The unfinished monument to the mother of Washington, at Fredericksburg, Virginia, is said to be fast going to ruin, and is being disfigured with bullet and shrapnel, being used by the boys as a target.

ANOTHER AMERICAN VESSEL FIRED INTO BY A BRITISH CRUISER.—Captain HOWES, of the schooner Mobile, arrived last night from Mobile, reports, 29th ult., when 25 miles south of Key West, saw a steamship to windward bearing down on us. Hove to speak to her, and when within rifle shot distance, she commenced firing rifles at us, the balls from which passed between the men on deck, and lodged in the bulwarks. Then hailed down the jibs, when they fired two more shots.—They then sent a boat on board of the Mobile, and overhauled the vessel's papers, and declared their intention to seize the vessel, she not having a foreign register on board, but afterwards left without doing so. They gave no reason for acting as they did, nor did they deny plainly seeing the American ensign set on our vessel.

The steamer was the British war steamer Styx.

Another railroad catastrophe, similar to that which recently occurred on the New York Central, through less destructive to human life, occurred on Friday night, on the Lafayette and Indianapolis Railroad, about twenty-two miles east of Lafayette, Indiana. The Cincinnati Night Express was crossing a bridge at that point, the abutments of which had been undermined by a freshet, when the whole structure gave way just as the engine that crossed, and the train was precipitated into the water. Three persons only—the conductor, the engineer, and the fireman—were killed, and the passengers most wonderfully all escaped without injury.

The Submarine Expedition which left Boston for the purpose of raising the sunken ships in the harbor of Sebastopol has returned unsuccessful. It was found that the ships lying at the bottom of the harbor were so badly worm-eaten and decayed that the attempt to raise them must prove a failure.—The expedition was, therefore, abandoned, and the vessels engaged in it were sold to defray expenses.

The Mail-robber TREKEMAN has been conveyed to the Connecticut State Prison to begin his term of 21 years imprisonment. He is not cast down but resigns himself to his fate with apparent cheerfulness. STANFORD & DELISSER, have just commenced to publish an enlarged edition of LITTLE'S LIVING AGE.

A periodical of long established reputation, and high-toned character, comprising the most valuable productions of the master-minds of Europe (from the English Reviews and Magazines). This truly valuable publication stands unrivalled both for the sterling excellence of its literature, and the ultra cheapness at which it is offered. All who would combine profit with pleasure in reading, will find in Little's Living Age their wishes fully attained. There is no other publication in the world that affords so choice and attractive a variety of really good reading, as this periodical; and in addition to this fact, it furnishes over one-third more in quantity than any other work—the yearly issue being 4160 pages—for only 26 per annum.

The Enlarged Series commenced April 2, and offers a good opportunity for persons to subscribe for it. No Magazine can approach this for the intrinsic literary value, for it has the very cream; it is both the best and cheapest periodical in the world. Try a number—12 cents.

This work has received the universal approval of the Press, and also of many of our able and distinguished Editors. President Adams, Chancellor Keat, Justice Story, Hon. George Bancroft, Hon. G. Ticknor, Hon. W. H. Prescott, Hon. J. H. Raymond, Bishop A. Potter, Rev. Albert Barnes, &c.

RECENT EDITORIAL NOTICES. This valuable publication, one of the very best ever issued in this country, has been enlarged to eighty pages each number. The peculiar merit of this work consists in its containing the choicest articles from the numerous British periodicals. The selections are always well made, and it contains such a variety of matter that the tastes of every class of readers appear to be consulted. We are certain of finding in it a carefully written article of the Quarters, and the lighter and entertaining parts of the monthlies. There are no less than fifty periodicals from which the contents of the Age are taken, and with the variety of matter which they embrace, we may safely say that it is a work that should be welcomed in every family.—Courier and Enquirer.

The Living Age is also an unapproachable in value and interest, as a reproduction of the most elegant periodical literature of the day.—Churchman.

I know of no periodical in this country, or in England, which affords so comprehensive and so satisfactory an idea of the literature, politics, and science of the times, as this rightly named Living Age.—J. G. Whittier.

Both for present interest and permanent value, it bears the palm.—The Living Age is a desirable substitute in a household for many expensive volumes.—Salem Gazette.

Tioga Point Agricultural & Junction Iron Works, AT APENNS, BRADFORD CO., PENN.

WELLES, BLOOD & Co., Proprietors. THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and customers, and the public generally, that he has formed a co-partnership with Mr. JOHN P. BLOOD, of Albany, N. Y., who has for several years been Superintendent of the Tioga Point Agricultural Works, and with Mr. SAMUEL N. BLOOD, of Worcester, Mass., (Machinist and Tool Builder, and late Superintendent of the Tioga Point Agricultural Works, &c.) and has formed a firm of WELLES, BLOOD & Co., and that we have leased for a term of years the extensive and well known Iron Works, of Messrs. Shipman & Wells, at this place, and united the Tioga Point Agricultural Works with the same, for the manufacture of Agricultural Machinery, Implements, &c., among which will be Emery's Endless Chain Railroad Horse Powers, Threshers and Cutters, Reapers and Mowers, Portable Circular and Crosscut Saw Mills, Oil Mills, Dog Powers, Cane Cutters, Feed Cutters, Fanning Mills, Plows, Harrows, Cultivators, and all the machinery of the Iron and Brass Trades, of the most improved patterns and construction. We are prepared to do all kinds of Machinery Casting and Repairing, and have for sale a large stock of Agricultural Machinery, Implements, Castings, manufactured by and belonging to Messrs. Shipman & Wells.

Both of the Messrs. Blood are skillful and experienced practical Machinists, and our Machinery will meet all the new and with the latest improvements, and with the encouragement afforded by the patronage of a discerning public, we expect to have the reputation of doing first class work and making the best Agricultural Machinery in use. Athens, January, 1858.

TO DEALERS, FARMERS and MILL OWNERS: Our past individual experience in the manufacture, sale and use of Agricultural Machinery, and Implements, and also in general Machine and Steam Work, with our excellent facilities, afforded by Machinery, principally of our own construction, with the very latest and best improvements, and also by procuring the very best materials and stock of all kinds at cheap rates, will enable us to manufacture better machinery, at some prices, than that of other manufacturers, and also complete with the world in prices and quality of material and workmanship of all kinds of Agricultural Implements, and in all kinds of Casting and Job Work.

We shall pay especial attention to the manufacture of the very best of Plows and Plow Castings. We intend to make castings for all the leading plows in use in our vicinity, and also to make great care to use only the best material. Our plow work is from the best and most celebrated eastern manufactory. We invite all interested in "home manufactures" to call and see our works.

R. M. WELLES, WELLES, BLOOD & CO. J. P. BLOOD, S. N. BLOOD.
