port of its every demand is made the single While the utmost care should be observed not test of party fidelity, and the only road to of-ficial preferment. The citizen who dissents in monwealth so rich and of such diversified purterms of earnest and manly protest against suits as our own, yet it cannot be denied that whatever exactions slavery makes, becomes thereby-in so far as the National Government can impose disabilities-almost as much ment of her resources and in productive indusan alien and outlaw as is the slave himself. If the freemen of the North consent to occupy such a subordinate position in the government of their country, the spirit of manly independence will be crushed out in their posterity. an ever active business enterprise. Our sons will become a submissive and servile race, stripped of manhood and self respect. The slaveholder, proprietor of the soil and master of the government, will dominate over them with scarcely less of arrogance and power than he rules over his hereditary bondmen. To this condition are the non-slaveholding whites of the South already reduced. They have to-day, little more of practical power in the formation of public opinion, and in the af-fairs of government than has the slave. The same fate awaits our posterity, if slavery is allowed to monopolize the virgin soil of this continent. It is the inevitable retribution of Heaven on any people that have not the courage and integrity to maintain their rights. It is not true that the defenders of the rights of free-labor seek the elevation of the black race to an equality with the white. They do not of accomplishment, with the State in which render the soil and government of the Nation into the hands of an aristocracy founded upon property in slaves.

Free white labor has rights in the soil superior to the pretentions of slavery. The slaveholding capitalist claims that his property, being largely interested in slaves, will depreciate, unless the field where on he can employ it be enlarged. The white laborer, also, has a property in his labor, quite as sacred and as worthy of the care of the government; and where is the field upon which he is to make that labor profitable to himself and fam ly, if slavery shall monopolize the fertile and virgin lands of the West? Labor is depressed almost to the starving point, in the densely populated countries of the old world, because of the narrow field upon which it is imprisoned. The demand for labor is small, compared with be at no distant day in this favored land, unless we keep our vast public domain as a sa-cred inheritance for the free laboring man and his posterity forever. In the soil of our extended empire, the toiling masses have the only sure guarantee for their future prosperity and independence. This the capidity of capital would take from them; and here lies the real issue that the Slave Power has forced upon the country. It is a struggle for land. On the one side stands the owner of slave property, demanding a field on which to employ his servile labor-upon the other side stands free La- tiary offence to claim or hold slaves in Ohio, bor claiming the soil as an imberitance for a free posterity. Central and Western Europe, teeming with its millions of population, is not as large as the domain of the American slaveholder. He and his boudmen already occupy by far the most fertile and genial portion of this Continent .---Let him rest content with his territorial possessions and power. We do not seek to dis turb him. We neither assail nor defend his asserted right to hold this peculiar kind of property. We simply affirm that we have aothing to do with it, and propose to let him and his slaves alone where they are. We make therefore, no question about the abeliin defence of Freedom in the North. Progress of Negotiations Between the Buchaniers and Americans.

The worst calamity which has befallen Mr. Buchanan-a worse than the rat sickness, or the election of a free soil Mayor at Leavenworth-is the letter to be found in another column, which H. S. Foote-better known to propose the emancipation of the slave, but the country as Hangman Foote, formerly U. leave that question both as to time and the mode S. Senator from Mississippi, but at present a present a political adventurer in Californiaslavery exists. They wish to deal with this in which he avows his admiration for and degreat embarrassing evil in a spirit of friendly votion to the present national administration. forbearance towards those States; but they It was more than the democratic party in its do not carry their forbearance so far, as to unbroken vigor could stand, to have Foete an virtually become slaves themselves-as to sur- acknowledged member of it. How Mr. Buchanan can get along with the Know-Nothing embrace which is proffered him by his old friend, presents a curious problem in political dynamics.

> The ex-senator assures his friends, that the President stands square upon the American platform, as it is construed in California, that his cabinet are of the most unexceptionable timber, and that the prospect of a quiet quaternion for the country is uncommonly good. All this is very soothing, and yet it is odd that the personal of the new government should be so exceptable to the party whose principles were so pointedly denounced in the Cincinnati Convention. Have the Americans become Buchaniers, or have the Buchaniers become Americans, or both? We pause for a reply.

Since writing the above, a speech made by the thousands who have labor to sell. So it will H. W. Hilliard, ex-M, C., of Alabama, another prominent South American, has come to hand, in which he avowed that he had gone over to Buchanan "head and body, limbs and boots," to use his own expressive testimony .---The question recurs with accumulating interest. Which party has apostatized? It will also be curious to see if the Americans and Buchaniers of the North are equally successful in driving a trade .- Evening Post.

A PASHIONABLE ASSORTMENT OF MILLINERY AND FANCY GOODS, To which she would invite the attention of the Ladies. DEDA HOLD STATES Tools, Carriage Trimmings, Fron. Stee and Nails, just received by H. h. MERCUR.

The first number will be issued on SATURDAY, MAY 2d. 1857. While this paper will be conservative in its tendencies, and independent in its discussions, it will be heartily in sympathy with the great political reforms proposed by the National Republican movement of 1856. The aggrea-sions of slavery as a political power, and the efforts mak-ing to give it a national endorsement as a part of the con-stitutional law of the Union, will be firmly resisted, while it will maintain, in all their integrity, the rights of every portion of our common country. The policy of the Free States must be self protection, not aggression, and it will be the aim to carry this out in a fraternal spirit. The TREE shows a state of the state of the state of the total total, and miscellaneous matter, correspondence, &c., carefully arranged, with express reference to making it a popular and intersting FAMILY NEWSPAPER. The price of the TREEs being so low will permit it to be put in the hands of every family in the community. Send in your subscriptions at an early day, and secure one of the best papers published in the State of Pennsyl-vania. Persons desiring the Morning Times can have the same mailed to them regularly.
