deserted the rooms prematurely. Eventually, however, a number of gentleen entered, conducting to the platform the Hon. Messrs. Grow, of Pennsylvania, LoveJoy Illinois, MORRILL, of Vermont, DICK, of pennsylvania, and Morgan, of New-York.— These were received with a burst of applause, rain and again renewed. The Chairman introduced the Hon. GALUSHE Grow, of Pennsylvania, who said he was ny to meet any portion of the Republicans of the City of New-York, holding, as it did, a entral position in the Republic, and occupyone of the centres of the commerce of the

rld. Under the circumstances it was a sure to meet any portion of that party ch still adhered to the teachings of our athers of the Republic and were still ready to dicate the spirit and genius of the instituos of the Republic. [Cheers.] Pennsylvania shoulder with New-York in her conflicts the rights and freedom of the Republic, in the last contest, America and Pennsyla were for the first time separated and ke in opposite tones. He regretted to say s the key-stone State that faltered in the h but the day of her redemption was, he ed, near at hand. After complimenting istrict he represented as being formerly Gibraltar of the Jackson Democracy, and the home of freedom the speaker proed to deprecate the influence of Southern s and the dependence and subservience orthern politicians. He severly criticised ourse of the Administration generally, as nere blind instrument of the Southern cracy, and dwelt especially on its utter ard of economy in disposing of the public s. Why, he asked, is this enormons exare of money? Why the exhaustion of or the legitimate expenses of Government olitical economist who could tell us that millions of dollars of extra outlay would nded during the last year, without any of territory, would be a not less plaugician than the philosopher who, seeing stail hang out of a hole in a tanner's se, exclaimed, I am a philosopher, but it know how the h-I that calf got gh that hole ! [Cheers.] This rainous arose from the fact that the representa of the people of this Republic owed ce to the Executive, not to those who d them to power. In relation to the nterests of humanity and of the free labor world, the political conflict in our y to day was one between two systems ; free labor on one side and the force ve labor on the other. Was it strange a party should be found announcing that s of Justice were not established to proe weak against the strong, the innocent the wrong-doer, but to declare that as determined by color, and that because and his ancestors were born in Africa d no rights which a white man was bound
