Herrible Murder in Massachusetts. Bostox, Nov. 8.—Peter Naughton and his wife were brutally murdered in their honse, in Dudley, yesterday morning, or the night be-fore, by some villian. Naughton was a re-spectable man, an Irishman, and had accumu-lated some property. The gentleman for whom he worked, went to Naughton's house about ten o'clock, A. M., to inquize why he did not come to work, as usual ; upon opening side by side on the floor, dead, their bodies be improved, one log house, one framed barn and orchard of frait trees thereon. Side by side on the floor, dead, their bodies being mutilated in a horrible manner, their skulls having been dreadfully fractured, apparently with an axe, which was found in the room, with the handle broken. The room was covered with blood, and a chest had been broken open, in which it is supposed Naughton had spin in the bed, in an adjoining roem. This is one of the most shocking mutie door, he found the man and his wife lying le by side on the floor, dead, their bodies bem. This is one of the most shocking muris ever perpetrated, and as vet no clue to e detection of the murderer has been obned. It hardly seems possible that the house th
