FREEDOM

Is said to be the inevitable result of the coming election; it is also said that this glorious Union is in danger; be It is also said that this glorious Union is in danger; be that as it may, we know that a terrible storm is gathering in the political heavens, which will soon burst upon us in all its maddened fury. But we would say to the citizens of Bradford, heed it not; it will pass harmlessly by. Soon however, storms of a different nature will gather in a wintry sky, which will cause you to tremble like an aspen, unless you procure the necessary protection. Now, it is these kinds of storius that we propose to prepare you to meet. We have just received an extensive and splendid assortment of
