SINCULAR AND FATAL ACCIDENT - We noticed on ployed by the Central Railroad Company to attend the bridge over the trandequoit creek, a few miles east of this city. The manner in which the acci dent happened was curious, and it may be many years before we hear of a death in a similar manner. We get the particulars of the affair from Co roner Quin, who held an inquest in view of the bo dy of the deceased. The express train which left this city for Syracuse on Tuesday morning was somewhat behind time, and running at a high speed-nearly a mile a minute-when the accident happened. As the train crossed the bridge alluded to a stick of beech wood weighing twelve pounds that we have had some warm weather-especially and three quarters fell from the tender, striking the side of the bridge. It then flew along the course of the train twenty-six feet, where Mr. Rivenberger was standing, striking him upon the head crushed the skull upon the brain, producing almost
