THE above celebrated statues, together with 15 STATUETTES IN BRONZE, and several hun-Ired magnificent OIL PAINTINGS, form the prize to be distributed among the members of the Cosmo politan Art Association at the first annual distribuion in January next.

The Cosmopolitan Art and Literary Association, Organized for the Encouragement and General Diffusion of Literature and the Fine Arts, on a new and original plan. The Committee of Management have the pleas re of announcing that the first annual distribution will take place on the 30th day of January next, on which occasion there will be distributed or allofted to members several hundred works of Art, among which is the original and world-renowned Statue of the GREEK SLAVE, by Hiram Powers, costing over five thousand dollars ! together with the beau-tiful statues of Venus, Bacchante, Hebe, Fiora, and the Dancing Girl ; and fifteen statuettes in Bronze imported from Paris; also, a large collection of O. Paintings, comprising some of the best productions of celebrated American and Foreign Artists.

PLAN FOR THE CURRENT TEAR.

The payment of three dollars constitutes any one member of this Association, and entitles him to the Knickerbecker Magazine for one year, and also a ticket in the distribution of the Statuary and the Paintings which are to be allotted to members in January.

Persons taking five memberships are entitled to five of the Magazines one year and to six tickets in the distribution. Persons, on becoming members, can have their Magazine commence with any month they choose, and rely on its being mailed to them promptly on the first of every month. direct from New York. The net proceeds derived from the sale of mem berships are devoted to the purchase of works of art for the ensuing year.

Books open to receive names at the Eastern office, or Western office, Sandusky.

The Gallery of Art is located at Sandusky, (the Western office of the Association) where superb granite buildings have been erected for it, and in whose splendid saloons the splendid collection of Statuary and Painting is exhibited.

The Advantages Secured becoming a member of this Association are-1st. All persons receive the full value of their obscription at the start, in the shape of sterling Magazine literature. 2d. Each member is contributing towards pur-chasing choice Works of Art, which are to be distributed among themselves, and are at the same time encouraging the Artists of the country, disbursing thousands of dollars through its agency. Persons remitting funds for membership, should mark letters ' registered,' and state the month with which they wish their magazines to commence, and also tasir post office address in full, on the receipt of which, a certificate of membership, together the magazine desired, will be forwarded to any part of the country.
