Remedy for the Weevil.

We noticed in the last week's Reporter, that it was stated, as the experience of farmers who had tried it, that lime would prevent the ravages of the weevil. We see in almost every paper testimony as to this fact, an I we sugget to our farmersthat the experiment is worth trying. It will cost but little time or expense to give it a thorough trial, and if successful, it may save many dollars to those who otherwise would have found their wheat crop nearly or entirely ruined by the weevil.

The paragraphs below are from the Akron (Ohio) Beacon, which seem to indicate that the remedy is a certain one :---

We are informed by Mr. Chamberlie, of the City Mill, that the farmers of Vermont are in the habit of heading the movements of weevil by a very simple process. The next season after it makes its appearance they go through their wheat fields, about the time when the wheat is heading, immediately after a shower, or while the dew is on it, and scatter newly slackened lime broad cast, so that it will adhere to the stems of the grain. They use about a bushel to the acre. Good lime should be secured, and slackened by sprinkling a little water over it, so as to retain all its strength. A paddle may be used in scattering it. The remedy has, it is said, been so effectually tried, as to leave no doubt of the result.

Strips in large wheat fields left untouched by the lime, for experiment, have been entirely destroyed by the weevil, while the grain on each side was all saved.

Since this intelligence was received, Mr. Jesse Allen, of the Centre Mill, has received corroborating information from a Muskingum county farmer, who had seen the same practice and the same result.

ABOUT BUCKWHEAT .- Few crops can be turned to better account on a poor, light, gravelly soil, than buckwheat. It possesses a chemical action on the soil, by which the coarser particles are disentegrated or rendered finer, and the soil is thereby improved. Pure, in-organic earth-that is, earth unmixed with animal or vegetable matter-is produced by the disintegration of pulverizing rocks. Silex, or sand, is the oxide or rust of silicium ; or, to make it more familiar, it is pulverized quartz. Clay is produced by the decomposition of feldspar. Now all the quartz and feldspar in the world, while existing in the form of rock, will not produce a blade of grass; it is only when decomposed or pulverized ; and the finer the particles the better the soil.

If a soil, then, is coarse, the object of the farmer should be to pulverize it, which can only He we be done by some chemical application, or the growing of some crop which has that chemical power. Buckwheat, by a process yet undiscovered, has that power, and the longer it is cultivated, on a given piece of ground, the finer will be the particles of the soil. It injures land for corn, but leaves it in finer order for potatoes, and is the best crop to kill out bushes, wild grass and mellow greensward. To fit the land for the next succeeding crop, in rotation, plough in a crop of buckwheat in blossom.

As food for man, except in small quantities, we could not recommend it, as cakes made from it, though light when hot, and heavy as cold liver when cold. A constant use of it has a tendency, also, to produce cutaneous disease but, boiled with potatoes, apples or pumpkins, it is first rate for hogs. When ground, it is excellent for milch cows. Fed raw, or left standing in the field, it is great for Shanghais, (they being allowed to harvest for themselves. The blossoms afford material for the very h

A ND CHERRY PECTORAL.—The fol-lowing remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. Avers is Carnarric Pittle have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other pre-parents complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstruc-tions of the internal organs and stimulating them info healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and size man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and his scheme them with impunity. If they are sick they it is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender chil-den may take them with impunity. If they are sick they internal they are well they will do them no man.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with billions complaint ; see his bent-up, tottering form straight-en with strength again ; see his long-look appetite return ; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrotula till his skin is covered with sores ; who stands, or sits, or ies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with exery every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these Pills, and mark the effect ; see the scabs fall from his body ; see the new, fair skin that has grown un-der them ; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones ; move him, and he screeches with pain ; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with linaments and salves ; give him these Pills to purify he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with linaments and salves; give him these Pills to purify lifs blood; they may not cure him, for olas! there cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walkes alone; they have chired him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspep-tic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blacked and too, early withering away; want of evereise smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health ; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away ; want of exercise, or mental anguish, or some lurking disease has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation, or secretion, till they do they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these Pills to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstruc-tions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her check, and where sorrow sat, joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are cat-ing its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and rest-less sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the Pills in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day. Have yon the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Head-ache, Sideache, Heartbourn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulen y, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred comploints all arise from the derangements which these Pills rubidy cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can ; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they mast burrow in the brutes and in the sea. TRAPPING GRUBS AND CUT WORMS .- " Last spring," says C. Q., in the Michigan Farmer, "I tried an experiment with the "varmints," which I relate for the benefit of whom it may concern." He planted his corn on a clover sod ploughed in the spring. While planting he found plenty of the small grubs. The corn was planted about the 20th of May, and as soon as it came up they commenced their mischief. Knowing no reliable or certain way of saving the corn, he concluded to trap them.

For this purpose he took a round stick, three or four feet long and about two inches in NEW ARRANGEMENT AT THE EAGLE FOUNDRY! diameter, and making one end sharp, and taking two rows at a time he made from two to four holes, four or five inches deep, in or close by every hill. After fixing several rows in this way he waited to see the result. On examinatwo rows at a time he made from two to four tion he found that almost every hole had one or more worms in it. In one hole he counted as many as six. He then went over the whole field in the same way, and the result was that hardly a hill of corn was destroyed after the holes were made, while his neighbor's corn just over the fence, which was on ground ploughed very early, was more than half cut off with the worms

" It might be supposed," says C. Q., " that when the fellows fell into the traps they would bore into the side and escape ; but on watching them I found they would try to climb up the side, but the side being smooth they always fell back again, when twenty-four hours of sunshine and starvation will finish them. They usually commit their depredations in the night and while crawling round to find the corn they tumble in." An ad tional recommendation of this method is, that he birds will not pull up the corn, when they find plenty of grub already provided for them.

C. Q. states further, that a portion of this field of corn looked green, and flourished luxuriantly, while another portion looked pale and yellow. To this former he had applied (a table-spoonful to each hill) a mixture of two parts lime with three parts of ashes. The latter had no such application.

FOR THE POOR HORSE .- A strong solution of alum with some whiskey mixed in it, is said to be a most excellent remedy for the galled shoulders of horses. Apply it three times a day until the wound is healed.

DAVIS' PLATFORM BEE-HIVE.

DAVIS' PLATFORM BEE-HIVE. The subscriber having been appointed Agent for the counties of Bradford. Sullivan and Lycoming, has the pleasure of calling the attention of the public to this useful invention. The Hive is truly a great improvement on the old square box; and the facilities it affords for taking out the honey are as harmless to the bees, as they are profitable to hive the increase in the spring, and no resort to brimstone, fire and fagot is required to conquer the bees and procure their honey in the fall. As the bees multiply, new sections are added to the hive; and when the honey is wanted, they are removed accordingly. The arrangements for feeding the bees, for changing them to different ients for feeding the bees, for changing them to different parts of the old hive, or to a new one, for ventilation, an equestionably ahead of anything hitherto known

A description of this Hive is impossible, without refer-ence to a model, but an examination will satisfy any one of its advantages. For sale, Town and Individual Rights, with books, bill of feed, &c., giving full directions for ma-king the Hive, and managing the Bees. May 1, 1855. GEORGE S. KEEN.

SCOTT'S PATENT BLACKSMITH'S STRIKER !

WIE undersigned, having purchased the right to sell in a number of the counties of this state, and el-ewhere Scott's Patent BLACKSMITH'S STRIKER Scott's Fatent BLACKSMITH'S STRIKER, respectfully announce that they are now stopping at BLACK'S Hotel, in Towanda, where they will exhibit the Patent Striker, and explain its operation. They expect to remain about three weeks. By the aid of this invention, every Black-smith can dispense with the additional hand required to forge iron, and will consequently effect a great saving of labor to all who become possessed of it. This is consider-ed one of the greatest and most useful inventions of the acce and the manner in which it forces iron of every decage, and the manner in which it forges iron of every des-cription has greatly surprised the numerous sons of Vulcan who have seen it operation.
