THE EPIDEMIC AT WASHINGTON; or the mys terious sickness which attacked everybody who put up at National hotel, just previous to the inauguration, and the cause which has been traced to the water which has been taken from the cistern of the house, into which a number of rats, who had partaken of arsenic had plunged, it is of a more serious character than is generally supposed. Mr. Lenox of Ohio died last week of its effects, and we see by the New York papers that the wife of Mr. Jay L. Adams, who stopped at the hotel on his way home from Savannah, has also died from the sickness contracted there. A postmortem examination of Mrs. Adams revevealed the fact "that the stomach had been partially eaten away; the bowels manifested symptoms of violent inflamation; the lungs were congested, and the kidneys severely affected." These appearances indicate the presence and action of arsenic in the stomach .-Mr. O. B. Matteson, member of Congress, is suffering severely. Many other persons in New York, Newark and in Philadelphia, besides the President himself, are much enfeebled by the attacks of diarhoa, having their origin, as is supposed, in the poisoned water which they drank. The New York Post calls for an investigation by the Coroner, that the public may ascertain the precise extent and nature of the culpability, if any, on the part of the proprietors of the hotel.
