Full details of the exciting race at Goodwood Park, in which the American horses bore a part, have been received in the English papers. Although the American horses were quite badly beaten, they seemed to be highly appreciated, and exhibited speed and endurance which attracted much admiration. Indeed some judges expressed the opinion that they would have won the race had they been ridden by English jockeys, accustomed to the style of English races, the American jockeys being inex-perienced and consequently flurried. Mr. Ten Broeck, and numerous American friends, had large sums staked on the result of the race, and though they have lost they still retain confidence in their horses, whose powers will be better tested for the future races in which they have entered. The race was a very exciting affair, the presence of the horses being the most interesting incident. An immense assembly was present.

After the starter had paraded the horses in Indian file past the Grand Stand, he conducted them to the post, and endeavored to draw them up in the line-a task of some difficulty, owing to the fractiousness of Prior, who caused several breakings away. When the flag was dropped, Viscount rushed to the front, but on reaching the Grand Stand, Riseber, who was pulling hard, went up to him, Viscount, Monerque, Gunboat, Fisherman, and Melissa clustering well up, the American horses bringing up the rear. On turning out of the straight, however, Prioress emerged from the ruck and went away with a lead of half doz-en lengths, Florin, Gunboat, Monarque, Fisherman, Viscount and Arsenal running in a body next. On rounding the turn towards the clump Prioress ran wide, and Gunboat was left in possession of the lead, which he carried on into the dip.

On rising into sight, Riseber and Prioress were seen in close company with Gunboat followed by Melissa, Florrin, Fisherman and Arsenal. They ran thus to the last turn, on descending the hill by the half mile post Gunboat slipped up and fell, and Arsenal jumped apon him, Fordham fortunately kept his seat but Kestrel and Gemma de Vergy both came to the ground. The lamentable occurrence of last year immediately rushed upon the minds of the spectators, and the most painful interest was excited. All fears were dispelled as the jockeys were seen to scramble up apparent-

After this accident Riseber was left with a slight lead, with Monarque at his quarters and Prioress next, and Pryor well up, the American horses going particularly strong and well. At the half distance Monarque went up to Riseber, and Prioress gave way to Fisherman. The race from that point was virtually reduc ed to a match between the first two, Monarque winning by a head, three lengths between the second and third. Anton, who met with a disappointment by the accident mentioned above was beaten about three lengths from Fisherman; Prioress was a bad fifth; Pryor and Melissa were sixth and seventh; the others were pulled in.

PHILADELPHIA. - As the season advances the indications seem to be that WILMOT will receive a much more general support by the anti-Democratic voters of Philadelphia than was at first supposed. Men of all creeds will. indirectly at least, contribute to his election. Packer, the Democratic nominee, being for sundry reasons, distasteful to the masses.

A well-informed politician residing in the city gives it as his opinion that a well o ganized opposition could carry the county officers, and members of the Legislature without difficulty, but that such a union is likely to be defeated by the intrigues of interested parties. He thinks Wilmot will receive twenty thousand votes in the city, and will come out five met's success would be almost certain as his majorities in the Northern and Western counties will be overwhelming.

In Berks, Lehigh, and other German counties, it is stated that Wilmot's prospects are very flattering. The straight-out Fillmore men of last year are rallying to his support almost without exception, and outside of Philadelphia, the solid vote of the opposition will be cast in his faver. The opinion is growing everywhere that he will be the choice of the people for Governor in October next .- Bucks Co. Intelligencer.

A CHARMING DOMESTIC CIRCLE. - A St Francis correspondent of the Helena (Ark.) RALROAD DISASTER .- Easton, August 15. A railroad tie was placed upon the track of the Belvidere and Delaware Railroad, a short distance below Easton, last night, throwing the express train off the track, and doing considerable damage to the engine and the track. Fortunately the train was going slow, and no one was injured. Every effort is being made to discover the perpetrators of the outrage.

COLLISION ON LONG ISLAND SOUND .- A serious and fatal collision occurred on Long Is land Sound, about two o'clock on Saturday morning last, between the steamer Metropolis. Captain Brown, of the Fall river line of steamers, which was coming up the Sound, and the propeller J. N. Harris, Capt. LEGNARD SMITH, bound from New York to New-London. The latter had a crew of eleven persons, all told, and fourteen passengers, including three children belonging to Capt. SMITH. The collision occurred about half way between Falkland Island and New-Haven. The propeller was struck nearly amidships by the long sharp bow of the steamer, cut in two, and sunk in about three minutes. Three of the passengers only escaped by climbing through the cabin skylight, the doors being closed tight by the wrenching of the topwork of the vessel. These, with nine others of the crew, including the Captain were picked up by the boats of the steamer. The total of the lost were thirteen and o the saved twelve. The collision was caused according to the account of the Pilot of the Metropolis, by his mistaking the propeller for a schooner sailing down Sound with a free wind. Governing himself by this idea, he attempted to pass to the left instead of the right of the supposed sailing vessel, while the propeller acted upon the general rule, ported his helm and sheered his vessel the same waythat is; to the south-ward. As soon as the mistake was discovered by the Pilot of the Metropolis he changed his course, Capt. SMITH of the propeller, doing the same, and simultaneously stopping his engine to allow the steamer to take which side she pleased. The consequence was a collision, which happily is of very infrequent occurrence on that crowded marine thoroughfare. The Pilot of the steamer alleges that he saw no head light displayed on board the propeller, which confirmed his impressions, in connexion with the hoisted sails, that she was a schooner. On this latter point the statement of Capt. SMITH is at variance with that of the pilot, for he says a head light was hoisted.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.-LEWIS W. TRUESDELL, gas-fitter for STORRS & CHATFIELD, of this village, on Saturday afternoon last, was engaged opposite the Central House in connecting a gas pipe to the main pipe that runs down the center of Lake Street, about three feet below the surface. The laborers had opened the trench, and he had bored through the main pipe, and was fixing a pipe to conduct the gas in Day's Central Market. While so engaged, in the bottom of the trench, he inhaled the full rush of gas from the main pipe, for 15 or 20 minutes; he had completed his work in the trench, and was sitting on the bank, when he fell over apparently dead. He was carried into the Central House and Doctors ALLEN. EASTMAN, CHURCHILL and SPRAGUE were called. and all exerted their utmost efforts at restoring him. For some two or three hours it was feared he would not recover. Towards evening he recovered so much as to be able to be removed to the residence of Mr. John Char-VIELD, and on Sabbath morning was removed to his father's residence, about three miles east of the village. The accident created quite a ty to hear both sides, for fear they will discovsensation, as nothing similar has occurred previously in this village, though gas has already been admitted into all the stores, and also in to many private dwellings.

Mr. TRUESDELL is a young man of most excellent character, and highly esteemed by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance .-We are glad to hear that he is recovering, and it is heped he will soon be able to resume his business. As this is the first accident of any kind that has occurred with gas since it began to be used in Owego, it will, we hope, give an instructive lesson to those using that subtle lement to take good care that arises from being inflamable. If a room becomes charged with it, and a light be brought near, the gas will explode almost like gunpowder .- Owego Times.

A TRAGIC AFFAIR .- Female Jealousy at Work .- John Ellis, late a policeman in Cincinnati, and his wife some months ago mutually seperated. Recently, however, Mrs. E became jealous, because of his intimacy with a girl named Anderson. The Gazette says that on Wednesday she met the girl, and by threats compelled her to acompany her to the room of Ellis, where he was sitting with his coat off. Coming steathily behind him, Mrs. E. drew a large carving knife from under her mantel and plunged it some four inches into his back, between the shoulder blades. She then went down the stairs, speaking not a word, and the girl, greatly alarmed, followed her in equal silence. Ellis soon descended to the street, and proeeded to the upholstering establishment of his brother, Robert Ellis & Co., 136 Sycamore street; but before he reached there his wife came up again and once more attempted to stab him, and was only prevented by the brother's wrenching the knife from her grasp. He is very dangerously wounded, but refuses to have her arrested.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING .- On last Monday evening Sheriff Miller received a despatch from Mr. Maley of Pittston to arrest two passengers on the Packet-one Mary Maley, his wife, who had eloped with a man named Byrant Yard. This was the man to be arrested. The Sheriff hastened to the Canal, and along with Morris Van Buskirk, found the Runaways on the Packet and arrested them. They had two trunks with them which the Sheriff secured. They had through tickets to Philadelphia, and no doubt think the lightning played them a scurvy trick .- Bloomsburg Star.

DAVID WILMOT, of Bradford Co. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, WM. MILLWARD, of Philadelphia. FOR JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT, JOSEPH J. LEWIS, of Chester Co. JAMES VEECH, of Fayette County.

The true secret of the refusal of Gen. PACKER'S Committee to permit him to meet Mr. WILMOT to discuss the issues involved in the pending State election, is disclosed by the following extract from an editorial in the Allentown Democrat of the 12th. The editor says: "Our exchanges from all quarters furnish unmistakable evidence of the wisdom of the State Committee, in refusing its assent to give WILMOT the opportunity to address audiences his merits or the merits of his many-headed party could never have got together. Notwithstanding, however, the people will soon have an opportunity of hearing at least two Gubernatorial candidates on the stump. Gen. Wm. FACKER will shortly address the people at various points."

Here is an open and plain confession that the State Committee was wise in refusing to permit Mr. Wilmor the opportunity of addressing audiences such as would have been gathered had there been a joint canvass. There will be no diversity of opinion in regard to the foresight of the Committee. But what a commentary upon the justice of the principles, and the boasted ability of their candidate! If their principles are correct, will they suffer from free discussion? Are they not willing that their partizans shall have an opportunier the hypocrisy and falseness of the professions of their leaders? We hardly expected such a frank avowal of the truth, that ignorance and bigotry are relied upon for the success of Democracy, and that the exposition of Republican principles would be so dangerous to the prospect of their success. The "wisdom" of the State Committee is beyond question.

We have not yet learned the order of arrangements -Mr. Wilmor will leave some time this week, to devote the intervening time to a thorough canvass of the State. FROM CALIFORNIA.—The mail steamship Central America, with the California mail of July 20 and $1,241,055 in treasure, arrived at New York Wednesday night. We received, by this arrival, two weeks' later news from California, Oregon, the Sandwich Islands, New Granada, Central America and the South Pacific. The news from California is interesting chiefly in regard to State politics. The The Republican and Democratic Conventions, for the nomination of State officers had been held. The Republicans nominated Hon. Ep-WARD STANLEY for Governor. The Democratic nominee for the same office is Senator WEL-LER. The Republican Convention passed resolutions deprecating the introduction of Slavery on the Pacific coast, declaring the right of Congress to prohibit Slavery in the Territories, and urging the necessity of a speedy construction of the Pacific Railroad. In the are not at all tenable. The first was that it Democratic Convention, a desperate effort was made to condemn the action of the Vigilance Committee, but it failed to meet a response. Bos In Kansas, the late election shows a Free State vote of over 10,000. The late apportionment of the State, made purposely to deprive the Free State men of any chance of uccess, gives ten members to fifty counties which are strongly free-state, and fifty-two members to seventeen counties, which are sup posed to be under the control of the Border-Ruffians. It is also stated, that the payment of the bogus-taxes will be made a necessary qualification for voting. Under these circumstances, the Free State men may deem it prudent not to participate in the election, but will ucation. hold an election under the Topeka Constitu-

PACKER CONDEMNED.

The conduct of Gen. PACKER and the State Committee in declining to canvass the State with Mr. WILMOT does not seem to be well relished by the loco focos out side of Pennsylvania. It is very properly regarded as an exhibition of cowardice, and a want of faith in the justice of their principles, which the more independent of the press are rebuking. The following article from the Cincinnati Enquirer is sensible and to the point :-

"Judge Wilmot, the Black Republican can didate for Governor in Pennsylvania, latechallenged Gen. Packer, the Democratic nom inee for that office, to take the stump with him in public discussion throughout the State, Mr. Packer referred the proposal to the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, who advised him to decline it, assigning several reasons for such course, which, in our judgment, might have a tendency, by making a precedent to prevent, hereafter, the nomination of any man who was not a good debater; and second that in his (the Chairman's) belief there was a considerable public feeling against the propriety of executive candidates appearing fore the people to solicit their votes; and lastly, that Wilmot, the Black Republican nominee, was a Judge, which was a special disquali-

"This latter objection was no reason why Packer should not take the field, and if any disadvantage had resulted to Wilmot in consequence of his improper course, Democrats would not take that to heart severely. The other reason for the declination strikes us as very flimsy. The policy of opposing candidates for high political office discussing together the important issues of a campaign, has been trien in the South and West with the most complete success. The people have been instructed by it, and it is no ususual thing in the South to find men without any education, who, on account of their familiarity with political discussions by the ablest men on both sides, are better informed on politics than many people at the North of far superior ed-

"There can be no better way of elucidating the truth than by a fair and open discussion. The Democracy-on account of the superior justice and strength of their cause-should especially court it on all occasions. The falsehoods and errors of our opponents can no way be so handsomely and forcibly exposed. The adoption of the system in the North would, doubtless, be worth thousands of voters to our organization. The declination of Mr. Packer gives Wilmot's friends an opportunity to assert that the Democracy are afraid of public controversy, and places them in a bad and false position. Packer, we understand, is a good speaker, and would, on the stump, be an overmatch for Wilmot, had the proposal been accepted. We hope that in Ohio no such feeling will prevail, but that our candidate for Governor will promptly meet Gov. Chase in discussion in every part of the State.'

THE ELECTION IN Missourt .- Intelligence eceived from private sources to-day confirms the report that Rollins, the candidate of the emancipation party in Missouri, has been elected Governor. No event of greater importance to this noble state has occurred since her admission into the Union. Aside from the personal superiority of Mr. Rollins over his an tagonist, which, we believe, is not disputed, a triumph of the friends of free labor there, just now, was vital to her. It gives an impulse to her industrial improvements which will make a difference of a quarter of a century in her rosperity. This expression of a pr thousand behind Packer. In that case, Willife by being inhaled. The greatest danger six hours having on board the following list of for free labor by the people of Missouri will for emigration. Land, as a necessary consequence, must rapidly increase in value, and where land is valuable, internal improvements are sure to be required.

This election, too, has a political significanc. Just one year ago Benton undertook to run for Governor, as an avowed foe to emancipation. Its warmest friends did all they could for him, but he was shockingly beaten by both the administration and American candidates. The same party this summer nominated an intelligent and judicious, but, politically speaking, a comparatively obscure man and he is elected. This shows, in the first place, that all the political sagacity in the country will not die with Col Benton, aud in the next place, it shows but for his interference in preventing a Fremont ticket from being run in Missouri last fall, there was more than a fair chance that the State would have given its electoral vote for the Republican candidate .--When the Senator of Thirty Years again has occasion to reliearse from the stump his sonin-law's obligations to him, this should be included .- Evening Post.

DISTRESSING CASUALITY. - A very distressing affair occurred at the Franklin House, in this place, on Thursday last. A number of persons immediately proceeded to the room, when it was discovered that it was all in a blaze. The persons at once proceeded to put out the fire, when it was discovered that Mrs. Sourbeck was burned in a shocking manner. It appears that one of her little girls undertook to light a fluid lamp, and the cap, not being tightly screwed on, fell off, and the fluid ignited and set fire to some clothing on the floor .-Mrs, Sourbeck attempted to extinguish the flames, when her own clothing caught fire .she immediately retreated to an adjoining room where there happened to be a tub of water stonding, but before she succeeded in arresting the flames was burnt very badly.
