NY MONEY MARKET .- The financial article of the Post says :- The abundance of money continues very sensiby to increase. Wednesday afternoon, offerings of money on loans, some even at four per cent., were made very freely, and with very little success. All the brokers seemed to have money over, and the demand for it on the decline.

Money rates are easy at 5 to 6 per cent. for call loans ; and at 6 to 7 for discounts. The banks do not find the applications for discounts nearly equal to their ability to lend.

The prices of wheat and flour continue to The price of and are not-likely materially to decline when the canals open in May. This is the time for seed-sowing, and we learn that in view of the absence of adequate stocks re-maining from last harvest, a very enlarged to the of lend in all parts of the West is the total lend in all parts of the West is the set for a false statement, as his wife was at home at to squander my property ; I therefore forbid all persons har-bets of lend in all parts of the West is the set for a false statement as his wife was at home at to squander my property ; I therefore forbid all persons har-bets of lend in all parts of the West is must be the set of lend in all parts of the West is advance, and are not likely materially tobreadth of land in all parts of the West is being put under cultivation for corn and wheat.
