ANOTHER MURDER .- We learn from the Binghamton Standard that a colored man by the name of Thomas Vroman was killed in the town of Nanticoke, in that county, on Saturday evening, May 30, by a woman named Mary Shannon. From the testimony taken before the Coroner, it appears that the woman was performing the duties of housekeeper for a man named Dexter Dyer, whose wife was absent, and that early in the evening above mentioned, no one being in the house ing above mentioned, no one being in the house except Dyer, who was sick, the woman, and a NOTICE.—Is hereby given by the undering above including in above including above including above including in above including in about ten years of age, Vroman came to the door and demanded admittance, which was the door and demanded admittance, which was refused. A New Weekly. The Philadelphia Weekly Times,

The first number will be issued on SATURDAY, MAY 2d, 1857.
While this paper will be conservative in its tendencies, and independent in its discussions, it will be heartily in sympathy with the great political reforms proposed by the National Republican movement of 1856. The aggressions of slavery as a political power, and the efforts making to give it a national endorsement as a part of the constitutional law of the Union, will be firmly resisted, while it will maintain, in all their integrity, the rights of every portion of our common country. The policy of the Free States must be self protection, not aggression, and it will be the aim to carry this out in a fraternal spirit.
The Times will contain a large amount of original, editorial, and miscellaneous matter, correspondence, &c., torial, and miscellaneous matter, correspondence, &c
