We are resolved to keep pace with the progressive spirit of the age in which we live, by offering for sale at prices that actually alarm the proprietors of old factioned Stores; they being schooled in the high-price principle, or rather in the prices of old thacs—will not lewer their demands; but, in a very happy manner, warn their enstoners not to meddle with the Goods at the New Store, (at the same time exhibiting much concern for fuely welfare,) for they know that none but demaged Goods can be call by yory law.
