany her to a billiard aloon where the alleged seducer, John Hitzelberger, was employed. On his being pointed out to her, he demanded reparation for her daughter's wrongs This was refused, when she drew the knife from beneath her shawl, and plunged it twice into the young man's side, who fled into the saloon, folowed by the avenger, who stabbed him twice in the back before he succeeded in effecting his escape into St Charles street, where he fell to the earth from exhaustion and loss of blood, and was picked np and conneyed to the Charity Hospital. mother was immediately arrested, and after being committed, expressed her firm determination to kill the seducer, should he survive his wounds, of stone in the centre of the road, the course of the lot which there is much doubt.

All concussions and consequent heat are avoided, and hence those causes by which so many horses are lamed and ruined, are by this invention entirely obvioled. A gentleman who has had them upon a valuable animal for four months, writes to the inventor that "before applying them, his horse had always shrunk, whe .. ever he struck upon the pavement or hard road, but now he strikes boldly and freely, and moves with far greater case and free
