Buchanan Defining his Position.

Mr. Buchanan addressed the Keystone Club. his residence, at Wheatland, Pa., on the 9th

Gentlemen of the Keystone Club-I give you a st hearty and warm welcome to my abode. ongratulate you not upon my nomination, but pen the glorious privilege of being citizens of or great Republic. Your superiority over the cople of other countries has been fully demonted by the conduct of a vast concourse asembled during the past week at Cincinnati.pon any similar occasion in Europe the volunarr expression of the people would have been drowned in martial music and their actions olled by an army with banners.

How unlike the spectacle at Cincinnati, where elegates from the people of the different States met in convention under the protection of the Constitution and laws, and harmoniously deliberated upon subjects of vital importance to the country. Gentlemen, two weeks since I should have made you a longer speech, but now I have been placed upon a platform of which I most leartily approve, and that can speak for me. ing the representative of the great Democratparty, and not simply James Buchanan, I broad and national for the WHOLE DE-CRATIC PARTY. This glorious party, now more than ever, has demonstrated that it is the e conservative party of the Coustitution and FREEDOM IN VIRGINIA.—The citizens of Fauquier County, Va., have held a public meeting for the express purpose of uttering denunciations gainst Mr. J. C. Underwood, who appeared in Republican Convention as a delegate from irginia. The resolutions which were adopted on e occasion are not remarkable for moderation. y declare it a libel to impute to Virginians any weakness like that of a love of Free-Soil trine, and are loud-voiced in praise of the aion. But the demonstration did not end here. A Committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Inderwood, to inform him of the sentiments of he meeting, and to hint that "it was deemed just and advisable" for him to leave the State as on as possible. We do not learn that Mr. Underwood has yet obeyed this peremptory man-The order savurs of the tone that Border hans employ in Kansas, and the result may milar. Mr. Underwood may find it essential is safety to withdraw to some other locality which he can exercise the privlege of thinking speaking as he pleases. In any event, his new instance to show that persecution for nion's sake is not yet done away with .splantation of Ruffianism from Kansas to rginia appears to aggravate the severity of symptoms. - Times.

MURDER.-On Saturday last, 28th ult., as Win, P. Stephens, a well known citizen of the oper part of Luzerne county, was riding in a ge with Wm. G. Jones, on the road back Hyde Park, and about two and a half miles that village, he was shot dead. Jones eard a gun shot, and turning his head slightsaw Stephens leaning over, and without uting to look for the murderer he drove rapidowards home. A Coroner's Jury assembled a Saturday evening, and after a post mortem samulation of the body, adjourned. The Jury in session all Sunday, but nothing was eliled to fix the crime on any individual.

CAMP-MEETING.—The undersigned would inform the public generally, that arrangements are being made by a committee chosen for that purpose, to hold a Camp-Meeting near Frenchtown, in a most beautiful grove on land owned by Bartholomew-Laporte. Said meeting to open by a sermon, at 7 P. M., on Tuesday, the 2d of September next, and close on the following Tuesday morning. The public generally, and especially all friends of camp-meetings from far and near, are earnestly invited to furnish themselves with cloth tents and a supply of provisions, and come thus prepared to remain with us during the whole of the meeting. Competent aid, both clerical and lay, from abroad, will be expected.

CUPERINTENDENT'S NOTICE.-The School Directors can be supplied with copies of the School Law at the office of WM. C. BOGART, Esq., of Towards Recough: and also, with copies of the Report

School Law at the office of WM. C. BOGART, Esq., of Towanda Borough; and also, with copies of the Report of the Superintendent of Common Schools, with the Appendix—the latter embracing the Reports of the different County Superintendents.

Such school boards of the County as have not been supplied with the "School House Architecture," can procure a copy at the same place by leaving a receipt for the same. This is a valuable work, and only one copy can be supplied to each district. It is intended for the school board, and not for any one individual, and it is expected the book will be carefully preserved.

Mr. Bogart is the Secretary of the borough board, and he kindly offers to distribute the above documents for the County Superintendent, whose residence is five miles from the County Superintendent, whose residence is five miles from the County town.
