She left the care of Dr. M. for ome, feeling as though she was saved from worse than death.

FATAL OCCURRENCE .- A most distressing oc urrence transpired on Saturday, at Hanover, ment. Pa., resulting in the death of Jacob Mathias, June 27, 1857. cashier of the Bank of Westminister. It apars that Mr. M. had taken passage at the Baltimore depot for Harrisburg, and whilst the cars stopped at Hanover a minute or two, he entered the public house and drank a glass of emonade. He had scarcely drank before the rain commenced moving off, when he ran from the place and caught hold one of the cars, which jerked him around with considerable violence. Making a second attempt, he again grasped an iron handle of the next car, and on attempting to spring up was prostrated before the wheels, which passed over both legs, cutting them almost entirely off, and fracturing the skull. Mr Matthias was immediately taken up and convoyed to a place of safety. ken up and convoyed to a place of safety, partial and that he is just receiving and now offers every possible means was resorted to, but all to no purpose. MAIL COACH UPSET DOWN A PRECIPICE -On Thursday morning, at 7 o'clock, the Butler mail stage started from Allegheny City, with an unusually large number of passengers-sixeen inside and four or five on the outside .-Nothing worthy of note occurred until they were nine wiles out, within three quarters of a mile of Colt's tavern, when one of the lend horses was attacked with the blind "staggers," and rolled over the side of the road pulling along the other leader, together with the shaft horses, and the coach, down a precipice some hirty feet deep, with rocks at the bottom .-Mr. John McAllister, of the Second Ward, Allegheny City was the most seriously injured Dr. Ormsby, a passenger, examined him, and found that two of his lower ribs were broken, spine bruised, and the skin robbed off his back. His head and shoulders were outside, and the stage in striking, lodged fair across his back here it must have remained twenty minutes. Had it not been for the yielding nature of the ground, he would no doubt have been killed. The other persons hurt were a young man named Ross, of Allegheny, a Mr McWhinley, of Pittsburg, and an old lady with a little boy, all of whom had their legs more or less crushed by being caught under the falling stage .-Some of the passengers continued their journey by the next coach, others returned to Allegheny in market wagous, and all were exceedingly thankful that the accident had not resulted in a fatal termination.

While this paper will be conservative in its tendencies, and independent in its discussions, it will be heartily in sympathy with the great political reforms proposed by the National Republican movement of 1856. The aggressions of slavery as a political power, and the efforts making to give it a national endorsement as a part of the constitutional law of the Union, will be firmly resisted, while it will maintain, in all their integrity, the rights of every portion of our common country. The policy of the Free States must be self protection, not aggression, and it will be the aim to carry this out in a fraternal spirit.

The Times will contain a large amount of original, editorial, and miscellaneous teatter, correspondence, &c, exertfully arranged, with express reference to making it a popular and Interesting FAMILY NEWSPAPER.
