The following inducements are offered to Clubs, desiring to subscribe to this magnificent and national publications Any person remitting four subscriptions for the first vol- ume, comprising four subscriptions for the first vol- ume, comprising four subscriptions for the first vol- copies, free of postage. Clubs of six, remitting $21, will be entitled to two extra copies of the volume, or an extra copy and any other of Putnam & Co.'s publications of an equal value. Clubs of twelve, remitting $42, will be enti- ted to four extra copies, or an extra copy and a complete set of Addison's works, in six volumes, delivered free of postage. The same premiums will be given for a like number of the Illustrated Washington will contain one, and every other number two first-class stele engravings or maps. In addition to the stele engravings or many, the work contains numerous wood engravings illustrative of historical subjects. CLITON.— Persons subscribing for the Life of Washing- ton should be particular to obtain the only work which must forever remain the standard authority. Irving's Life of Yashington bears the imprint of G. P. Putnam & Co., the only publishers of Irring's Works. "Every American should put this work on his bookshelf side by side with his bible. Let your children read it and learn by the example of the Great Washington the lessons of patriotism, moral courage, preseremence under difficu- ties, which the history of his Ilfe affords. Wo know of no American book whice we had rather own than this i it is worth a thousand of the trashy publications which the press is daily rending forth.

Springhill, December 20, 1856. FORRESTER'S PLAYMATE-A Mog-azine for Boys and Girls, begins its sixth volume in January, 1857. It is edited by MARK FORRESTER, the well known writer for the young, who, the reading public will bear in mind, is connected with no other periodical. T e PLAYMATE has been denominated by an eminent writer, as "the BEST YOUTH'S MAGAZINE PTERSTER."-The publishers mean to keep it so. Its embellishments are new, and the reading matter almost wholly original. An entire numb r might be filled with coamendatory notices of the press. The Family (Sprits saye-" No pa-rent who cares a button for his children's wettare, can spend a dollar more profitably than in subscribing for the PLAYMATE."
