FOREIGN NEWS.

Arrival of the City of Washington.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT NEWS!

The screw steamship City of Washington arrived at New-York on Sunday last. She left Liverpool on the 31st ult., her dates are so sequently later than those received by the Asia...

The news is highly important. A serious collision had taken place at Canton between the British authorities and Yeh, the Chinese Governor General.

A barcha under the British flag at anchor off Canton was boarded on the 8th of October by a Chinese force, and twelve of the crew was seized. Consul Parks proceeded on board, and was insulted and threatened with violence.

On the 21st of October the matter was placed in the hands of Admiral Seymour. Hostile measures commenced on the 24th of October. The forts of Canton were taken, and several of them destroyed.

Yeh persisted in rejecting Admiral Seymour's demands for satisfaction, or even an interview. On the 27th of October fire was opened on the city walls and on the Governor's palace.

The city walls were breached and stormed on the 29th of October. The troops penetrated to the Palace, but were withdrawn in the evening.

The loss was three killed and 12 wounded. Attempts at negotiation continued fruitless, and on the 3d and 4th of November the old city was bombarded.

On the 6th of November twenty-three war-junks were attacked by the Barracouta, and all destroyed.

Time was again granted to the Chinese, but no signs were given of submission. According to the last accounts the Bogue forts had been captured. The factories had been almost totally vacated by the foreign community.

Property to a large amount had been destroyed by fire. The British Government have appointed a new Minister to Washington. The name is yet secret, but it is not Mr. Villiers.

Love, Marriage and Shooting.

In November last, while Mr. Blanchett of Grant County, Ky., was in the mountains hunting, a young man named Peter Jones ran off with Miss Emma Blanchett, his daughter, who was under age, and married her.

To accomplish his purpose, Jones committed a most nefarious but singular fraud. By his procurement, his uncle and aunt went to the Clerk of the Owen County Court and represented themselves, the one to be Peter Jones and the other Miss Blanchett, and asked for license to marry...

They then left and handed over the license to Jones, who, in company with Miss Blanchett, went to a Rev. Mr. Sparrow, who married them. The health and spirits of Mrs. Blanchett (the mother of Miss Emma), as soon as she heard of what had occurred, became deeply affected.

Well pleased with these representations, Mrs. Jones went with her father, but remained several days longer than had been agreed on, and her husband therefore went over to Blanchett's house to see what was the matter...

But he was determined not "to give it up so." He then went away and came back the same night with a gang of ruffians, mostly his relatives, and attacked Blanchett's house, he and his wife having returned home.

They broke down the door and rushed in, and then a fight commenced. In the melee one of the Jones party was shot in the back and Mr. Blanchett was struck over the head with the butt of a horse-whip, which knocked him senseless and bleeding to the floor.

The Bluebelts are in humble circumstances, but are people of the highest respectability, and their daughter is one of the most beautiful and accomplished young ladies in Kentucky.

A harmless crazy woman who runs about Rochester, entered the Immaculate Conception Church, on Christmas, during divine service, and took a seat. When the contribution plate was passed, she seized it from the hands of the collector, and emptied its contents into her bosom.

A HEAVY SHAVE.—It was testified to in the trial of Huntington, by a book-keeper of a firm who was in the practice of accommodating him with loans for the purpose of shaving notes, that to one of these firms he paid sometimes, for the sums of five or ten thousand dollars, one per cent, a day, saying it was half what he made.

The laws of Virginia require that every man who marries gives security for the support of his wife and children. Many lovers, who find this inconvenient, go to Maryland to have the ceremony performed.

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATOR.

The result of the election for United States Senator, which took place at Harrisburg on the 13th inst., and the selection of General CAMERON over the caucus nominee of the Democratic party, has created more excitement than anything we have noticed for some time.

It was very generally understood that Mr. FORNEY, the nominee of the Democratic caucus, was in great danger, and those who were watching the course of events, were entirely convinced, that let who would succeed, Mr. FORNEY would be defeated.

The rebuke administered to the so-called Democratic party, by the defeat of its caucus nominee, and especially by the defeat of the chosen candidate of Mr. BUCHANAN, is, indeed, significant; and argues that however much political corruption and villainy may succeed for a time, the day of reckoning is just as sure to follow, as that a party prostitutes itself to the vile and fraudulent purposes which it so distinguished the democratic party in Pennsylvania for the last six months.

The fact that Mr. BUCHANAN entered into this contest personally; that Mr. FORNEY was his own candidate, and that he used, in every possible manner, his influence to secure his election, without success, is most significant, and the result affords a rebuke to him in addition to that given to his party, for their villany throughout the last campaign, which will not fail, we trust, to be productive of important results.

THE QUAKERS HAVE VOTED.—The Pro Slavery organs will please observe that the Quakers of Pennsylvania have voted at last. These methodical gentlemen are proverbially slow, but sure, and it is not to be wondered at that the overwhelming importance of Col. FORNEY led them to believe that he, and not "simply JAMES BUCHANAN," was the man to be defeated.

THE following is the substance of the letter which was written by Mr. BUCHANAN to Col. HENRY S. MOTT, President of the Board of Canal Commissioners, in favor of Col. FORNEY for United States Senator. This letter "did the business." The letter says:— "As my position on the subject of electing a United States Senator may be misunderstood, I beg you to say to my friends, that Col. JOHN W. FORNEY, in my opinion, will best serve my administration of all those named, and I will feel complimented and obliged for the votes of my friends in his favor for that office."

Clayton, and re-elected the Hon. James A. Bayard, Democrat, for a full term of six years from the 4th of March next.

GEN. PACKENHAM.—We copy the following from the New-Orleans Picayune, of the 11th instant:— "We were yesterday credibly informed, by a gentleman who resides near the spot, that in September last, the well known peach tree, under which the remains of General Packenham were buried, a few miles below this city, was broken off, thirty feet above ground, by a gale of wind, and a cannon ball, fired from the British lines during the battle, was found embedded just where the trunk broke off. Thus it was that the brave Briton slept under one of his own missiles as his monument."
