THE COUNTY TICKET.

The Convention which met on Monday night, was composed of the most intelligent and prudent Republicans from each election district in the County. Their proceedings were entirely harmonious, and the ticket settled upon, under all the circumstances one of the best that could have been made. We have not space this week to speak particularly of the candidates, who are mostly well and favorably known to the people of the County.

The Buchananians met in County Convention on Tuesday night, and with remarkable unanimity placed in nomination the following ticket:—

Associate Judges—MYRON BALLARD, J. D. MONTAGNE.
Representatives—JESSE EDGELL, S. W. BILES.
Presenting Attorney—FRANCIS SMITH.
Commissioner—SAMUEL B. WOLCOTT.
Auditor—ISRAEL SMITH.
County Surveyor—GEORGE FINCH.

WYOMING COUNTY—The Republican Convention of Wyoming County, met at Tunkhannock on the 25th ult.

ELIHAN SMITH was unanimously nominated for Congress; A. K. PECKHAM recommended for Senator, and the following county ticket placed in nomination:—

Representative—A. HINE.
Associate Judge—JOHN FASSET, IRA AVERY.
Commissioner—JOHN S. LEM.
District Attorney—RICHARD P. ROSS.
Auditor—D. C. ORCUTT.
Surveyor—J. F. BEERS.

A. HINE, CALVIN STERLING, J. C. LACY, were appointed Senatorial Conferees; JOHN S. LEM, M. W. NEWBURY, and STEPHEN DANA Representative Conferees.

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY—The Republican Convention of Susquehanna, met on Monday 21st ult. Hon. G. A. GROW was unanimously recommended for re-nomination. DAVID D. WARNER, as Senator, and SIMON B. CHASE for Representative, subject to the concurrence of the respective conferences. The following County ticket was placed in nomination. —

Associate Judges—CHARLES F. READ, URBAN BURROWS.
Commissioner—PERRIN WELLS.
District Attorney—FRANKLIN FRASER.
County Surveyor—JOEL TERRELL.
Auditor—D. P. TIFFANY.

This is represented as being an excellent ticket and we can vouch for the candidate for Commissioner, PERRIN WELLS, who for many years resided at this place. The Republicans of Susquehanna have done themselves credit by his nomination, and his election will ensure them a faithful and efficient officer.

OHIO POLITICS—The Republicans of Ohio are with great unanimity nominating their present members of Congress for re-election. — Messrs. E. Wade, Giddings, Sherman, Gallo-way, Campbell, Emrie, Stanton, Mott, Biles and Albright have all been renominated.

PASSAGE OF THE ARMY BILL.

The Army bill without the restriction, passed both houses, and Congress adjourned on Saturday. The vote in the House on re-reading stood 101 yeas, to 98 nays. In the efforts made to compromise with the Senate, the House had previously receded from all contained within the restriction except the following provision:—

"That no part of the military force of the United States, for the support of which appropriations are made by this act, shall be employed in aid of the enforcement of any act heretofore passed by the bodies claiming to be the territorial Legislature of Kansas."

To this they adhered until Saturday, when the Buchananians uniting with the South Americans succeeded in outvoting the Republicans, and the President is now at liberty to employ the troops to drive from the Territory every Free State settler who refuses to recognize the validity of the Territorial laws passed by the bogus legislature.

Against the proposition to prevent the barbarous code of Kansas laws being enforced by the power of the General Government, the Buchananians showed an undivided front. Every Buchananian man from Pennsylvania, with every one in the House, voted against the proviso.

Will it longer be pretended that the party does not uphold and sanction the border ruffians, their excesses and enactments? The Republican party has sought to protect the Free settlers in Kansas from the power of the government wielded by the infamous Pierce, controlled and instigated by the Slave Power. The Buchanan party will not permit this—they declare that the laws of the Kansas Legislature shall be enforced, and that President Pierce shall have full power to oppress and tyrannize over all who desire to preserve Kansas from the pollution of Slavery.

If the Buchanan party are now determined that Pierce's measures shall be sustained and his hand strengthened against the cause of Freedom, what change for the better would be the election of Buchanan. Now is the time for the Buchanan leaders to show their sympathy with the cause of Freedom in Kansas, if they have any. Are they favoring that cause in the least? Are not the leaders in Congress aiding and abetting in the most diabolical schemes of the Slavery-propagandists? Are they expected to change? Upon what assurance can we hope for such a result? Certainly not by any position taken, or by pledges given.

Even HICKMAN, who in the outset sympathized with the Free State men at Kansas and deprecated the excesses of the border ruffians, has found himself unable to sustain his position in the party, and has succumbed to the demands of the Buchanan leaders. In solid phalanx that party opposes every measure calculated to retard the spread of Slavery.—JAMES BUCHANAN, if he was anything but the timid, time-serving politician he is, could not stand before the influences that now press upon Northern adjuncts to the Slave power.—They wield a power they have never before controlled. United at the South in a determination to force Slavery upon every foot of the continent, they allow no man to halt who once enlists in their cause, or looks for their support. BUCHANAN has already signified his willingness to aid them in their schemes. By no act or word has he expressed the least dissatisfaction with the startling aggressions of the South, committed within the last few years.—What right has the North to expect that after his election the policy of the party will be changed, the anger of the South defied, and the principles of Freedom be regarded with favor? He who indulges any such hope, is a fit subject for an Insane Asylum.

BACKED OUT.

It will be recollected, that at the time Davy Wilmore, dressed the Black Republican meeting in this place, he received a challenge from E. B. Schnabel, to discuss the issue before the people in the present campaign. Mr. Wilmore accepted the challenge, with the provision that the discussion should take place in his own district. A few days since, Mr. Schnabel visited the district and informed Mr. Wilmore of his readiness to commence the discussion. The latter now refused to entertain an issue in his own district, as he had himself proposed to do, but said he would meet Mr. Schnabel in some other part of the State. Mr. Schnabel insisted upon carrying out the original proposition, whereupon David backed out "entirely," and refused to meet him any where.

The people of that district have yet heard but one side of the main question to be decided, and Mr. Schnabel has determined that the other shall be laid before them. He has accordingly made arrangements with other able and distinguished speakers to hold meetings in all parts of the district.

The man who perpetrated the above paragraph which we take from the Lycening Gazette, has a remarkable facility for coining lies. There is not a single truth in it—the whole story is a fabrication in its main features from beginning to end.

When Mr. Wilmore spoke at Williamsport, Mr. Schnabel neither challenged the former to a public discussion, nor did he give an intimation of his intention to do so. During Mr. W.'s late absence from the county, Mr. Schnabel wrote to him inviting him to a public discussion, desiring it to commence at once. This letter was received on Friday, answered on Saturday, and the same day Mr. Wilmore left to attend his Courts in Susquehanna, commencing the following Monday. In the answer, Mr. Schnabel was informed that Judge Wilmore would be engaged in holding Court without intermission until the 12th day of September, that after that he had made engagements for some time, in the central and western parts of the State, where he would be happy to meet Mr. Schnabel or any one else wishing to discuss the issues now before the people.

Mr. Schnabel in the course of his harangue at Moutrose, took occasion to refer to a challenge he had given Mr. Wilmore, and to boast of "backing him down." This was communicated to Judge Wilmore, who immediately sent a note to Mr. Schnabel explaining the failure to receive an answer to his challenge, and telling him if he supposed that Judge Wilmore was afraid to meet him or any one else in a public discussion, he stood ready to take the stand at the conclusion of his address. No answer was returned to this, and no more was heard of challenges.

Judge Wilmore has already made engagements which will occupy most of his time until election, in various parts of the State. If Mr. Schnabel or any one else wishes to dissipate the darkness of this benighted district, the field is open before them. They need not fear, that able champions will be wanting for the cause of Freedom.

The last paragraph in the extract is characteristic. What will Messrs. OVERTON, ELWELL, BARR, SMITH, PIKE, &c. &c. say to this estimation of their labors? We can inform the Gazette that the reason why this district is nearly unanimous for FREMONT, is that the questions of the day are thoroughly understood and appreciated by our people. If in every district in the State, the great issues at stake were as well understood in all their bearings, the majority against BUCHANAN would be at least one hundred thousand.

FROM KANSAS.

We publish in another column, a letter from Kansas signed by five persons formerly residents of the Eastern part of this County. We commend it to the attention of those who are so loudly proclaiming that the troubles in Kansas, are exaggerated for political effect. The signers of this letter are well known in the eastern portion of the County, and their reputation for candor and veracity need no endorsements from us to those acquainted with them. The Messrs. SHUMWAY are sons of CYRUS SHUMWAY, Esq. of Tuscarora. Mr. RICHARD is a son-in-law, and Mr. CHAMBERLIN was from Wyalising township. They are all young men; who emigrated to Kansas territory for the purpose of settling upon its fertile plains, and pursuing the peaceful occupations to which they had been bred.

It may seem strange that there should be those in the North so far led astray by political feeling, as to be willing to see their neighbors who have emigrated to Kansas, plundered and murdered by the border ruffians, and if not directly approving of the excesses of the pro-slavery forces, at least seeking for excuses to palliate and excuse the outrages perpetrated upon the unoffending and peaceful free settlers. The majority of the emigration from the North has been made up of men like the Messrs. SHUMWAY, who have gone to Kansas to cultivate its soil, and form for themselves and their children a home in that fair land. On the contrary, the Southern emigration has been the refuse of the cities, like Buford's gang, reckless, dissipated adventurers, with no object except to plunder and drink whiskey.

These men, having neither the desire nor the proper implements to cultivate the soil, have encamped in various convenient places and have subsisted upon supplies furnished from Missouri, and by depredations upon the property of the Free State farmers. Instead of the condition of the Territory being exaggerated, report has not done justice to the horrible condition of affairs there. Robbery, murder and violence have reigned supreme. The inhabitants have been kept in constant terror from the incursions of these lawless desperadoes. Having become exasperated beyond endurance, from the wrongs suffered, the Free State settlers have attacked two of the most obnoxious forts, and driven off the Border ruffians.

It would be supposed, that in the effort to protect their families and property, the Free State settlers would at least have the sympathies of their neighbors. We know that the people of the Eastern States are quiet, law-abiding, peaceable citizens. Have they forgotten their early education, and become at once ruffians and desperadoes? On the contrary, the border ruffians are composed of that semi-barbarous class always found on the outskirts of civilization, joined with the off-scourings of Southern cities, enlisted for the express purpose of exterminating the Free State men in Kansas. Where should be the feeling of every Freeman in Bradford in such a contest? — Are you willing to see your friends and neighbors in Kansas murdered in cold blood or driven from the Territory, that Slavery may have undisputed possession? What hope is there for Freedom or Justice in Kansas, if the people of the North stand tamely by, and permit the subjugation of the Free Settlers there? — If the North will not strike in such a cause, we have no hope that the inexorable Slave-power will relax for a single moment its infernal purpose.

We believe all the distinguished Buchananians who came up here recently, says the Moutrose Republican, to enlighten the people of Susquehanna county on the beauties of Border Ruffianism, have departed, "sadder and wiser men." Troubles at home are said to have called off Schnabel, and Backalew's few days' experience convinced him that to preach his kind of Democracy in this region is worse than labor thrown away. He is said to have declared in Scranton that it is useless to attempt to do anything in Susquehanna county, and this County is good for 15000 majority for Fremont. If he said so, he did not shoot wide of the mark. C. L. Ward is supposed to have been summoned back to Washington in great haste to attend to his duties as chairman of the National Committee, several screws having got loose during his absence.

Don Platt of Cincinnati, late Secretary of Legation at Paris, is out for Fremont. Mr. P. was formerly a Democratic Judge of the Hamilton Common Pleas, and in the last Presidential campaign was active and influential for Pierce. He has always hitherto acted with the Democratic party.

ULYSSSES MERCUT, TRIMAN M. BEACH, STURGES SPRIGGS, H. W. TRACY, A. D. FOSS, A. G. MATHEWS, W. M. BAKER, D. PARSONS.

JAMES H. PERKINS, Mr. MERCUT offered the following resolutions:—

Resolved, That we respond to the action of the Republican National Convention, by endorsing the nomination of JOHN C. FREMONT as our standard bearer for the Presidential contest. That we recognize in him those qualities which constitute true worth and greatness—integrity, enterprise, ability and modesty.—

FROM KANSAS.

(Correspondence of the Bradford Reporter.)

Mr. EDGRO: Having spent most of our lives in Bradford County, and being aware of many still hold that there is no disturbance in Kansas, we feel it our duty to give a true account of some of the depredations that have come under our personal observations; and others that we gather from reliable sources; trusting that the people of our own County will at least read, if not believe, them. We know the subject has been held up in almost every possible form, and we do not expect to throw any new light upon it. But if we are capable of setting forth the many outrages perpetrated upon the peaceable citizens of this lovely Territory, by the banditti of the South, backed by the administration and its tools, our object will be accomplished, and all will agree with the Hon. Senator of the State of New-York, in saying "the day of compromises with slavery has passed." As has already been observed, it is the general impression in the North and East that everything relative to the troubles in Kansas, are mere exaggerations; yet, we are loath to say, "the half has not been told." If some of our deep ravines and groves could speak, they would tell you tales of horror and murder that would make the most obdurate heart tremble. Even the worst fanatic cannot be made to believe that which every boy in Kansas knows to be a fact. While it is true that murders and robberies are of almost every day occurrence, and create as little excitement here as a thunder storm would in the east, we have actually talked with those in Bradford County, who insisted that it was all a political farce to elect FREMONT; and that when he is elected quiet would be restored. We hope it will—Now, by aside all party bias and read and believe—he not credulous, for facts are not fiction. One of the undersigned was elected a delegate to the Toledo Convention, which assembled on the 2d of July last and unanimously passed the resolutions set forth at that time. They captain facts enough to stagger any thinking man. While we know that James Buchanan is sworn in the Democratic platform to follow in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor, beware how you affect his interest at the coming election.

Resolved, That we recommend the Union State Ticket to the support of the Freemen of this County. Deserving support, both from the fitness of the candidates for the posts for which they have been named, and for the impetus which that triumph in October will give to the cause of Liberty and the Union in November.

Resolved, That we salute with the homage of profound respect, those true men, who have steadily refused to put military power into the hands of the President, to aid the schemes of the Border Ruffians who seek to subjugate Kansas. That we accept the issues made by the Pro-Slavery party, believing that the President has proved inefficient and faithless in his duty to the country; and that the laws of Kansas are a disgrace to a civilized people. So believing we desire to guard the Free Settlers in Kansas from the faithlessness of the one, and the barbarities and injustice of the other.

The resolutions were adopted; and U. Mercur being called upon made a few remarks, after which the Convention adjourned with three hearty cheers for FREMONT and DAYTON.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT CAMPTOWN.

Pursuant to a limited previous notice, one of the largest and most enthusiastic Freemont meetings of the campaign in this county, assembled at Camptown, on Thursday evening, August 24th. It was a cheering sight to see numerous four horse teams and other vehicles, with banners and music—from all parts of the County, coming in with their living freight of Freemen. Nor was the assembly wholly made up of the sterner sex. Some two or three hundred ladies gladdened the occasion with their presence. The place chosen for the speaking was a most favorable one, on the banks of the Wyalising—a large noble walnut and numerous stately maples, affording a delightful shade to the 2000 who had assembled there in the name and for the cause of Freedom. The meeting was called to order by the nomination and election of the following officers:—

President—CHARLES F. WELLES.

Vice Presidents—HOB. HARRY ACKLEY, NATHAN STEVENS, SHELDON PAYNE, HENRY GAYLORD, WM. CAMP.

Secretaries—Justus Lewis, L. M. Hewitt.

The meeting was addressed by U. MERCUR, Esq., REV. GEO. LANDON and DR. CRANDALL. The breathless interest of the audience during the remarks of the above gentlemen and their long continued applause, at the close, show how strongly they felt for the principles so nobly set forth and advocated in their remarks.

At the close of the speaking the meeting adjourned with three such hearty cheers for the peoples' candidates, Fremont and Dayton, as fairly made the awkin ring. Thus ended one of the best meetings we have attended this campaign. May there be many more like unto it.

Who are the Disunionists?—At the "Grand Democratic Jubilee," held at Tammany Hall, on the 21st ult., DANIEL DOUGHERTY, of Philadelphia, was one of the speakers. In the course of his remarks, as reported in the Times we find the following sentiment:—

"But worse would follow, if FREMONT were elected, for then the Union could not survive. The men of the South would be false to every principle of Freedom, if they remained in the Union in the event of his election."

The gentleman who uttered these disunion sentiments was one of the orators at the late BUCHANAN fizzle in Susquehanna county. If a Republican speaker should utter such outrageous doctrines they would be paraded from one end of the Union to the other as an evidence of the hostility of that party to the Union.

HANCOCK WRIGHT, one of the most able lawyers in Northern Pennsylvania, died at his residence in Wilkesbarre, on Monday night, 25th ult.

He was the leading Democratic member of the last Legislature, and had been spoken of as a probable candidate for State Senator at the ensuing election. In the political, professional, and business interests of Luzerne county, with which he has been prominently identified, his loss will be severely felt.

WHAT WEBSTER, CALHOUN, &c. THOUGHT OF FREMONT.—Read the following testimony of some of our great statesmen:—

"I have acquaintance with the Colonel, and I am so favorably impressed as to him, that I would as readily trust him as any other individual. HIS INTEGRITY IS BEYOND SUSPICION." —John C. Calhoun.

Col. Fremont is a young officer of great merit—one who deserves well of his country for the bravery and ability with which he discharged his important and delicate duties in California." —Daniel Webster.

Col. Fremont exhibited a combination of energy, promptitude, sagacity and prudence, WHICH INDICATES THE HIGHEST CAPACITY FOR CIVIL AND MILITARY COMMAND. THAT THE COUNTRY WILL DO JUSTICE TO HIS VALUABLE AND DISTINGUISHED SERVICES, I ENTERTAIN NOT THE SLIGHTEST DOUBT." —Senator DeC.

Col. Fremont, in my opinion, is the most meritorious American of his age now in existence." —Senator Allen, of Ohio.

"I regard Col. Fremont as one of the most heroic and successful officers in our army—an army of which any nation might be proud." —Senator Rusk, of Texas.

The Democrats of Sullivan county have nominated Gen. Packer for Governor, Judge Jones for Congress, Warren J. Woodward for President Judge, and Geo. D. Jackson for Assembly.

FROM KANSAS.

Another circumstance, although shocking to humanity, is none the less true. A gentleman by the name of Turner, one of our neighbors whose veracity cannot be called in question, was on his return from Leavenworth city, had turned aside for a moment to shake his thirst at a spring which came out of a ravine, but a short distance from the road, when he discovered the dead body of a man among the bushes, which to all appearances, had been lying there some time. It was badly mangled by the wolves and buzzards, which had feasted upon it. While he stood gazing at it, as it were, spell-bound, there came along three or four of Buford's gang, who gave it a good thrashing kick, at the same time calling it a disunionist; an act which did no injury to it, it shows the character of those we have to do with. Leaving the body in the hands of the ruffians, Mr. Turner proceeded on his way home. He had gone but a few miles, when he was met by a woman and a little girl, who formed him she was in search of her husband, who she feared had fallen into the hands of the ruffians and had been murdered. After a few inquiries as to the clothes her husband wore, he became satisfied that the disunionist and stiffened corpse he had just left, was that of her husband, who had left home but a short weeks, and was on his return from Kansas city with a load of provisions for the support of his family. Yet in the face of this evidence, there may be found some old-fashioned who will say there has been no crimes committed in Kansas.

Mr. Ingram, a peaceable unwarmed man, a man in the employ of Mr. Farnsworth, teaming upon the highway, was surrounded by three ruffians, who assured him that death would be his if he did not give up his money. He fled in his dooms, and at the same time exhibited a rope that was intended to extend their unfortunate victim between the heavens and earth. They turned him from his course in order to add terror to the gloomy appearance attendant upon a mind so soon to be habitations, he was compelled to drive his team to the place of execution. The ruffians followed in the rear and presented the
