While this paper will be conservative in its tendencies, and independent in its discussions, it will be heartily in sympathy with the great political referms proposed by the National Republican movement of 1-56. The aggressions of slavery as a political power, and the efforts making to give it a national endorsement as a part of the constitutional law of the Union, will be firmly resisted, while it will maintain, in all their integrity, the rights of every portion of our common country. The policy of the Prestates must be self protection, not aggression, and it will be the aim to carry this out in a fraternal spirit.

The Times will contain a large amount of original, editorial, and miscellaneous matter, correspondence, &c., carefully arranged, with express reference to making it
