week, instead of three and not finished, as the case now.

We were in those days poor—but rich and gay. We had plenty of the finest kind of shad, and trout, bear's meat and hommony, and venison fresh, salted, and dried, and the skins we dressed and made our pants, coats, vests, and shoes. For hats we used bear and otter skin, for comfort, no quarreling about politics, or office. Lawyers were scarce, and had no use for them. No trouble about Banks, or counterfeit money, a small amount of cash, a hundred or two of dollars was called a fortune, and he that could raise it was rich.

The scene is now changed. Where the wild deer roamed, and bad full possession of the forest, we have fruitful cultivated fields, thriving villages and boroughs, mills, furnaces, machine shops, merchants and tradesmen of all trades, a population of thousands, rail-roads and canals, and can with satisfaction feel and realize the change. May our children and friends long live to enjoy the blessing.

ELIHU CASE.

Troy, Bradford Co., Pa., May 20, 1858.

☞ In our last issue we mentioned the escape of Geo. Probert from our county Jail. At the time he disappeared in Pumpelly's Gore, near our village, nothing was heard of him the Wednesday evening following. About five o'clock on that evening, a fine horse, called Buckskin, belonging to Peter Dailey, of Wyalusing, which Mr. D. had hitched to a post in the Snyder house a few minutes previously, was driven off at great speed by a person without a coat. The horse was driven past the house of its owner and recognized by Mrs. Dailey in passing. Dailey soon noticed the absence of his horse, and soon the whole village was in commotion. Dailey started in pursuit and soon reached Elmira, and found the horse put up in one of the stables. On inquiring who brought him there, the hostler pointed out the man. He was taken by a deputy Sheriff, and Mr. Gregg, the Sheriff, on seeing him, at once judged from his appearance that he was George Porbert, who had broken jail at Owego, and for whose capture rewards were offered by D. L. Jenks, acting Sheriff of Tioga County. Mr. Gregg immediately offered $50 for his prisoner. Probert was brought to Owego by Mr. Dailey and Sheriff Gregg, and remitted to his old quarters.

Mr. Gregg received $100 for the capture. On the next day Probert was on his way to State Prison, there to remain three years for stealing I. Hall's boots. At the next County Court of this county he will indicted for breaking jail, and also for stealing a horse. These two indictments will likely give him three years more each. He was playing a losing game. Every step was farther in and deeper. He began by stealing a few nice boots, and to rid himself clear of that difficulty, he commits another crime, and still another. At the present moment he can safely calculate on seeing the State for the next nine years at least. This to a young man in the prime of life is a hard lot, and ought to teach our young men a lesson. The first steps in crime are easy and perhaps pleasant, but the end is disgrace and bitterness.

It is said that he lay about the Factoryville Hotel during the whole of Wednesday previous to stealing the horse. At Waverly he had only to step over the track and he would have been in the State of Pennsylvania, but he appears to have labored under some singular infatuation. The way of the transgressor is hard. —Owego Times.

TRIAL OF A CATHOLIC PRIEST IN VIRGINIA FOR MURDER.—The trial at Staunton, Va., of the Rev. Daniel Downey a Catholic Priest, for the murder of a man, named Mullins, has ended in the disagreement of the jury, nine being for conviction of murder in the second degree, and three for acquittal. The circumstances of this murder were detailed at the time of its occurrence, several months since. Mullins had seduced a girl, named Margaret Lee, who had been in the employment of Mr. Downey as housemaid. Downey sent for him to induce him to marry the girl. A quarrel sprung up between the two on the interview in the course of which Mulins was shot. The plea of self-defence was set up by the prisoner's counsel on the trial, and well sustained by the testimony. The case will lie over till the next term, six months hence, the prisoner meanwhile to remain in jail. The general belief is that he will be ultimately acquitted. He was a popular man in the district, and always known as a faithful minister. He has acted in a ministerial capacity in that region for more than twenty years.

☞ THE exercises of the Fourth Anniversary of the SUSQUEHANNA COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE, will be held at the close of the present term, on SATURDAY, JULY 3d. The address before the members of the Institute, will be delivered in the Presbyterian Church, at 10½ o'clock, A. M., by Rev. T. S. DEWITT. The friends, patrons and former pupils of the Institute, and the public generally are invited to attend.

DINNER will be provided at the Hall of the Institute, by Mr. DAYTON, the Steward. Charge, 50 cents.

The Trustees will hold their annual meeting at the Institute the same day, at 8 o'clock, A. M.

☞ Former Pupils who may be in attendance, are requested to meet at the Institute, at 9, A. M. By order of the Ex. Comm.

People of Bradford County

IN particular, and readers of the Reporter in general.

MARSH & CO., OF ELMIRA, N. Y. send greetings to you and yours, and desire to inform one and all that they can and will make it greatly to your advantage to purchase every thing you want in the shape of DRY GOODS, FANCY GOODS and MILLINERY, either wholesale or retail of them at No. 5, Union Block, in the aforesaid village of Elmira, N. Y.

Their facilities are certainly unsurpassed; as one member of the firm is on the spot all the while, consulting the tastes and wants of their numerous customers, whilst another of the firm is daily in the auction rooms and importing houses in New York City, securing the newest and most desirable goods at the very lowest rates, (as they buy exclusively for cash) and as they sell for cash only they have no losses to make up, and consequently can and do sell so cheap as to defy competition. Time and space preclude the possibility of mentioning half or quarter of the many inducements which are offered to all to trade at their popular establishment, and the NEW ADVERTISEMENTS will from week to week give but a limited idea of the many advantages to be derived by calling on

A. T. MARSH & CO.,

and as cheap as we can afford to and pay our clerks enough to keep them honest. We would just say that our facilities continue to be such that we will be enabled to offer extra inducements to all to buy Dry Goods of Those in the trade living within a hundred miles of Elmira, are availing themselves of the superior facilities for replenishing their stocks, at No. 5, and our own Ladies are supplying themselves with first class Millinery from Union Block.
