DIED.

In Athens, December 16, of scarlet fever, EVALINE H., daughter of Asher and Lydia Huntington, in the 18th year of her age.

She passed away, suddenly and unexpectedly, after a short illness of four days. She was of more than ordinary telents and acquirements, but no enlogy is necessary to proclaim her worth. Parents, brothers and sisters, have shrined her in their heart's deepest affections. Posses sing a mind of high-toned thought and feeling, amiable and kind in disposition, she was highly esteemed and beloved by all who knew her.

Farewell' dearest sister; we know thou art blest, In the realms of the Savior above; But we're sad and lonely, since thou'rt gone to thy rest, And we share no more thy fond love.

In Athens, December 16th, of scarlet fever, DUDSON H., son of James M. and Lydia T. Gates, aged 14 months.

In this borough, Monday morning, 22d instant, JOHN BURGER, aged 53 years.
