FATAL CASUALTY .- On Wednesday forenoon an accident occurred at the railroad depot in this city, which resulted in the death of a young man apparently about 17 years of age. His name is unknown, although it is supposed to have been C. BROOK, as a shipping bill found in his pocket, signed by E. Clark, Jr., agent, of the New York Central Railroad, and dated at Buffalo, May 1, 1858, acknowledges the receipt of one box of cloths marked " C. Brook, New York." Coroner SHOCKEY held an inquest, but failed to ascertain any further facts in the case, except that the accident occurred as the young man was attempting to jump on the train while it was in motion, and fell between the cars, two of which passed over him just above the hips, severing his body intwo. FOR CASH OALY Believing that long credits and the abuse of the credit system generally, have been the cause of the great com-mercial revolsion which has brought the whole country to the verge of bankruptcy, and that a continuance of these causes must in a still greater degree produce the same results : and believin that it is far better for both the merchant a d bis customer, that the evil should now be corrected, I take this method of announcing to my cus-tomers and the public that my business will hereafter be conducted strictly upon the ready pay system, and shall endeavor to make it an object to those wishing to buy goods for CASH, to favor me with their patronage.
