RESOLUTION

Proposing Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met. That the following amendments be proposed to the constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article eleven, as follows:—

ARTICLE XI. OF PUBLIC DEBTS. SECTION 1. The state may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for, but no assumption of such debts direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall ever exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. In addition to the mode now provided for the payment of such debts, there shall be a sinking fund, to be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debt so contracted, and no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 3. Except the debts hereinafter specified, no state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to defray the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 4. Except the debts hereinafter specified, no sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of the state.

SECTION 5. The mode for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time, and of any other part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state, together with any other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law.

The sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary expenses of domestic government, unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

SECTION 6. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not in any manner, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, or association; nor shall the Commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.

SECTION 7. No contract, or association, or corporation, shall be made, or any part thereof, of any city, county, borough or township, or of any corporation, or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

SECTION 8. The legislature may, at any time, authorize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, by virtue of a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association, or corporation; or to obtain money, or to contract, or to become a party to, any corporation, association, institution, or party.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution, to be designated as article XII, as follows:—

ARTICLE XII. OF NEW COUNTIES. No county shall be created by the cutting off over one-tenth of its population, (either to form a new county or otherwise,) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof; nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

SECTION 1. From section two of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the city of Philadelphia and of each county respectively"; from section five, same article, strike out the words, "of Philadelphia and of the several counties"; from section seven, same article, strike out the words, "either the city of Philadelphia nor any" and insert in lieu thereof the words, "and no"; and strike out section four, same article, and in lieu thereof insert the following:—

SECTION 4. In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to be chosen by the electors of each county, shall be apportioned and distributed equally, but not so as to be divided by districts, in proportion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; except that any county containing less than one hundred square miles, shall be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided for the formation of a district. Any county containing less than one hundred square miles, shall be allowed a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts, such districts to contain an equal number of population as near as may be, each of which districts shall elect one representative.

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into the following districts, contiguous territory as nearly equal in taxable population as possible; but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof."

The legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such districts to remain unchanged until the appointment in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

TO THE FIFTH ARTICLE. To be section XXV, Article 1. The legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke or amend, any charter of incorporation heretofore conferred by, or under, any act of the general assembly, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the Commonwealth; in such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporations.

IN SENATE, April 21, 1856. Resolved, That this resolution pass. On the first amendment, yeas 24, nays 5. On the second amendment, yeas 19, nays 6. On the third amendment, yeas 29, nays 1. On the fourth amendment, yeas 23, nays 4. Extract from the Journal.

THOMAS A. MAGUIRE, Clerk. IN HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. April 21, 1856. Resolved, That this resolution pass. On the first amendment, yeas 25, nays 24. On the second amendment, yeas 63, nays 25. On the third amendment, yeas 64, nays 25; and on the fourth amendment, yeas 69, nays 26. Extract from the Journal.
