A Sight for Buchananites.

We saw a scene in the Union Depot vesterday morning, that, we think, preached a more werful Fremont sermon than all the eloquence f the stump or the Senate has yet produced. Seated along the wall, on a bench, was a family of thirteen, the father, mother and eleven hildren, weary, dirty, destitute and wretched beyond all parallel in this prosperour city. At one end was a well grown boy of sixteen, without a shirt his skin blue with cold, exposed, except where scanty garments of thin and coarse linen covered it. He had been siek and was wrapped in a coarse coverlet. Near him sat a young woman, a sister, with her hushand. She was bareheaded and hardly decently covered with rags that had not touched waer, apparently since they were made. A pale and puny baby lay in her arms. Three or four white as their little wool hats, except where the dirt gave an appearance of health to the

The mother was bare-headed, unwashed, and pale, as were all the family. She, like her daughter, nursed a little sickly child, that lay noiseless, but staring with its round eyes at the crowd of pitying spectators. A son, dressed, or rather undressed, like all the rest sat in the middle, shivering with a ther, apparently a man about forty-five years, bors! had wrapt a small quilt about his shoulders, and either under the cheering influence of so His cattle had been stolen by Buford's thieves, and he expelled from the Territory because he near Lexington, Kentucky, and his name was cies, the name of bucks, young or old. Card from Archbishop Hughes.

[From the Courier and Enquirer.]

We have received the following Card from Archbishop Hughes, with a request to publish :-

"The Archbishop of New-York thinks it due, both to the private feelings of Col. Fremont and his family, as well as to reasonable self-respect, to state that he has had nothing to do, either directly or indirectly, with a private letter which is now being circulated thro' the newspapers, purporting to have been writ-ten by J. A. M'Master, Editor and Proprietor of The Freeman's Journal. Several of those papers connect the Archbishop's name directly with that letter, and some of them go so far as to designate it as tho testimony of Archbishop Hughes.

"Now the Archbishop is bound to say that, whether as regards the matter especially alludhitle boys sat next, wan looking creatures, as ed to in this letter, or in regard to any other topic involving, even by implication, his name with any charges which could fix a stain on the private and personal character of Col. Fremont, he (the Archbishop) knows nothing of his own knowledge, and therefore has not made nor authorized any one to make, an accusation their silence and quietude, that it made one's against Mr. Fremont.
