Hon. G. A. Grow-though not yet recovered from the malady by which he, in common with so many of the boarders at the National' hotel, at Washington, has suffered delivered an effective and eloquent address to his constituents, in Montrose, on Monday evening last. We shall not attempt to give even a sketch of his remarks on the recent Dred Scott decision, "Buchanan and Free Kansas" &c., but cannot refrain from noticing his answer to the cowardly insinuation of the Montrose Democrat against his integrity, in the matter of the Collins Steamers-an answer which must for ever silence that base slander Mr. Grow said, a reference to the Congressional Globe would show his vote recorded, in every instance, against the Collins steamers. Collins would hardly pay any one for voting against him!—Montrose Republicau.
