THE LATE AFFRAY IN CONGRESS .- A glorious affair occurred in Congress, on Saturday, in which a sneaking, rascally Abolition, Black Republican scoundrel, named Grow, who hails from some wretched locality in the interior of from some wretched locality in the interior of Pennsylvania, got his deserts at the hands of the gallant and chivalrous Hon. Lawrence M. Keitt. of S. Catolina. It seems that the man Grow had the audacious impudence to cross while there take part in the proceedings. For this he was rebuked by Mr. Keitt, and the man Grow replied with Black Republican slang about this being a free land. Mr. Keitt, and the standard the stand this he was rebuked by Mr. Keitt, and the man Grow replied with Black Republican slang about this being a free land. Mr. Keitt immediately resented this insolence by making an effort to seize the scoundrel by the throat. at the same time calling him a Black Republican puppy. Grow put out his fist (from the shoulder) for the purpose of keeping Mr. Keitt from hurting him, when the latter struck the fist of Grow such a tremendous blow with his eye that Mr. Keitt fell down from the re- formance.

Several Southern gentlemen interfered to prevent Keitt from continuing to punish the insolent Black Republican, and Mr. Barksdale, of Mississippi, struck Washburne, of Illinois, such a blow in the fist with his head that the wig worn by Mr. B. was knocked off. It is hoped that this decided course, on the part of our gallant Southern representatives in Congress, will put an effectual stop to such insolence as talking in Congress about this being a free land .- Southern Fire-ecter.

DOUGLAS IN THE SENATE .- Mr. DOUGLAS is receiving a sample of "plantation manners" at the hands of the Southern Senators. Whenever he rises to call for his Kansas resolutions. half-a-dozen members on the Democratic side of the Chamber start up from their seats to put him down. Mason scowls dissent. Davis blusters " objections." Toombs growls something about "enforcing parliamentary law," and the Vice-President blandly rules him " out of order." If he undertakes to claim the usual courtesies of debate, they interrupt him, worry him, and vote him into silence. Whenever he takes the floor, they never leave off badgering him till they have got him down into his chair again. To those who remember how smooth and smiling the "Chivalry" were to their "honored friend, the distinguished Senator from Illinois," a year ago, whenever the "stern little man in black" strode out into the nisle to make a speech, the contrast is striking - Albany Ere.

The Chinese authorities talked just as stoutive in 1840, when, by an edict of the Emperor, sil trade and intercourse with England was at an end forever, and yet, in two years afterwards, peace and friendship were gladly purchased at the tremendous cost of $21,000,000.
