In one district not a scholar in the schoo could tell me in what county he lived, and when I held up Hollbrook's five inch globe, the oceans of which are painted blue, and asked what it was, a large boy at least seventeen years of age, replied, "a bird's egg!"

"Soon after this I visited another of an uprorious character. There were several infants here, who where not old enough according to law, to be admitted. The teacher said she had been informed by a director that the parents of these babies would pay her for taking care of them, and very artlessly inquired of me what she ought to charge."

SECRETARY STANTON'S KANSAS PLATFORM. Quindaro, K. T. April 25, 1857 .- Secretary Stanton has published an address to the people of Kansas in The Lecompton Union. He says the Administration has recognized the authority of the Territorial Legislature, and the validity of the Territorial laws, and has especially recognized the act providing for a Constitu-tional Convention. He presumes that that Convention will submit the vital question of the domestic institutions of the State for the subsequent vote of the People, and thinks that Congress will then admit the Territory into the Union as a State. He recommends a general amnesty for past offenses and prosecutions, and expects the presence of Gov. Walker about the middle of May.
