> THE ASSAULTS ON JACKSON.—The venomous assaults upon the fair fame of Jackson, by the Buchanan men, continue unabated. Thus, the eternity! Lonisville Courier, a leading Buchanan print

" A private letter written by Jackson in 1845 just before his death, meanly vilifying Buchanan, charging him with cowardice and falsehood is shamelessly dragged forth to degrade Buchanan. The infamy of the affair rests upon Jackson for writing his letter, and next upon those who have brought it to light for political effect now for the first time. They who "heap opprobium mountain high upon the grave of Jackson," are they who have dishonored him and degraded themselves by publishing the unto something short and spicy from G. H. fortunate private letter of the insurely vindicative old tyrant, who in this very letter, proved that with hearty cheers for the cause and its to the last, no touch of justice or magnanimity towards an opponent or rival ever entered his breast, and that his only use for friends was to made tools of them. If Buchanan had in 1827, the people of the South by the Border instead of faithfully giving truthful testimony, as he did, corroborated Jackson's charges against Clay, Jackson never would have written his infamous secret letters of 1845! We believe that history convicts Jackson of slandering Clay, and then convicts him of slandering Buchanan because he would not perjure him-
