JOHN M'INTOSH,
Would inform the inhabitants of Bradford county that he respectfully solicits 600 subscribers for his local work entitled "FISH AND PHILOSOPHY, or Sketches that he respectfully solicits 600 subscribers for his local work entitled "FISH AND PHILOSOPHY, or Sketches made During a Short Sojourn in Northern Pennsylvania."

The book will consist of from 250 to 300 pages, 12mo., and will be bound in embossed muslin. The price will be $1.00. As the work was not written to vindicate any particular theory, or to advance any particular interest, it is difficult to say what it aims at—further than to help while away a leisure hour or two, in what the Author hopes, not unprofitable reading.

The pages are chiefly devoted to descriptions of local scenery; incidents while Trouting on the Schrader branch; literary criticisms and reminiscences; conversations, developments of local character, poetry and philosophical reflections.

As the publication of the book is not a question of bread, the anthor can use the liberty of speaking plain.—In the first place, then, he cannot afford to publish the book unaided—nor would he if he could; for the simple reason, he is unwilling to shoulder the responsibility of committing a—possibly—poor book to the world. He therefore seeks to make a corporate concern of it, and thus share with the subscribers the odium of failure, should it fail. It is a purely gratuitous matter, gentlemen, sign, or not sign. In the second place, the author is unwilling to have his stock of books added to, by too many hundred copies of a work that failed to redeem the price of its publication; neither does he desire the horror of witnessing the awful spectacle of an auto-da-fe, of what cost him so much pains and time to create;—for he certainly would commit to the flames what remained unsold of the edition, should they remain too long on his, hands. He is determined to pay the publisher on the receipt of the edition, should they remain too long on his, hands. He is determined to pay the publisher on the receipt of the edition, should the printed, asking no favors; and if 600 subscribers can be had, he will do so. He can afford, however, to wait, should the four publish gladly wear a wig for a whole year, to have the pleasure of furnishing to his friends so interesting a souvenir.

The publication of the book, then, is dependent on the receipt of 600 subscribers, and one month will be allowed for names to be given in. If, at the expiration of that time only one person has subscribed, or any other number between that and 600—unless very closely approximating it—the book will not of course be expected to see the light. But, if the entire number be obtained, those who have signed, will, in three months from the closing of the subscription lists, be supplied with a copy, or copies, as they may have ordered.

Subscription lists will be opened on Monday next, at all the stores, and at the P. O. in the borough; and at C. H. Hennerk's, at Athens. At Burlington, there will be one at Messrs, Losa & Merrey's store, and at Ulster Mr. John Mather, and at Monroe, Mr. Seymour Phinner, will act as agents. Others may be authorized.
