What Col. Piollet will Do!

The Colonel is making the most magnificent promises as to what he will accomplish if the people will only send him to the Legislature. In return for all these promises he only asks their votes. Amongst other things.

He will pay off the State Debt, by a tax on on Coal; and also provide sufficient revenue from the same source, so there will be no more State taxes!

He will abolish the pay of Members of the Legislature, and provide that their salary shall depend upon the amount of bribes they receive! He will pass a law that every man shall have at least one barrel of whiskey!

He will provide for a County seat on every man's farm ! He will pay every man within ten miles of the North Branch Canal, heavy damages! He will pass laws against the rust and weevil in wheat, and for the protection of farmers

He will introduce a new era in legislation, having received some new light on the subject! He will do many other things, "too tedious to mention, when he gets to the Legislature !

Why didn't he do all he promises, when he was in the Legislature? The people have yet to learn that he then evinced any great anxiety to lessen their burdens, or disposition to advance their interests. On the contrary, whenever he has been in office his conduct has been selfish and corrupt, and his only anxiety to advance his personal and political ends.

Look Out for Frauds!

We caution our friends throughout the County to be on their guard against all manner of Frauds and Falsehoods. You have already learned what profligate means our enemies are resorting to, to elect PIOLLET. You may reasonably expect, when too late to be refuted, to Republican candidates.

Be on your guard, on the day of election for lying hand-bills and circulars. The unscrupuous men who are working to advance their personal ends, will resort to the most desperate and disgraceful means. We say, again, be on the look-out for roorbacks started upon the eve of the election.

Look out for Misrepresentation!

We understand that a paper has been circuing amongst the Whigs, and received many matures, which is to be put to a use the signs do not approve. This paper was presented their signature, as a mere declaration that ev were Whigs still, and had not deserted ov of the principles of the Whig party. It low to be used to show that they do not apwe of the Republican movement, and will in the election of the hunker pro-slavery ket! The object of this, is to influence the on of Whigs throughout the County.

Having received some intimation of the unifiable use to which this paper was being the following paper, signed by a portion he Whigs of Wysox, has been furnished us publication. We are requested to say that y more signatures would have been obtainhad there been time.

FALL OF SEBASTOPOLE!

Since our last issue, arrivals from Europe bring the important intelligence of the fall of Sebastopol. We give below a summary of the

The bombardment was re-opened on the fifth and continued without interruption until the eight when the assault commenced. The French attacked the Malakoff and Careening Bay, and the English the Redan. Six repulses were sustained by the French before the Malakoff, but on the seventh attempt they carried the work in splendid style and hoisted their eagles on the Malakoff. The slaughter was terrific, and is estimated at 2,000 English, 15,000 French, and as many Russians, making the aggregate upward of thirty thousand men.

Five French Generals are reported to have been killed, including General Bosquet.

During the night succeeding the assault the Russians evacuated the entire south side, first blowing up the defences, sinking all the ships, firing the town, and leaving nothing but smouldering ruins.

A large Allied force was marching along the coast to interrupt the retreat of the Russians inland.

The allies found immense materials of war in Sebastopol. It is reported that instructions have been sent to the allied Generals in the event of Gorchakoff seeking to capitulate, to demand that Russia shall surrender at discretion all the troops, stores and fortified places including

The English, who attempted the redan, were not successful during the night. The Russians, hear all manner of falsehoods uttered about the in the exacerbation of despair, began to sink their ships, blow up their magazines and burn their city, and on the following morning Sebastopol was evacuated and the communication between the north forts and the town broken

The following telegraphic despatch, received by Lord Banmure from Gen. Simpson, appeared in the English morning journals of the 11th inst:

"Sebastopol is in the possession of the allies. The enemy, during the night and morning, evacuated the south side, after exploding their magazines and setting fire to the whole of the town.

" All the men-of-war were burnt during the night, with the exception of three steamers which were playing about the harbor. The bridge communicating with the north side is broken."

General Simpson reports that the casualities in the attempt on the Redan were somehat heavy, but there was no general officer killed. In a supplement of the Moniteur the following telegraphic despatch, received by the French government from Gen. Pelissier, ap-

Karabelenaia and the south part of Sebas topol no longer exist.

The enemy, perceiving our solid occupation of the Malakoff, decided upon evacuating the place after having destroyed and blown up by nines nearly all the defences.

Having passed the night in the midst of my troops, I can assure you that everything in the Karabelnaia is blown up, and from what I New Fall and Winter Goods. could see the same must be the case in front of our left line of attack. This immense success does the greatest honor to our troops.-Everything is quiet on the Tchernaya.

The assault on the Malakoff was made at noon of the 8th inst. Its redoubts and the Redan or Carcening bay were carried by storm by the French soldiers with admirable interpidity to the shouts Vive P Emperuer. The Redan or Careening bay was not tenable, owing to the heavy fire of artillery which was poured upon the first occupiers of the work.

On beholding the French eagle floating on the Malakoff, Gen. de Salles made two attacks on the Central Bastion, but did not succeed .-The French troops returned to their trenches The losses were serious.

The plan of the battle appears to have been as follows: The, place was attacked in four Bry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Creckery, Boots and Shoes, Nails, Glass, &c. storming of the Redan, the French attacked the Malakoff. The extreme right of the French made a diversion on the Little Redan, and a united attack of the English, French and Sardinians was made on the central battery.

All the attacks were made simultaneously with great spirit and energy, but the one which was eminently successful was led by General les at issue, battling for Northern rights | Bosquet, and Gen McMahon, on the Malakoff. Both the Redan and the Central Bastion were at times in the hands of the storming parties. but so accurately did the guns of the Russians cover these, that as soon as the English had gained possession of them, it was impossible to

The English loss in the assault on the Redan is estimated 2,000 killed and wounded. The following despatch is from Prince Gortschakoff, dated the night of the 9th:

The garrison of Sebastopol, after sustaining an infernal fire, repulsed six assaults but could not drive the enemy from the Malakoff Tower Our brave troops, who resisted to the last extremity, are now crossing over to the northern part of Sebastopol.

The enemy found nothing in the southern part but blood-stained ruins. On the 9th of September the passage to the northern side was accomplished with the loss of 100 men .--We left, I regret to say, 500 men previously wounded, on the southern side. The intelligence of the fall of Sebastopol was received in London with demonstrations of great joy. At the various theatres and places of public amusement the fact was officially announced, and the bands at each place imme diately played the national anthems of England and France. On the night of the 8th ult., whilst the Em peror of the French was at the door of the Theatre Italian, at the moment that the carriage containing the ladies of honor of the Empress stopped at the entrance of the theatre, an that he can succeed, and he is playing individual who was standing on the pavement discharged without aim two pocket pistols at the carriage. No one was hurt.

The man, who had more the appearance of a maniac than an assassin, was immediately armember of the Legislature. They rested. He gave his name as Bellewarre, is about 22 years of age, and was born at Rouen. When 16 years of age, and was sentenced to two We believe the result of his first win- years imprisonment for swindling.

wife of Chester Thomas, late Sheriff of Bradford county, aged about 44 years.

[Mrs. Sophia Thankful Thomas (formerly Stevens) was born October 21, 1811, in Troy, Bradford county, Pa., and was married to Mr. Chester Thomas, of the same township, February 7, 1833. She was the mother of nine children, seven of whom are now living, and were present at her funeral. While she lived, she was an ambitious, industrious, persevering woman. As a Companion, she was kind, amiable and benevolent. As a Mother, attentive and indulgent, (almost to a fault.) She was a professor of religion, and a member of the Disciple or Christian church for the last 14 years. The subject of this notice was a lady who commanded the esteem and respect of all those who enjoyed the pleasure of her acquaintance, and was an ornament to every circle in which she moved. She was remarkable for her kindness to the poor and suffering.

At the early age of 17, she was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism, which prostrated her for several months—recovering from which, she enjoyed comparative good health for 12 years, when she was again attacked with the same disease; which, notwithstanding the aid of eminent physicians, continued for the last 10 years almost uninterruptedly, producing disease of the heart, and finally terminated in the worst form of dropsy, which terminated her existence at the above date. To the large circle of bereaved friends, and especially the heart-stricken husband and family, we offer our most sincere christian condolence.

Indeed, he can safely say that with the opening of his new store has been inunumerated a new era in the Jewelry line, inasmuch as along with the choice and elegant assortment he gives the most reliable assurance of an almost incredible refuection in prices; the rich and tasteful articles having been all bought with ready cash.

A. M.
