BY A VIRGINIA COURT.—The Richmond Enquirer of the 15th inst gives the following account of a very interesting case which has been decided in the Botetourt Circuit Court : Eliza Crawford and five children, colored, sning for their freedom. The case was decided in favor of the plaintiff's; the evidence New Boot and Shoe Manufactory, being full and complete that the chief plaintiff, Eliza, was born of a white woman of Georgia. She is now about thirty-five years of age, and has been in slavery between fifteen and twenty years. Her appearance indicates that her father was a mixture of African and Indian. She is now the mother of six children, all of whom were plaintiffs, excepting the eldest, who, never belonged to defendant, and who, it is HORRIBLE MURDER IN NEW-YORK .- On Monday morning last, about 2 o'clock, a woman named Margaret M'Daniel, who resided at No. 4, Baxter-st, was murdered by her husband, Edward M'Daniel, who cut her throat with a Cheap Boot, Shoe and Leather Store. razor in such a manner that she died in a few hours afterward. It is thought that M'Daniel J. was temporarily insance at the time of committing the awful deed. He and his wife, as now appears, went to bed late, after offering up a prayer to their Creator, and remained quiet until the time named, when he, as is alleged, got up, and seizing his wife by the throat with one hand, inflicted the violence with the other. She screamed, and rolling on the floor at the same time, bled profusely, and died in a few minutes afterward. The alarm was raisa few minutes afterward. The alarm was raised, and officer O'Connor of the Sixth Ward FRESH BAKED CRACKERS, received fox's. ran into the house and arrested M'Daniel, whom he locked up in the Police Station. The accused is shoemaker, and is said to be comfortably well off in the world .- N. Y. Tribune.

THE TEACHER'S ASSOCIATION, pursuant to adjournment, will meet in the Methodist Church, at Orwell Hill, on the 8th day of JUNE next, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The following Resolutions, as unfinished business, will be considered:—
Resolved, That there ought to be in each township, a School Officer, whose duty it shall be to inspect Teachers and visit the Schools in his respective township, either in connection with the County Superintendent, or alone.

Resolved, That the study of Written Arithmetic should not be commenced by the child until he is of sufficient age to fully appreciate and perfectly understand the principles of the science, and it should always be preceded by a thorough drilling in Intellectual Arithmetic.

Resolved, That every Teacher should be a subscriber for, and a constant reader of, some Educational Periodical; and also it is his duty to attend, if practicable, educational meetings, and in all other ways seek his own improvement in the subjects to be taught, as well as the best and most approved methods of teaching.

provement in the subjects to be taught, as well as the best and most approved methods of teaching.

Resolved, That we respectfully and most earnestly solicit the hearty co-operation of all the School Directors of the County in carrying forward the great work of educating the rising generation.

Resolved, That Teachers should be sufficiently acquainted with Physiology, and the laws of health to be able to guard with care the health of those committed to their charge.

guard with care the health of those committed to their charge.

Resolved, That it is the imperative duty of every teacher to sustain good order in school, and adopt such means as shall secure that important end, even if it become necessary to resort to corporeal punishment.

Mr. Colt proposed the following amendment:

That order is essential to the success of a School. In maintaining this corporeal punishment, should be a last resort, but yet its infliction may be the imperative duty of the teacher.

A RARE CHANCE.—The undersigned offers for sale his undivided half part of three tracts of land, containing about 1400 acres; 1000 of which is heavily timbered with White Pine of a choice quality, having on it a newly erected double STEAM MILL, just started and cutting finely—capable of sawing 3,000,060 feet yearly, to which is attached a LATH MILL, and with power sufficient to run a single machine, and pair of Burrs for chopping feed, &c.

The land is situated in Overton township, in the centre of the Coal and Iron region of Bradford County, and on it have been found large deposits of iron ore of a superior quality. This property to Lumbering men offers greater inducements than any other in Noruhern Pennsylvania, inasmuch as the timber has never been culied out, and lying as it does within 12 miles of the Barclay Coal Company Railroad, now in process of construction, and connecting by said Railroad, with the River and Canal at this place.

AT There have been opened upon this property three beds of IRON ORE, of a very superior quality and richness, two of which are ten feet in thickness each, yielding about 35 to 40 per cent. pure metal, and one smaller yielding a much greater par cent. all extending through 1000 agone 5) to 40 per cent. pare metal, and one smaller yields ing a much greater per cent.; all extending through 900 acres of the property. This ore is easy of access, and can be procured at a very small expense.

Persons desirous of viewing the premises will call on the subscriber at this place.
