

possible that a majority would vote to sustain the author of the heartless and cruel letter to Prof. Silliman on the state of affairs in Kansas. It is only among those who are ignorant of the material facts, and who do not know that Mr. Buchanan has himself appointed to be as well retained in office the master-spirits of the Border Ruffian, robbers and murderers—with the blood of innocent Free State men—with his letter to Silliman can be deemed triumphant. Had one-half the Republicans of Pennsylvania taken the Tribune during the last two or three years and lent it freely to their neighbors, that letter would suffice to insure the defeat of its author and his partisans in the pending contest.

There is yet time to do the needed work. If there be lack of faith or heart on the Republican side, it is confined to the politicians—the People do not share it. Gen. Packer is exceedingly vulnerable with regard to the canal jobs and squanderings of the last ten years in Pennsylvania, and a simple, brief expose of his connection with and profits from these jobs would set thousands actively against him who are now indifferent. The attempt of the allies of South Carolina and Mississippi to raise votes on the assumption that Wilmot is a Free-trader is an insult to the popular intelligence, which only needs to be met to recoil on its authors. Whatever may be Mr. Wilmot's individual notions of Political Economy, his election would be quite other than a Free-trade triumph, and this the authors of the cry that he is a Free-Trade do perfectly know. Mr. Wilmot was nominated and is supported as the champion of Slavery Restriction, and as such he stands or falls; but his election would liberate Pennsylvania from the toils of the political gamblers who, in opposition to their own convictions as well as hers, have dragged behind the triumphal car of Calhounism for most of the last thirteen years, merely that they might riot in the spoils of office. It is high time that they were rebuked for this betrayal, and the opportunity now presents itself.

We close by entreating every Pennsylvania Republican to do his utmost for the election of Wilmot and his able and worthy associates on the Republican State Ticket. In a year of relative apathy, a little effort often secures great results.—N. Y. Tribune.

MOST SHAMEFUL!—The York Republican states that Gen. Packer, in his speech there, went out of the way to indulge in bitter and abusive comment upon his rival, Judge Wilmot. We should not have thought this of the General. When he accepted his nomination at Harrisburg, Packer made a speech, which was understood, by his friends as well as opponents, as a defiant challenge to meet, on the hustings, whoever might be the candidate against him. In this aggressive position of Packer, Judge Wilmot expected his challenge which was not forthcoming. Wilmot himself invited a canvass together before the people. After Packer had, through his "Committee," declined, the name of his opponent should no more escape his lips, and this reference to him be avoided on his part. This would seem to be good taste, justice, and ordinary decency. Wilmot, we hope, will treat Packer as Burlingame treated Brooks after a similar coming down—with utter neglect!

P. S. The Daily News states that Gen. Packer said in his York speech that he wanted to meet Wilmot but the "Committee" would not consent; and this avowed disgust of many of his hearers, even of his own party. Just as if a candidate for Governor was not enough of a freeman to defend himself and attack an opponent, but was a mere tool of a "Committee"!

Mr. WILMOT.—From all parts of the State, we have the most cheering intelligence of the impression making by our friend Mr. Wilmot on the minds and hearts of the people. His rare argumentative ability, his vast fund of politico-historical facts, his intimate acquaintance with distinguished gentlemen, on all sides of politics—his possession of folios of interesting personal reminiscences—his simplicity of manner and wonderful urbanity of disposition—his frank, open-spoken way with the people, all, in harmonious combination, render him one of the most remarkable men of the day.

Pennsylvania may well be proud of such a man as Wilmot as her son, and happy will be the State, when she can point to him as her Governor—as the worthy successor of James Pollock, whose excellent administration of State affairs will be continued by GOVERNOR WILMOT.

The people's nominee is treated with marked respect in the country, eye, even by the friends of Mr. Packer. His political enemies know the worth of the man, whom party duty compels them to oppose.

But, what shall we say of the opponents of Democracy who are doing their little worst against Wilmot? Why nothing, simply because no language we are acquainted with has words which can commensurately express our contempt for them.—Phila. Sun.

OUT AGAINST BUCHANAN.—The Democrats of our little neighbor Lebanon have repudiated the Administration entirely. At the late county Convention which selected a ticket, the regular avowed anti-Buchanan candidate for delegate, Gen. Widman, was elected to that position by a large majority. The question of opposition to Buchanan was fully and fairly discussed, and his enemies were triumphant. How are the mighty fallen.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

RESOLUTION

Proposing Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met: That the following amendments are proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

There shall be an additional article said constitution to be designated as article eleven, as follows:—

ARTICLE XI. OF PUBLIC DEBTS. SECTION 1. There shall be no contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 2. In addition to the above limited power the State shall be authorized to contract debts, to pay interest on the same, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the State; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the payment of the same, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 3. Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no other debts shall be created by, or on behalf of the State.

SECTION 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the Legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than five per cent. of the amount of such debt, which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the State, the proceeds of the sale of any lands or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the State, together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund shall be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the State, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, or in case of any public emergency, or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

SECTION 5. The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt of any other State, city, town, or township, or of any corporation, or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the State to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend the State, or to assist the State in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

SECTION 7. The Legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, by vote of the electors, or by any other mode, to become a stockholder in any company, association, or corporation; or to obtain money for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association, or party.

SECTION 8. There shall be an additional article said constitution to be designated as article XII, as follows:—

OF NEW COUNTIES. No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one-tenth of the population (exclusive of any new county or territory) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof; nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

SECTION 9. The Legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, to strike out the words, "of Philadelphia and of the several counties;" from section five, same article, and insert in lieu thereof the words, "and no;" and strike out, "section four, same article," and in lieu thereof insert the following:—

"SECTION 4. The Legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke, or amend, any charter of incorporation heretofore granted, or to be granted, to any city, town, or township, in its opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the commonwealth; in such manner however, that no injustice shall be done to the incorporators."

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts, of contiguous territory as nearly equal in area as possible, but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof."

The Legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such districts to remain unchanged until the apportionment in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

SECTION 10. There shall be an additional section to the first article of said constitution, which shall be numbered and read as follows:—

SECTION 20. The Legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke, or amend, any charter of incorporation heretofore granted, or to be granted, to any city, town, or township, in its opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the commonwealth; in such manner however, that no injustice shall be done to the incorporators."
