The Eric Rail Road Accident.

[From the New York Times, July 17, 1858.]

The most serious accident that has ever oc curred on the Eric Railroad, happened to the the brakes had been applied to arrest the speed, express train (which leaves Jersey City at 5 : when a shock was experienced which affected 30 P. While some labored industriously to extricate those who were buried beneath the wreck others piled portions of the fragments others brought water from a spring near by, to lowing report : revive those who were fainting from pain and locomotive with one car was dispatched to assistance. By this time all the living, but following statements :injured persons, were placed in the remaining cars; the most seriously hurt reclining upon double seats, and the dead being laid in one of the cars together. The train reached Port Jervis about mid-night, but the news of the who rose, lighted their houses, and made every arrangement to receive and care for the wound ed passengers. The following is a list of the killed and wounded, carefully prepared from the reports brought us from several quarters, Agamemnon and from statements of passengers, which in the details of the disaster agree with our ac count of the statements published below. The nominee for Judge of the Supreme Court -Hon, John M. Read- is a gentleman of distinguished legal ability, and is well and favorably known throughout the State. Originally a member of the democratic party, his sagacious and acute mind early discovered the plan to make that party the ally of slavery, and he was among those who in 1848, raised the standard of resistance to the pretensions of the slave power. Since that time his course has been in consistent support of the principles of Freedom, and some of the most able expositions of the views and actions of the framers of the Constitution upon the powers of Congress over Slavery, and the degeneracy of the Democratic party, we have seen, have proceeded from him. Mr R.'s legal learning and ability are unquestioned, and his election will do much towards elevating the dignity and character of the Supreme bench.

WM. E. FRAZER, the nominee for Canal Commissioner, has served a term in the state Senate, where he secured the respect and confi dence of his associates. The nomination is rather an empty honor, but it could not have been more worthily bestowed.

I can only tender you the sincere assurance that they fall short of the feeling which they seek to express.

I have alluded to the high standard of ability and reputation which seems to have been adopted by the people in your selection. It is, nowever, none too high for the cause in which we are engaged-none too great for the dignity and honor of the work committed to our ands. To men whose love of country must be startled and aroused by the dangers that beset our institutions-whose enlarged understandings appreciate the evils that threaten us, and the remedies to be applied, I need waste no time in detail of these.

Suffice it to say, that the very essential doctrines of Republicanism are at issue—the popular liberty, are all perilled, and the ringng cry for rescue clangs upon the ear of the patriot like a fire bell in the still watches of the night.
